

Arabian Horse

The Stoop family from The Netherlands always make a tremendous effort to host one of the best horse shows in Holland. They spent weeks to make the beautiful trophies, work hard to get the best judges and do a great job on all the decoration. Although 'only' a C-show, trainers and owners from all over the World are entering their horses to compete at this show, creating a great atmosphere and showing some great quality horses!

The show was divided in three parts. The National show was held on Saturday with some good Dutch bred horses. The Sunday had the first edition of the International amateur show. A new initiative of the show organizer, judged by Mindy Peters and Eline Raes. The amateur show was a great success, with a friendly and enthusiastic atmosphere and a lot of supporters cheering on the (young) handlers and future breeders of the Arabian Horse world.

The Sunday main ring was reserved for the International show. Judges for this event were Mr. G. Aragno (Italy), Mrs. R. Schibler (Switzerland), Mr. C. Bakker (The Netherlands) and Mr. R. Abbas (Egypt).

The show started on the Sunday morning with the three years old fillies. A nice class won with 90.19 points by the beautiful Bay-Munah W (Massai ibn Marenga x AF Fine Bayla) – bred by B. Blaak and owned by T. Razavifarabmand from The Netherlands. Her full sister won the class the day before. A great results for this breeder! Later in the championships this filly received the bronze medal. Second in this class with a total of 89.75 points was Karimah Magidaa LDA (Mishaal HP x Illa Magidaa LDA) – bred by LD Arabians and owned by Hanaya Arabians from Switzerland.

A big class of two years old fillies was up next. Winner with 90.25 points was the very showy and big moving Forelocks Yzabeau (Psyta del x Yzy F) – bred and owned by Forelocks Arabians from The Netherlands. Second in this class with 89.81 points was Gilda J (Mystic Dream J x Galia) – bred and owned by Jadem Arabians from Belgium. The show continued with the yearling fillies. A huge class full of gorgeous fillies. It was a tough competition but it was the ultra refined Chantilly NK (Hadaaw x Faressa) who took the lead, scoring a total of 91.5 points. Bred and owned by NK Arabians from Jordan, this filly took the Gold medal unanimously and was also chosen the best in show by all four judges! Second in this class with a total of 90.44 points was AJ Mabiba (Vervaldee x Marbnika) – bred and owned by Ajman Stud from the UAE.

The yearling colt class had four participants and was won with ease by the ultra typy Galladro (Emerald J x Gomera J) – scoring a total of 91.06 points for his breeder and owner of Jadem Arabians from Belgium. Later in the junior colt championships he was named the Gold medal winner. Second in this class with 89.31 points was Aclass Kossack (Pristice Kossack x Apabana Kossack) – bred by The Kossack Stud and co-owned by Flaxman Arabians from The Netherlands.

A nice group of two years old colts was up next. All colts scored close in points, but it was D Bab al Shams (Ajman Moniscione x Nefertarji) who won his class with a total of 90.19 points. Bred by Dubai Arabian horse stud and owned by Hanaya Arabians from Switzerland, this colt also claimed the bronze medal in the final championships. Second in this class scoring 89.81 points was Macassar KA (QR Marc x Margotka) – bred by Knocke Arabians and owned by Bembom Arabians from The Netherlands.

The show continued with the three years old colts. Young stallions just at the beginning of their breeding career. Winner of this class with a total of 90.06 points was ZT Farid (Anaza al Farid x ZT Fardiyyah) – bred by Zichy Thyssen and owned by Hanaya Stud from Switzerland. Later in the championships, this boy claimed the silver medal. Second in this class scoring 90 points was Eros J (Shael Dream Desert x Eberia) – bred and owned by Jadem Arabians from Belgium.

Next to go were two classes of geldings. It is nice to see that more and more geldings are participating at the shows. I really believe they form the new future of showing, extending the market for Arabian show horses. The junior class of geldings was won with 90.31 points by Emirzo (Enzo x Emira B) – bred by Michalow Stud and owned by Flaxman Arabians from Belgium. Later in the championships he was named Silver medal winner. Second in this class with 87.94 points was Mr Ataullah (Dakota x Catinia de Saile) – bred by the Galle-Wynant family and owned by the Osinga family from The Netherlands.
