Location, owners, studs and horses change but the chairman, HRH Prince Abdulaziz Bin Ahmed Bin Abdulaziz Al Saud and his staff remain, offering as always a great show.

AHO staff, as everybody knows, is composed by Mr. Essam Abdulla (Show Director), Dr. Mohammed Machmoum (Member) and by Mrs. Frederike Kopp (Member). Their job supports the arabian horses all around the world, helping breeders by organizing shows and awarding prizemoney. TuttoArabi supports them as media and gives many breeders a chance to have visibility.

Every farm's future is up to the quality and the quantity of its own yearly performance in terms of foals' births. The competition opportunities offered by the shows are essential to disclose its good results to the world.

On 11th, 12th and 13th December the show in the stunning Rabab Stud, Cairo, Egypt, took place and it was specially dedicated to breeder-owners.

The judges invited to score the 258 entered horses were: Mr. Abdelaziz Al Barghash (KSA), Mrs. Christine Jamar (Belgium), Mrs. Renata Schibler (Switzerland), Mr. Karl-Heinz Stoeckle (Germany), Mrs. Anna Stojanowska (Poland) and Mrs. Marianne Tengstedt (Denmark). In the ring Mr. Samedh Bedair and Mr. Mohamed Hammad as Ring Masters.

The voice that gave the results and thrilled the crowd was of Mr. Abdallah Albarmaki.

22 categories and 18 championship medals have been awarded by prizemoney (5.000 egyptian Pounds to the first 5, around 600 euro).

The high number of the categories in the show demonstrates the importance and the strong call of AHO events.

Only for the Yearlings 1 year old 10 categories have been shown, 6 for females and 4 for males, in order to give the many entered horses the chance to participate.

During the first day all the Fillies categories until 3 years old have been shown. The day after from 2pm it was the turn of Mares (4 categories) and Yearling Colts (7 classes).

In the evening we have been guests of Sheik Khaled Bin Laden, patron of Rabab Stud, who has offered a great gala dinner. The friendly quality and conviviality of the event make of it a moment of human sharing and cultural and commercial exchange, that are fundamental ingredients of such a successful show.

Saturday was the last day with 2 classes of Stallions and the Final Championship, open to the first and second of the respective qualifying class and then followed by the horses having the highest score of all qualifying classes in their age group.

The day after the exciting three days show we visited some farms, among which Al Bawady Stud, where we admired several new-born foals who will surely be in the arena next years. There we had a special dinner, as we were used to have in those days. Then not far away we visited Al Baydaa Stud and there, under a traditional gazebo, tasting tea and sweets, we looked at wonderfully elegant straight egyptian horses.
