In the end of September, Arabian horse lovers from all over the globe are gathering together in Aachen to celebrate the beauty of the Arabian Horse. Over the years, the All Nations Cup has grown into the number one among the Arabian horse shows. A guarantee for extreme quality and a great atmosphere. This year, the organizers of the ANC even took that extra step to make this edition of the ANC even more unforgettable. Besides the vote and win which was introduced last year to get the public more actively involved, there were also a lottery and an auction for the children's charity. Ajman Stud donated a car for the lottery winner and Dubai Arabian horse stud sponsored a breeding to FA El Rasheem. The weather this year in Aachen was excellent. Sunny and warm. Judges for this event were Mrs. Cristina Valdes Y Colon de Carvajal, Mrs. Sylvia Garde-Ehlert, Mrs. Deidre Hyde, Mrs. Renata Schibler, Mr. Fabio Alberto Amoroso, Dr. Gianmarco Aragno, Mr. Doug Dahmen, Mr. Ali Shaarawi, Mr. Tomasz Tarczynski

This year the ANC was divided into four days, starting on Thursday with German Nationals followed by the Arabian Futurity Europe. On Friday the ANC started with the geldings aged 1-6 years old. Gorgeous young geldings were presented who would also look great in the normal yearling colt class! Six geldings were shown. Winner of this class with 90.14 points was the gorgeous Black yearling Pistorius (EKS Alihandro x ZT Ludjtyna) – bred and owned by Athbah Stud from Saudi Arabia. Second in this class was the big moving A class Kossack (Prisitice Kossack x Abapana Kossack) – bred by the Kossack Stud and owned by Flaxman Arabians from Belgium.

The next class of geldings were aged seven years and older. Second with 90.28 points was Grand Design (Master Design GA x Yokosuka F) – bred by Armada Arabians and owned by Mrs. Morris from the UK.

The morning continued with the yearling colts. Due to the large number of entries, the class was split in an A and a B class. The A-class was won by the gorgeous refined Pharaoh HBV (Psyche HBV x RFI Sophie al Maktub) – bred by Haras Boa Vista from Brazil and owned by Al Baydaa Stud from Egypt. This lovely colt scored a total of 92.08 points. Second with a total score of 91.18 points was Lamandro (EKS Alihandro x Lamana) – bred and owned by Sax Arabians from Germany.

The Sunday was reserved for the championships. First the German Nationals Championships, followed by the championships of the Arabian Futurity Europe.

The ANC championships opened with a fantastic light show. A lot of effort was put into this and it really paid off! After the light show, an auction was held where one could bid on a breeding to FA el Rasbeem. The breeding was sold for 25.000 euro's to Al Saqran Stud from Kuwait and the money was donated to charity. Al Saqran Stud however, already owned a breeding of FA al Rasbeem and therefore not only paid the 25.000 euro's but also generously re-donated the breeding to the auction to raise more money for the charity. At the second time it was sold for 20.500 euro's to David Boggs, raising in total 45.500 euro for charity.

After the auction it was time for the flag parade of nations. In times of these it is good to feel the solidarity of all nations and the love we all share for the Arabian Horse, no matter what religion you have or from which country you are.

The championships started with the geldings. Beautiful geldings were competing for the gold medal. The quality this year being very high. Gold medal winner of the geldings was the Black Athbah stud bred and owned Pistorius (EKS Alihandro x ZT Ludjteyna). This typy flashy colt did a great performance and took the Gold medal well deserved. The silver medal was for the big moving EL Emando (QR Marc x Emanda) – bred by Michalow and owned by DG Arabians from Germany. The Bronze medal champion was Nabeel al Nasser (EKS Alihandro x Noof al Nasser) – bred and owned by Al Nasser Stud, Qatar.

The championships for yearling fillies were next. Gorgeous fillies, all eligible to win a title and since Aachen has an open championships, all could be the gold winner! The highest victory however went to the beautiful refined D Ajayeb (RFI Farid x Ladi Veronika) – bred and owned by Dubai Arabian Horse Stud. The silver went to another RFI Farid filly: HDM Maria Apal (x WW Imania Apal) – bred by Haras del Mar and owned by Ajman Stud from the UAE. Saelens and owned by Al Shabania Stud from Qatar. The bronze went to Falah al Shaqab (Fadi al Shaqab x Josephs Just Emotion) – bred and owned by Al Shaqab Stud from Qatar.*
