The 2018 show season kicks off as usual with the Ajman Arabian Horse Festival.

Around 300 horses have travelled from all corners of the UAE to compete at the first show of the new year. Since a few years the Ajman show reveals which horses will be the top contenders for each farm for the bigger shows. As each year, the quality is very high, both in the juniors as well as in the senior categories.

The most anticipated classes of the yearling fillies present a high number of outstanding individuals. The Gold medal goes to D Rannanah, shown by Paolo Capecci and bred and owned by Dubai Arabian Horse Stud. Sired by the International Champion and as well homebred D Khattaf and out of the beautiful Jumilla, this showy and pretty filly was named Unanimous Gold Champion.

Silver was Nahhaba Al Zobair, out of World Champion mare Tehama Ballalina and sired by Cavalli. Bred and owned by Al Zobair Stud. Third place goes to Al Aryam Samha, a daughter of World Champion Kahil Al Shaqab bred and owned by Al Aryam Arabians.

At his first outing Saddam Al Bidayer gains the Unanimous Gold Champion title in the Yearling Colt division. He's sired by ES Sarab, and out of Multi champion producer DL Marielle. This beautiful and typy grey colt promises to follow in the hoof-steps of his siblings Kanz Albidayer and Raoud Albidayer.

Another Cavalli yearling gains the silver for Al Zobair Stud, Fakhr Al Zobair, out of the homebred mare Ammoriah Al Zobair. Bronze goes to Bezyan Al Bustan, a FA El Rasheem son bred and owned by the Al Bustan Stables.

The judges during the Junior Fillies Championship didn't seem to find an agreement and after a tie broke by the highest score in the qualifying classes, the Gold goes to Al Zobair Stud with Aajilah Al Zobair. Sired by SMA Magic One and out of Risalah Al Zobair. Silver goes to Albidayer Stud and Kareemah Albidayer, followed by the FA El Rasheem daughter D Mumayyazah, a familiar face for many as she won several international titles in 2017 both in the UAE as in Europe.

Al Zobair Stud strikes another Gold with Edwan Al Zobair in the Junior Colts. Again a son of SMA Magic One, who seem to be producing extremely well for the home farm.

Silver is the grey Shanghai EA son KA Nabras, bred and owned by Mr. Khaled Ghanem Mubarak Al Omairi from Ajman. Adding yet another title to the successful career of this young colt. Bronze goes to D Ibn Rasheem, as the name suggests a FA El Rasheem son bred and owned by Dubai Stud. A young colt full of expression and charisma.

The Gold Champion mare title goes to Abu Dhabi, for Al Aryam Arabians with Al Aryam Hamra, who won her qualifying class with a massive 93.88 and nine 20s! An extremely charismatic bay daughter of Marajj. Silver goes to Najdiya Al Zobair, a bay daughter of Eden C and out of World Champion Mare Najdah Al Zobair. Bronze goes to the Marhaabah daughter Asela Al Kindi, owned by Mr. Saeed Khamis Al Barman Al Zahmi.

The Gold Champion Stallion title goes to the ethereal Barjass Al Zobair. A pedigree that speaks for itself. Sired by SMA

Magic One and out of the gorgeous Wh Justice daughter, FM Gloriaa. Bred and owned by Al Zobair Stud, this promising young stallion reflects the beauty of both his sire and dam.

Silver goes to Omeir Al Hawajer, a second generation homebred horse from Al Hawajer Stud. Sired by Sh-Hab Al Hawajer and out of Garshoub Al Hawajer.

Shown for the first time at the age of 4, the bronze champion title goes to Masroor Albidayer, a son of Aj Dinar out of Mayasah Al Bidayer. A very promising young stallion.

For the first time, the 2018 Ajman show hosted an elite auction of Ajman Stud horses. 38 horses had been offered for sale. The highlight of the night, and most awaited entry, was indeed the stallion Spartacus TO. As always he put on an incredible show together with his long time handler Frank Spoenle. Congratulations to all the new owners of the beautiful horses offered by Ajman Stud.

See you all back in Ajman in 2019!
