In uno dei siti più prestigiosi di Francia, Chantilly, si è tenuto nei giorni 10 e 11 agosto il Breeder's European Championship, organizzato dall'Arabian Horse Organization. Per chi ancora non conoscesse a fondo questa organizzazione, vi dico che è composta da un team di persone che condivide un pensiero comune - l'amore per il cavallo Arabo - e che investe molte energie e denaro nell'allevamento del PSA. A questo proposito voglio cominciare questo articolo pubblicando qui sotto le parole con cui il Chairman dell'associazione, HRH Prince Abudulaziz Bin Ahmed Bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, ha saputo esprimere questo concetto nella prima pagina del programma dell'evento:

The Breeders' European Championship, organized by the Arabian Horse Organization, took place on 10th & 11th August in one of the most prestigious locations in France.

For those of our readers who do not know the above-mentioned Organization well, I would like to point out that it is formed by a group Arab countries who share a common love of Arabian Horses and who invest a lot of energy and money in breeding them. The words of HRH Prince Abudulaziz Bin Ahmed Bin Abdulaziz Al Saud – Chairman of the Organization – best describe this concept in the first page of the event catalogue:

Opening Message

Dear Breeders, Handlers and Guests

You are warmly welcomed to the Breeders' European Championship 2013.

Created by the Arabian Horse Organization, this Championship aims to encourage and promote the work of the breeders who have dedicated their lives to this magnificent genuine Arabian horse.

We would like to thank our sponsors, who share with us the passion for the Arabian horse for their enormous support in order to organize this event. At the same time, we would like to thank all the breeders and handlers who took up the challenge to present some of their best horses in this show.

The Arabian Horse Organization is very proud to host the Championship in such a fine and ideal venue that is the Domaine de Chantilly which is perfectly fitting to the Arabian horse's beauty and elegance.

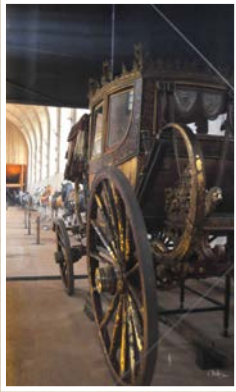

We hope that you will enjoy this competition set in the beautiful surroundings of the Chateau de Chantilly and the Grand Stables and wishing all of you a very successful show.

The Organizing Committee

Chantilly 2013

la "reggia" del Purosangue Arabo the "Palace" of the Arabian Horse

Questo pensiero racchiude in sè l'amore, il desiderio e la necessità di tutti di continuare la più antica tradizione allevatoria della storia del cavallo: quella del Purosangue Arabo! Tradizione allevatoria che viene riconosciuta e premiata in show di questo tipo anche grazie a montepremi di tutto rispetto e a regole tassative per potervi partecipare: i cavalli devono essere nati in Europa, registrati alla Waho, essere di proprietà dello stesso allevatore e non essere mai stati premiati con medaglia Gold, Silver o Bronze in uno show di classe A.

Il montepremi messo a disposizione per lo show di Chantilly - pari a 170.000 euro - era così suddiviso: 1000 euro a ogni cavallo classificato fino al 5° posto in tutte le 12 categorie; poi in campionato 10.000 euro al Gold, 5.000 al Silver e 3.000,00 al Bronze. Oltre a questi sono stati assegnati anche due premi speciali - da 5.000 euro ciascuno - per il miglior allevatore, ritirato quest'anno da Mr. Giancarlo Buzzi per la produzione dello stallone Ajman Moniscione e per il miglior handler che ha visto vincitori ex-aequo Mr. Frank Sponle e Mr. Paolo Capecci. A riprova della serietà dello show, sono stati messi a disposizione dei Veterinari di campo, ben 18 kit anti doping, uno per ogni eventuale medaglia vinta in campionato.

Ma veniamo allo show. Molte sono le persone venute da tutto il mondo per essere presenti a questo meraviglioso evento, organizzato e supportato da Mr. Essam Abdulla, Vice Presidente ECAHO, dal Dr. Mohamed Machmoum e da Mr. Ahmed Abdelrazek e sapientemente coordinato dall'instancabile Mrs. Fredericke Kopp con il suo staff. Hanno inoltre contribuito Mr. Mike Ashmore con la sua ormai nota voce, Mr. Kristof Heymans per la musica, Cecile Marleix con le fotografie che trovate anche in questo articolo, Mr. William Recharidot de Choisey per il coordinamento della stampa. Inoltre, come sempre

This thought encompasses the love, the desire and the need of all involved to continue with the most ancient of horse breeding traditions: that of Arabian Horses!

This breeding tradition is recognized and rewarded in shows like this with significant prizes and strict rules for those taking part: horses have to be born in Europe, registered at WAHO, be owned by their breeder and must never have won a Gold, Silver or Bronze Medal in an Title Show during the last three years. The total prize money of the Chantilly show was more than Euro 170,000 divided as follows: Euro 1,000 for each horse that qualified in the first 5 places of all 13 classes; Euro 10,000 for the Gold Medal winner in the final Championship; Euro 5,000 for the Silver Medal winner and Euro 3,000 for the Bronze Medal winner.

There were also two special prizes of Euro 5,000 each which went to the Best Breeder - won this year by Mr. Giancarlo Buzzi for his stallion Ajman Moniscione - and the Best Handler, won by Mr. Frank Sponle and Mr. Paolo Capecci who shared the prize.

18 anti doping kits (one for each available medal in the Championship) were made available to the Vets - further proof of the seriousness of the competition.

But now let's take a look at the show...

Many people from all over the world travelled to be present at this wonderful event organized and supported by the ECAHO Board Member Mr. Essam Abdulla, Dr. Mohamed Machmoum and Mr. Ahmed Abdelrazek, and coordinated by the expertise of the untiring Mrs. Fredericke Kopp and her staff. Mr. Mike Ashmore with his familiar popular voice, Mr. Kristof Heymans with his music, Cecile Marleix with the beautiful photos you will find in this article and Mr. William Recharidot de Choisey as press coordinator, all contributed to a successful outcome of this show.

quando si svolge un importante show, oltre a noi di Tutto Arabi erano presenti gli amici di Arabian Essence per la diretta streaming che ha avuto più di 4000 spettatori nel mondo.

L'organizzazione ha inoltre offerto, per tutti coloro che lo desiderassero, una visita al "Musée Vivant du Cheval" di Chantilly, uno dei più grandi e più visitati siti equestri del mondo (oltre 200.000 visitatori all'anno).

Una giuria di tutto rispetto è stata invitata a valutare i 138 cavalli iscritti in gara, dalla Germania Mrs. Claudia Darius, da UAE Mrs. Deidre Hyde, dall'Australia Mrs. Marion Richmond, dall'Italia il Dr. Gianmarco Aragno, dal Sud Africa Mr. William Brown, dall'Olanda Mr. Cedes Bakker e infine dalla Jordania Mr. Noufal Kahook. In campo come Ring Master Mrs. Anna Koziol dalla Polonia. Alla Commissione Disciplinare Mrs. Vivian Reisel-Van Eerten dall'Olanda, Dr. Laura Mascagna dall'Italia e Mr. Kaies Ouelhazi da UAE.

Ho cercato di descrivervi la magnificenza di questo show nel miglior modo possibile, ma la cornice con lo sfondo della reggia di Chantilly, l'eleganza dei tavoli vip, l'alta qualità del catering, i profumi delle campagne verdi e ben curate, l'accoglienza dell'organizzazione... beh, quelli non si possono descrivere con le parole: dovrete venire personalmente ad assaporarli il prossimo anno! Per ora vi lascio alle classifiche e alle foto di Cecille. □

As with every important show, Tutto Arabi joined forces with our friends from Arabian Essence with their live streaming followed by over 4,000 people around the world. The Organizers offered all those interested the possibility of visiting the "Musée Vivant du Cheval" in Chantilly, one of the biggest and most visited equestrian museums in the world (over 200,000 visitors per year).

A quality team of Judges was invited to judge the 138 horses that took part in the venue: Mrs. Claudia Darius from Germany, Mrs. Deidre Hyde from UAE, Mrs. Marion Richmond from Australia, Dr. Gianmarco Aragno from Italy, Mr. William Brown from South Africa, Mr. Cedes Bakker from Holland and Mr. Noufal Kahook from Jordan. The Ring Master was Mrs. Anna Koziol from Poland. The Disciplinary Committee was formed by Mrs. Vivian Reisel Van Eerten from Holland, Dr. Laura Mascagna from Italy and Mr. Kaies Ouelhazi from UAE.

I have tried my best to describe how spectacular this show was, but the beautiful Palace of Chantilly as a background, the elegance of the VIP tables, the high quality catering, the lovely smells of the well-kept countryside, the hospitality of the Organizers well, all this cannot be described by words! Next year you will have to come personally and see it all for yourself!

I will now leave you to the final charts and to Cecile's wonderful photos. □
