The first weekend of June, equestrian center Vilhelmsborg in Aarhus, Denmark was covered in an Arabic atmosphere as it was hosting the prestigious International B-show, organized by the Danish Society of Arabian Horses. Judges for the event were Dr. Gianmarco Aragno from Italy, Dr. Nasr Marei from Egypt and Mr. Ferdinand Huemer from Austria. The equestrian center was beautiful decorated with a large arena for the horses so they had all the space to trot out.

The day started with the junior classes. First to kick off was a big class of yearling fillies. Winner of this class and later bronze champion was Walena (El Sid x Wanilla) – bred and owned by Husted Arabians and later announced as best Danish bred horse of the show. 2nd in class was Gina Lollobrigida (El Mariachi x Sarahfina) – bred and owned by Nadeschda Brennicke from Germany.

A beautiful class of 2 years old fillies where next to do their entry, led by the amazing beautiful Marwa al Nasser (Marwan al Nasser x Aliah al Nasser) – bred by Al Nasser Stud from Qatar and now in proud ownership of Ajman Stud, UAE. Later this mare achieved the silver medal in the final junior championships. 2nd was Viva Luhane (Wan-Khali x JurLuhane BR) – bred and owned by Cautzar Arabians from Denmark.

Also the 3 years old fillies' class was a tough one with again a lot of entries.

2012 INTERNATIONAL B-SHOW

Germany. Later in the championships he took the silver medal. 2nd in class was El Vito (WH Justice x Evita-N) – bred by G. Noel, owned by Graaf-Wolf from The Netherlands and leased by Jani Pedersen from Denmark.

After the break it was time for the senior ladies, starting with the class of mares 4-6 years old. Winner of this class was ESA Naadirah Nile (Ansata Nile Nadir x Imperial Baarikah) – bred by Imperial stud from the USA and in ownership of Hanaya Arabian Stud from Switzerland. Later in the championships, this mare took the silver medal. 2nd in class was Al Inaya (WH Justice x Al Dafina) – bred and owned by Al Hamra Arabians from Austria.

A big group of 7-10 years old mares was up next, led by Al Emira (Mahadin x Al Czrika) – bred and owned by Al Hamra Arabians from Austria. Later in the final championships, this mare achieved a bronze medal. 2nd in this class was FA Estipona (Redwood Lodge Essine x CA Samira) – bred and owned by Falcon Arabians from Denmark.

Beautiful senior mares of 11 years and older was next to come. Only three participants but all well-bred grand ladies. Classwinner and later Gold champion mare was Emira (Laheeb x Embra) – bred by Michalow Stud from Poland and in ownership of Ajman Stud, UAE. 2nd in class was the classic Lady Satyn (Satyn el Jamaal x Lakhmee el Shaklan) – bred by LenitaPerroy from Brazil and in ownership of CecillaKvistborg from Sweden.

The next day was for the senior stallions, starting with the 4-6 years old stallions. Easily won by the gorgeous Nader al Shaqab (WN Star of Antiqua x Alisaa al Shaqab) – bred and owned by Al Shaqab stud from Qatar, later named Gold champion at the final stallion championships.

2nd in class and later bronze medal winner was El Mariachi (Excalibur x Sharima III) – bred and owned by NadeschdaBrennicke from Germany.

Last class of the day was the class of the 7 years and older stallions, won by Redwood Lodge Essine (GG Magnetism x Om el AmiraEstopa) – who later took the silver medal in the final championships. Essine was bred by Redwood Lodge Arabians and is in ownership of Calbar Arabians from Denmark.

With this class another vibrant show for Arabian horses came to an end. We really enjoyed the beautiful city of Aarhus and its friendly residents and are looking forward to return again next year!
