At the end of the summer, placed in one of the most beautiful and historical cities in the world, we will yet again be able to experience a great meeting of the Arabian horse lovers, along with the beauty of the purebred Arabian horses. Prague Intercup 2017, which will be held in the capitol city of Czech Republic in September, will once again open the doors to a new adventure in traditional settings of the magical Prague.

This city is the biggest city in Czech Republic, and is one of the most visited and beloved cities amongst millions of tourists from all around the world. It's charming atmosphere lays in the attractions that it offers, such as the Prague Castle, the Charles Bridge, old Town Square with the famous astronomical clock, and many other historical and architectural treasures. Apart from these see-worthy attractions, Prague is also a city with a lot of restaurants with both local and international cuisine, local stores, handcrafting establishments, high standard accommodations for every taste, museums, galleries, theaters, cinemas, cafés, and the cozy streets to be enjoyed.

Just a few minutes drive from the city center, the Prague Intercup 2017 will be taking place. The show organizer Jaroslav Lacina, along with his hard working team, are raising the bar this year with a few new innovations, whilst still staying true to the formula that makes this show so special. The show will be held as previously during the first weekend of September, where Saturday the 2nd of September will welcome the guests with already XVI. national show and thereafter melt into the international show, which will continue into Sunday the 3rd of September. On the same day there will be held a special championship for European bred and owned horses only. Sunday will also introduce the attending guests to a special performance, before the excitement of the championships, which year after year has proven to be something to look forward to.

The team of officials will consist of worldwide known specialists for Arabian horses, including one of the best disciplinary committee members and veterinarians.

Following the success of the last year's Masks Event theme for Breeders Evening, this year will also include a Saturday night event with a new theme and on a special location in Prague. Through the whole weekend, our official transportation sponsor, Mercedes Benz will be transporting our guests from hotel to arena, and on a few autumn sightseeing trips through the magic of Prague's history. Our officials will be enjoying a comfortable stay at the luxury Hotel Intercontinental, which is placed a few steps away from the Vltava River and the showground.

The showground itself will include a VIP area with it's own catering service for the guests, as well as space for the outside guests to view and enjoy this spectacular competition. The beautiful material prizes for the winning participants this year will mark some innovations as well, including newly crafted artistic glass trophies from the Czech manufacturers. At Prague Intercup 2016 the total prizemoney divided to participants was 5000 Euros, whilst this year a new prizemoney amount will be revealed through the official website for the show at www.pragueintercup.cz. Apart from that, the show will be streamed online for those watching from their home screens, and the results will be managed by ArabianHorseResults team.

We hope you are ready for a wonderful September weekend at the Prague Intercup 2017 with the exquisite Arabian horses, delightful atmosphere and wonderful memories to last. We are looking forward to meet you all personally in Prague!
