The 2014 East coast Arabian championships kicked off with Sydney International Equestrian Centre showing us two sides of its weather. As the week went on the sunshine started and so did the showing.

Over three days of showing we got to see some Australia's finest Arabian horses, derivatives, and performance Arabians. With highlights ranging from youth classes that saw Jessica Dertell gaining champion purebred youth with Lover Girl FF to the beautiful EBL Juliette owned by Emma Adams taking a clean sweep of the supreme ridden derivative and the highly competitive east coast cup.

Saturday night kicked off with a warm evening of music, laughter and loud cheering welcoming our judges, international Steve Lieblang and locals Gail Iskra, Graeme Colvin and Jennifer Saunders.

We got down to the business of showing which saw many great horses being paraded. Such as the beautiful black grey filly Chelleason Sophias Dream by Saudi el Peruses (imp Brazil) later came the champion of champions Anglo the very regal filly Dreaming FF owned by E Barkla and D&M Dertell.

Trotting out of the ring Gem Park Propriance owned by K&C Akehurst claiming champion of champions Arabian riding pony.

One of the highlights of the show was the gelding class, which was also highly competitive with all geldings shown to the highest standard with Fortunate VP (imp USA) owned by Serenity Park, M&K Scriberras

Champion mare went to Classical Dream MI bred by Mulawa Arabians owned by Sheikh Mutlaq Mashref Al Qahtrani.

Last but not least the music became thunderous, the lights shone through the rising smoke and it was time for the stallions. With everyone cheering and clapping, the announcement came and it was crave FF champion Arabian Stallion owned by Future Farms.

It was great to hear the cheering and laughter as the partying went into the night with another East Coast done and dusted we wish everyone a safe trip home and begin counting down the days until the 2015 East Coast Arabian Championships.
