Blue sky, sun, beach, 'le cote d'azur' – all this forms a good base for the 2012 Mediterranean Arabian horse show, held at the beach of Menton on June 23 & 24. Add to this over 120 entries of horses that have the highest quality in the world and you know the reason why this show is the favorite of many.

As every year, the show was perfectly organized by Christiana Chazel. Judges for the event were Mr. Detailleur from Belgium, Mrs. Garde-Ehlert from Germany, Dr. Nasr Marei from Egypt, Dr. Santoro and Mrs. Stigler from Italy and Mrs. Stojanovska from Poland.

This year, a new system was introduced to the show. One new item was the championships in the yearling classes. With the quality and number of entries rising in the yearling classes over the past years, along with the big difference existing between the yearling and the three years old in the final junior female championships, the organizer choose for a separate championship for the yearling classes. Furthermore prize money of in total 25.000 euro's was headed to each of the final Top Five in the female and male yearling championships, generously sponsored by Al Zobair stud.

For the best in show female champion, sponsor Al Shaqab stud donated one breeding to the legendary Marwan al Shaqab.

The show started on Saturday afternoon. Enough time to visit the nearby Monte Carlo, the town of Menton itself or to relax at the beach. Although the temperature was rising up to 26 C, the climate inside the VIP area remained comfortable. A big compliment to the show organizers!

The yearling class for the fillies were divided in section A and B. Winner of the first class with 92.5 points was the beautiful AJ Asyad (Marwan al Shaqab x Aja Angelica) – bred and owned by Ajman Stud of the UAE. She also was awarded with the best head trophy of this class. 2nd in class was Jenan al Shaqab (Gazal al Shaqab x Aliaa al Shaqab) – scoring a total of 92.10 points for breeder and owner; Al Shaqab Stud, Qatar.

Section B was filled with the same quality of yearling fillies. This class was won by Ghanadir al Zobair (MCA Magnum Gold x Thoraya al Zobair) with a total of 93 points! A great result for breeder and owner Al Zobair stud from the UAE as she also won the best head trophy of this class! She was followed by D Thikra (Marajj x Psynata), who was scoring a total of 92.2 points for breeder and owner Dubai Arabian Horse stud from the UAE. At the 3rd place and also qualifying for the final Top Five yearling females with 91.9 points was Tahani al Khaled (MCA Magnum Gold x LT Tornita) – bred and owned by Al Khaled farm from Saudi Arabia.

The championship of the yearling fillies was exciting and with the new system were everyone could be the champion, added some extra excitement. The final choice for gold medal winner went to AJ Asyad for Ajman Stud. Silver medal winner was Ghanadir al Zobair for Al Zobair Stud. The choice for the bronze medal for some came totally unexpected as she was 3rd in the class but very well deserved. A great success for Al Khaled farm with this beautifully bred Tahani al Khaled!

The yearling colts were also divided in two classes. Winner of the first section yearling colts was Sultan al Shaqab (Amir al Shaqab x Abha al Shaqab) with 92.4 points – bred and owned by Al Shaqab Stud from Qatar. He was also awarded with the most beautiful head trophy of this class. 2nd in the class with 91.4 points was CS Izaz Asayl (Royal Colours x CS Opportunity) – bred by Marco Sensi and in ownership of Dubai Arabian Horse stud, UAE.

The second class of yearling colts had only four participants, but all of such high quality, that the first three all went on to the final top Five yearling colts. Winner of the class was Marsal al Shaqab (Marwan al Shaqab x Miss el Power) – bred and owned by Al Shaqab Stud, Qatar, scoring a total of 92.6 points. Runner up in this class with 92.3 points was the good moving Ascot DD (Glorius Apal x Lady Aymona) – bred by DD Arabians and in ownership of Athbah Stud from Saudi Arabia, earning also the award for best head. 3rd in class with 91.8 points was Shareem el Chique (Redwood Lodge Artique x LH Gina Lolo Bridgeta) – bred and owned by Redwood Lodge Arabians from Australia.

The final yearling colt championships gave almost a unanimous outcome for Sultan al Shaqab for Al Shaqab Stud. Silver medal winner was Ascot DD for Athbah Stud. Bronze medal winner was another Al Shaqab bred £3 owned colt – Marsal al Shaqab. A great success for Qatar!

The junior filly classes were to enter next. Two big classes of fillies 2 years and older made the competition high. Winner of the first section with 93.5 points was the ultra-exotic AJ Siyadah (Vervaldee x Sweet Caroline LL) – scoring a perfect full 20's for type and also earning the best head trophy of the class. Siyadah is bred and owned by Ajman Stud from the UAE. 2nd in class with 92.9 points was the Ul Sid Parma (El Sid x CA Kuponona) – a mare that has been very successful throughout this showseason. Breeder and owner is the Ulrichsdal family from Denmark. 3rd in class and herewith also qualifying for the final top 10 was Magnums Tulip (QR Marc x Magnums Madonna) – bred and owned by Knocke Arabians from Belgium.

The b-section of the two years old filly class was won by Ghazalat al Khalediah (Gazal al Shaqab x Argentina SS) with an impressive score of 93.4 points for breeder and owner: Al Khalediah Stables of Saudi Arabia. 2nd in class with 92 points was Kinshasa JA (Eden C x Nusalbah) – bred by Laure Severin and in ownership of Patricia Maffre from France. 3rd in class and also qualifying for the Top ten was Rose al Shaqab (Marwan al Shaqab x QR Annah Ferrari) – scoring a total of 91.5 points for breeder and owner Al Shaqab Stud from Qatar. Winner of the best head trophy in this class was the colourfull LB Gucci (Ajman Moniscione x Bess Ginger) – bred by Hestad family and owned by LB Arabians from Norway.

The three year old fillies was only one class but again filled with high quality. Clear winner of the class with 94.1 points was the beautiful Shirin by Aisha (Wh Justice x Aisha) – bred in Italy by Gurioll/Gladlich and in ownership of Athbah Stud from Saudi Arabia. She also took the well-deserved best head trophy of this class. 2nd in class with 92.7 points was AV Dalia (Ajman Moniscione x AV Dolimba) – bred by in ownership of Arabian Valley, Italy and on lease to Dubai Arabian Horse Stud, UAE. 3rd in class with 92.4 points and qualifying for the final top 10 was the black beauty Ava (Vervaldee x Aziza) – bred by Aziza Arabians and owned by Pat Hannay from the UK. 4rd in class and also qualifying for the top 10 with 92.2 points was the exotic Irinah (Shael Dream Desert x Ballereena) – bred in Brazil by Elcio Brigatto Umeira and owned by Pamela Moell from Sweden.

The junior filly championships was for sure not an easy one to judge as nowhere in the world you will find such a lineup of high quality females! The opinions of the judges were therefor quite diverse. The final gold medal winner was AJ Siyadah for Ajman Stud. A silver medal was for Shirin by Aisha for Athbah stud, leaving the bronze for Ghazalat al Khalediah for the Al Khalediah Stables.

Off it went with the senior mares, aged 4–7 years old. A class with Brazilian flavor. The amazing performance of FT Shaella (Shael Dream Desert x Soul Pretty TGS) made her achieve the perfect score of all 20's for type, head and neck, earning a total of 94 points. Shaella was bred in Brazil by Flavina Torres and is in ownership of Dubai Arabian Horse stud, UAE. This mare also earned the Best head trophy of the class. 2nd in class with 92 points was Haifa al Khalediah (F Shamaal x Ansata Nile Pearl) – bred and owned by Al Khalediah stud from Saudi Arabia.

3rd in class and qualifying for the final top ten with 91.7 points was Sophie el Power (Power world x Elkada Sabibi) – bred Jairo Quiriroz Jorge from Brazil and in ownership of Tripodi Arabians from Italy. 4th in class and also qualifying for the final top 10 with 90.4 points was Julia Jina Bea EA (WH Justice x Shalimah Jina Bea) – bred by Christian Bourrasse and in ownership of Equus Arabians from Spain. 5th and also qualifying for top 10 with 89.3 points was Al Inaya (WH Justice x Al Dafina) – bred by Gerhard Huber and owned by Al Hamra Arabians from Austria.

2012 Menton

The judges

Christiane Chazel, Jaroslav Lacina and Dominik Briot

The class of senior mares born in 2004 and before was maybe one of the best classes of the day. Gorgeous world class mares were dancing in the arena. Impossible to determine who was the most beautiful one. Luckily this was the difficult task of the very well qualified judges! Winner of the class with 94.1 points was Magora (Gazal al Shaqab x Margotka) – bred by Blommerod Arabians and in ownership of Al Khalediah Stables from Saudi Arabia. Runner up in the class with 93.7 points was the extremely beautiful Venetzia (Versace x Giavanna) – bred in the US by Royo Arabians and in ownership of Al Shaqab stud, Qatar. Venetzia scored the perfect score of all 20's in type, head and neck, earning the best head trophy of her class. 3rd in class with 93.1 points and qualifying for the top 10 was Abha la Luna (El Perfecto x Gual Alba) – bred by Marieta Salas and in ownership of Mai Stud, Kuwait. 4th in class and also qualifying for the top 10 with 92.9 points was the timeless beauty Dorar (Ashal al Rayyan x Bequis al Nasser) for the Royal Cavalry of Oman. 5th in class with 92.3 points and the last one to qualify for the final top 10 was Baleena EB (Balih el Jamaal x NNL Prolifika). Baleena was bred in Brazil by Elicio Brigatto and is in ownership of Tripodi Arabians from Italy.

Next up was the impossible task for the judges to choose their final champion. This time they were all agree and choose FT Shaella for Dubai Arabian Horse Stud as their unanimous senior champion mare. Silver medal winner was Venetzia for Al Shaqab Stud. Bronze medal winner was Magora for Al Khalediah Stables.

On Sunday it was time for the boys, starting with the junior male classes: the colts of 2 years old. Clear winner with 94.5 points was the extremely beautiful and promising Wadee al Shaqab (Marwan al Shaqab x OFW Mishaabl). He is the full brother to reigning world champion junior stallion Kabil al Shaqab. Both bred and owned by Al Shaqab Stud from Qatar. Scoring the perfect score of all 20's in type, this young colt looks like he is going to step in the footsteps of his famous brother and father! 2nd in class with 92.5 points was the colourful Calypso OS (Ajman Moniscione x AB Nastrapsy) – bred by Osterhof Gestut from Germany and in ownership of Sabankaya Select, USA. 3rd in class with 91.9 points, qualifying for the top 10 and also winner of the best head trophy in his class was the extreme Van Gogh AM (Magnum Psyche x Ynazia HCF) – bred in the US by the Bedeker family and in ownership of Al Mohamadia Stud from Saudi Arabia. 4th in class, qualifying for the final top 10 with also 91.9 points was Hasman GYO (Ajman Moniscione x Habiba Rey) – bred and owned by allevamento Gyo Trovo from Italy. At the 5th place and qualifying for the final top 10 with 91.3 points was Maharani HDM (Marajj x Miss Yasminah Elamal) – bred by HDM Arabians and in ownership of Al Mohamadia Stud from Saudi Arabia.

The class of the 3 years old colts that was up next gave some new names in the participant field. Winner with 93.4 points was the Al Khalediah bred and owned Fakbr al Khalediah (Marquis x Barab al Khalediah). Runner up in the class with 92.8 points was the new coming and impressive Cavalli (DA Valentino x Aspyr) – bred in the US by the Poling family and in ownership of Mubarak Awaad from Kuwait.

3rd in class and qualifying for the top 10 with 92.3 points was Aja Angelo (WH Justice x Aja Aaisha) – bred and owned by Aja Arabians from the UK. 4th in class with 92.1 points was Kanz Albidayer (Ajman Moniscione x DL Marielle) – bred and owned by Albidayer Stud from the UAE. Kanz qualified for the final top 10 and also received the trophy for best head of his class. 5th and also qualifying for the final top 10 with 92 points was Ajlad (IM Bayard Cathare x Ro'a) – bred and owned by the Royal cavalry of Oman.

Up next was the tough competition of the junior male championships. Unanimous gold medal winner was Wadee al Shaqab for Al Shaqab stud. Silver medal winner was the interesting Cavalli for Mubarak Awaad and bronze was for van Gogh AM for Al Mohamadia Stud.

Off it went with the senior stallion classes. Always full excitement! First to go were the stallions of 4–7 years old. Won by the exotic QR Marc (Marwan al Shaqab x Swete Dreams) with 93.9 points, scoring full 20's in type, head and neck for owner Knocke Arabians from Belgium. QR Marc was bred in the US by QR Arabians and also took the best head trophy in the class. Unfortunately the horse got lame after the class and was withdrawn from the championships. 2nd in class with 92.8 points was the beautiful Al Khatab al Thani (Al Batran x Hanan al Thanya) – bred and owned by Al Sawary Farm from Saudi Arabia. At the 3rd position and qualifying for the final top 10 with 91.9 points was the extreme moving Macho des Alpes (Padrons Psyche x EAMT Maribuana) – bred and owned by the Berg family from France. Another horse qualifying for the top 10 and earning a 4th position in the class with a total of 91.6 points was Glorius Apal (Justify x Gloria Apal) – bred by Swatam Arabians and in ownership of Al Khaled Farm, Saudi Arabia. 5th in class with 91.3 points and also top 10 qualified was LA Kronos (WH Justice x LA Kalabari) – bred by Lasahr Arabians and owned by Chioll & Moll, France.

Next to go was the class of the senior stallions born in 2004 or before. Won by the dark bay exotic Dakharo (Dakar el Jamaal x FOF Kharolina) with 94.2 points for Al Khalediah Stables of Saudi Arabia. Bred in the US by Joy Gildersleeve, this stallion also took the trophy for best head of the class. At the second position with 93.5 points was IM Bayard Cathare (Padrons Image x Shamilah Bagheera) – bred in France by Richard Roques and in ownership of the Royal Cavalry of Oman. 3rd in class with 90.8 points and also qualifying for the final top 10, was his brother IM Icare Cathare (Padrons Image x Bint Idrees) – also bred by Richard Roques and Allevamento Montecucco di Gatti Gloria from Italy. Also the 4th and 5th in class qualified for the final top 10. This was Om el Beshaan (Om el Shammaan x Om el Benedict) – bred by Om el Arab and owned by Linjawi stud from Saudi Arabia – and for Perfect de Lafon (Padrons Image x Papouchka) – bred and still owned by Harad de Lafon, France.

Before heading to the last championship of the day, some special awards were donated by the many generous sponsors.

The trophy for best female and male of the show was sponsored by Al Shaqab stud and went to FT Shaella (female) and Wadee al Shaqab (male).

The trophy 'Espoir' was a trophy given to a horse of choice by the sponsor Al Khalediah stables. This trophy went to the WH Justice-son Aja Angelo!

The best owner and breeder award, sponsored by Al Nayfat stud was for Al Shaqab Stud, Qatar, who had a great weekend as they could also accept the trophy for highest scoring male of the show, a trophy sponsored by Al Shabania Stud, and awarded to the young and promising Wadee al Shaqab. His sire, Marwan al Shaqab, was once again announced as best sire of the show. A trophy sponsored by Athbah Stud.

Highest scoring female of the show was Magora. This trophy was sponsored by Albidayer stud.

Best Egyptian of the show, an award sponsored by El Farida Stud, was awarded to the gorgeous Dorar.

Best French horse of the show was Kinshasa JA – sponsored by the AFCA.

Last trophy to be awarded was the one sponsored by APCA, and was for the most favorite horse of the show, chosen by the VIP. This award was awarded to the unfortunate QR Marc.

After the last trophies were handed out, it was time for the final results of the senior male championship. Unanimous gold medal winner was Dakharo. A big success for the Al Khalediah Stables! The silver medal winner came a bit as a surprise as he was only 4th in the class, though the judges thought he was capable of more and gave the medal to Glorius Apal! It was a very close call with the final bronze medal winner: Al Khatab al Thani.

A very exciting end of a spectacular show. A show that has reason to be at the top of everyone's list! Well organized, in a super environment with the best horses in the world – the Mediterranean Arabian horse show in Menton is certainly worth a visit and we will definitely return next year!
