At the 4th and 5th of May, the showseason in Europe started with the all time popular Tulip Cup in Deurne, The Netherlands. Organized for the 11th time, over a 100 horses were entered. Judges for this show were Mrs. A. Stojanowska from Poland, Mrs. I. Stigler from Russia, Mr. F. Santoro and Mrs. L. Mascagna from Italy and Mr. K. Detailleur from Belgium. For the first time, the Tulip Cup also organized the yearling championships. A formula we have seen at many of the bigger shows last year and which turns out to be quite successful. Another initiative of the organizer was the breeder bonus. A bonus of 250 euro's given to the horse with the highest score, bred and still owned by the breeder.

The day started with the foal classes. As still early in the season, not many foals were entered. Winner of the filly foal class and the later overall foal championship was Forelocks Veronique (Psytadel x Verkaisa F) – bred and owned by Forelocks Arabians, The Netherlands. The 2nd place and a silver medal was for BV Principessa's Rose (Psytadel x
