Championships & Awards

The Sunday was dedicated to the championships and awards. The best of the best returned to the ring to claim the title of titles... World Champion Arabian horse. The yearling filly championships was on first. All of them somehow related to Marwan al Shaqab or Magnum Psyche. What says something about the quality of these stallions but also about how we are slowly narrowing the breed. Yearling filly gold medal champion was awarded to the great Minwah (Kahil al Shaqab x LC Primavera) – owned by Aljassimya farm! The Silver medal was awarded to the Brazilian Esperanza al Ventur (FA el Shawan x Honeys Delight RB) – owned by Athbah stud. The beautiful Najdiya al Zobair (Eden C x Najdah al Zobair) of Al Zobair Stud claimed the bronze medal.

The junior filly championships was an amazing group of high quality fillies, however there was one that clearly stood out from all of them and was awarded with the Gold medal unanimously! This honor went to AJ Sawahi (Marwan al Shaqab x Siberia SA) of Ajman Stud! The silver medal was awarded to Al Muawd stud for their beautiful Perfin-ka (Esparto x Perfirka)! Leaving the bronze medal again for Ajman Stud. This time awarded to AJ Asyad (Marwan al Shaqab x Aja Angelica)! A great success for Ajman Stud that later also got awarded with the best owner and breeder award!

Off it went with the senior females. Extra excitement here as an extra horse was added to the championships. It was the legendary Pianissima (Gazal al Shaqab x Pianosa) claiming the ultimate title – Platinum World Champion mare. Pianissima looked fantastic. I don't think there will soon be a mare good enough to challenge her as she is so close to perfection! It was a great joy to see her again in the ring for the very last time. Also the other mares selected for the championships were the crème de la crème. It came very close, but the final winner of the Gold Medal was Emandoria (Gazal al Shaqab x Emanda) for Ajman Stud, earning the last crown for her Triple Crown title! Winner of the silver medal was the extremely type FM Gloria (WH Justice x Psity of Angels) for Al Zobair Stud. Leaving the bronze medal for the just as gorgeous Aja Afrodite (WH Justice x Lovin Psyche SSA) for Mystica Arabians.

The yearling colt championships showed the future of the Arabian breed. A variety of bloodlines and within the Top Ten also a Straight Egyptian colt. PSE al Rakhan (Royal Colours x PSE Mistrez) of Prestige Straight Egyptians was awarded The Best Straight Egyptian Male of the show trophy. A great title for such a young colt! I am looking forward seeing him in a few years! The gold medal of the yearling colts went to Antaris OS (RFI Farid x Justina) for Ajman Stud – who had a great show this weekend! The silver medal went to Equiborn KA (QR Marc x Espadrilla) for Knocke Arabians. Leaving the bronze medal to the pretty Nashmi al Hawajer (Marajj x Maniba bint ibn Narav) for Al Hawajer stud!

Next to go was the championships of the junior stallions. All young and potential breeding stallions aiming for the crown. This was given unanimously to Mr. Showman; EKS Alihandro (Marwan al Shaqab x OFW Psylhouette) who gave the perfect performance this weekend and who already knew he was there to win, the minute he entered the arena! I believe a bright future is awaiting this special stallion! A great victory for his owner Athbah Stud, who was celebrating a double victory as their other competitor Ascott DD (Psytadel x Monogrammed Lady) was named Silver medal winner! The final bronze medal went to Sultan al Shaqab (Amir al Shaqab x Abha al Shaqab) for Al Shaqab stud!

The last championship of the day was of the senior stallions. Important breeding stallions of the modern Arabian horse breeding were competing for the World Champion title. In between them was also the incredible Baanderos (Marwan al Shaqab x HB Bessolea) of Al Khalediah farm. A gorgeous stallion who could still win anywhere in the world but this time was here to claim his title of Platinum World Champion male. A title well deserved! The gold medal for the World Champion Senior stallion went to the well balanced Fadi al Shaqab (Besson Carol x Abha Myra) for Al Shaqab stud. A gorgeous stallion with a close to perfect body, long neck and super type who also presented himself with a decent trot and combined with his long fairytale mane captured the hearts of many. The silver medal was given to the great showhorse Shanghai EA (WH Justice x Salymah) for Equus Arabians and Asayel Stud. This snow-white stallion had a great fanclub and his exquisite head and type is a hard one to beat! The bronze medal went to former world champion Abha Qatar (Marwan al Shaqab x ZT Ludjkalba) for Al Mohamadiah Stud.

Before the end of the show, some awards were given. The Highest scoring female award went to Emandoria (Gazal al Shaqab x Emanda) for Ajman Stud for scoring a total of 93.83 points. The highest scoring male award went to Alihandro (Marwan al Shaqab x OFW Psylhouette) for Athbah Stud scoring a total of 94.25 points!

The Coupe de France trophy was given to Munir Aladeyat (WH Justice x GH Marwana) for the Royal Cavalry of Oman.

The award for Best Egyptian related female went to Pilarosa (Al Adeed Al Shaqab x Pilar) Bred and owned by Janów Podlaski State Stud from Poland.

The Best breeder of the show trophy was awarded to the Janów Podlaski State Stud from Poland! Breeders of Platinum champion mare Pianissima and many more fantastic horses. The last award was given to the Best sire of the show. An award that has been given to the same stallion over and over again; the great Marwan al Shaqab (Gazal al Shaqab x Little Liza Fame) for Al Shaqab stud. Marwan has had a big influence on the Modern Arabian horse breed and also brought some color to the showscene – as there were times the arena was filled with all greys!

With the World championships coming to an end it is good to reflect the year and to realize how far we have become with perfection the Arabian horse. The quality has never been so high! What I do miss at the World championships are the ridden classes and the gelding classes. There has been ridden classes in the past and seen the turn-up at the European championships in Belgium last year, I think there can be many participants willing to promote the Arabian horse under saddle. The Salon du Cheval in Paris is a great opportunity for this as there are many visitors enjoying the show who are not yet involved with the Arabian horse. I believe it is good when they also see the other side of the Arabian horse; that they are great performers under saddle as well!

And the gelding classes. With the market of today, the demand for colts has drastically dropped. Which means that more and more good colts are being gelded. This could be turned into a new market. The market for the Arabian show geldings. There are so many beautiful geldings around and winning the title of World Champion gelding can give a new impulse to the market of today. □
