THE STALLION - THE FUTURE

Exceptional Pedigree, Exceptional Progeny.

Many young stallions promise a bright future.

Very few prove it with their first foals.

Born in 2022, Bel Melih is one of those rare exceptions. Sired by Exagon OS and out of Bel Mayleen, he combines an exceptional pedigree with the refinement, elegance and unmistakable Arabian type that have made him stand out from an early age. Yet it is not only his own beauty that has captured the attention of breeders across Europe it is the extraordinary performance of his first offspring.

Bel Melih's pedigree brings together generations of internationally respected bloodlines renowned for producing exceptional type, refinement and show-ring quality. Through his sire, Exagon OS, he inherits elegance, movement and an unmistakable Arabian presence, while Bel Mayleen contributes the strength, femininity and consistency of a proven maternal family. The maternal line adds another layer of quality to his pedigree, with Bel Mayleen tracing back to AJ Mardan, while her dam Maryse OS is sired by Ajman Moniscione and out of Shak Shakira by ZT Shakfantasy. This exceptional combination of bloodlines is reflected in Bel Melih's refined expression and beautiful head always and great neck qualities he is already consistently passing on to his offspring.

It is a pedigree that promised excellence but it is his offsprings that have truly confirmed it.

When Bel Melih's first foals entered the European show ring in 2025, they took the show scene by storm. Championship titles followed across Belgium, Germany and Italy from a remarkably diverse group of mares. It was the kind of consistency that breeders notice and the kind that is rarely achieved by a stallion with his very first offspring.

Milan International Cup and Arezzo 2026

Roma Gallaria 1st Milan International Cup 2026 Filly Foal. What makes these achievements even more remarkable is their consistency. Bel Melih's champions come from a wide variety of mare families, yet they share the same defining qualities: beautiful Arabian type, harmonious conformation, elegant necks, expressive movement and the charisma that attracts attention wherever they compete. Success under different judges, in different countries and from different maternal lines is perhaps the strongest endorsement any young breeding stallion can receive.

At just a few years of age, Bel Melih has already accomplished what many stallions spend an entire career striving to achieve. His first offspring have produced multiple Gold, Silver and Bronze Champions at prestigious national and international events, firmly establishing him as one of Europe's most exciting young sires.

For breeders seeking a stallion with both an exceptional pedigree and proven breeding performance, Bel Melih represents one of the most exciting young sires in Europe today. His first generation has not only fulfilled expectations it has set a remarkable benchmark for the future.
