n the 19th of August, the Zottegemse paardenhappening took place in Zottegem, Belgium. An event dedicated to all horsebreeds. Within this event, an Arabian cup was organized as an Ecaho Cshow. Organized since 2009, the show now became quite popular among the Belgian breeders and could welcome as much as 70 entrees!

Judges for the event were Mrs. Patricia Borstel from Belgium, Mrs. Verena Egli from Switzerland and Mr. Peter Birch from Denmark.

As most editions of the Arabian Cup, the temperatures where tropical and the horses and handlers were pushed to the limit at 36 C.

Despite the weather, there were quite a lot of spectators and a good atmosphere.

Next to go was the ridden class. Despite the hot weather, the horses kept performing! Big winner of the ridden class was LM Lamee (Essteem x Lilyh el Jamaal) – bred by La Movida and owned and ridden by Marianne Cornelisse.

Last class of the dat was the Native costume class which had only one participant. This was Simons-Michiels met Irada (Padrons Kadar x NA Impala).

Due to the hot weather, some horses were withdrawn from participation, which was a shame, but perfectly understandable. Nevertheless, the show was a success and can look back at a nice day full of quality Arabian Horses, proving that Belgium is definitely at one of the higher levels when it comes to breeding and owning Arabian (show)horses!!
