

ARABIAN MASTERS

Never change a winning team! This is the philosophy of the Patron of this splendid show Mr. Daniel Colassin who, together with Anne Marie de Beaulieu and Monique Lacombe, represents the inner structure and organisation of the venue which has reached its 26th edition. This year the International ECAHO B Show took place in the beautiful and sunny Bordeaux on 17th and 18th May. 80 Arabian thoroughbreds competed in the ring. The Team of Judges was formed by: Dr. Abderazak Hmidani (Morocco) – Mr. Koean Detaillieur (Belgium) – Mrs. Claudia Darius (Germany) and Mrs. Maria Ferraroni from Italy. The Disciplinary Committee was formed by Mrs. Béatrice Princen and Mr. Daniel Souppat. Mr. Philippe Siboude was Ring Master.

I would like to point out that this show is held during one of the most important EXPOS in France - an agricultural fair that hosts numerous product exhibitors in the related field. This context gives total visibility to the Arabian Horses present: visitors be they novices or experts, families who want to introduce their children to horses...in this particular case Arabian Horses, and others.

The Organizers offered many prizes including the "Jacques Mauze Prize" for the best French horse competing, the "Pat Maxwell Prize" in honor of the man who dedicated his entire life to Arabian horses (fortunately his daughter and wife are following in his footsteps), the ACA Best in Show Trophy and the Best French Breeder Trophy sponsored by "Tutto Arabi".

The categories took place in perfect harmony all day.

The first category was for the yearling fillies and first place was taken by

The horse with the highest score of the show (370 points), was the winner of the 7 years and over stallions category: "BAYARD CATHARE" (Padrons Immane X Shamilah Bagheera). This horse has always been very famous in France and is now owned by the Royal Cavalry of Oman. The second place in this category was assigned to another important horse: "SC DAGASH" (Davidof X Verbala) owned by Albidayer Stud.
