CENTRUM PRASOWE

by Giorgia Mauri

PAP, the Polish Press Agency in Warsaw, has hosted the press conference organized to announce the next Pride of Poland and the news related to the 2019 edition which will celebrate its 50th anniversary. Present were the minister of agriculture Jan Krzysztof Ardanowski, the president of the Polish Jockey Club Tomasz Chalimoniuk and the acting directors of Janów and Michałów studs – Grzegorz Czocharński and Monika Słowik. The list of horses in Pride of Poland and Summer Sale were given so now breeders have time enough to organize their trip to Poland in August (9th-13th August) and to save money to spend at the exceptional Auction that this year will offer a spectacular list of horses. Nine mares from Janów Podlaski, six from Michałów – plus two embryos – and one mare from Białka will compose the offer of the state studs for the Janów Podlaski main sale, Pride of Poland 2019 (August 11th).

Among the mares it can be found the Janów-bred Primera (Eden C – Preria/Ararat), European

Silver Champion Mare 2013 and Aachen Junior Champion Mare 2012; and Michałów's multi champion Galerida (Shanghai EA – Galilea/Laheeb), in addition to the gens of other Michałów's stars: those of Emandoria (Gazal Al Shaqab – Emanda/Ecaho) and Pustynia Kabila (Kabil Al Shaqab – Pustynna Malwa/Ekstern). The embryos will be the ones of Emandoria x Alexxanderr and Pustynia Kabila x

RFI Farid, two exceptional matches.

The Emandoria daughter Emanolla (by Vitorio TO), Gold Junior Polish National Champion Mare 2018 and Al Khalediah European Arabian Horse Festival Bronze Champion Junior Mare 2018 will be offered as well. The Pianissima's daughter Pianova (by Eden C) is in the Janów Podlaski's list. The oldest mare on the list is the 11 year old Pustynna Malwa (Ekstern – Pustynna Róża/Emigrant), the dam of Pustynia Kabila. The youngest is the two-year-old El Gotta (Ascot DD – El Mediara/Eryks). The mare Anawera (Piaff – Altamira/ Ekstern), already present at the 2017 Pride of Poland Sale, will be offered there.

In addition to that, the Summer Sale will propose a list of strong horses made of 9 mares and one stallion from Janów Podlaski, 7 mares from Michałów and 2 mares from Białka.

Of course, additionally these lists, in Pride of Poland and Summer Sale will be offered private-bred horses and the list will be presented, once ready, in our magazine.

In conclusion a rare selection of extraordinary horses offered to the most selecting group of breeders in the world. Being part of this event means to be part of a new chapter of the Arabian horse history.

After the event on 13th in the afternoon Janow Podlaski will open its doors to visitors for the Open Day and the same will do SK Białka and SK Michałow the day after, on 14th. □
