WORLD ARABIAN HORSE CHAMPIONSHIP 2015

by Talitha Bakker ■ photos by Erwin Escher (www.ErwinEscher.com)

The World Championships in Paris is a major event where many Arabian horse breeders, owners and enthusiasts are looking forward to. The recent events in Paris unfortunately made some people choose to stay away but luckily still many attend the spectacle and it was just that.. a spectacle. The show arena as always was beautifully decorated with the Eiffel Tower, the Arc the Triomphe and "le Moulin Rouge" and alongside the pre-ring there were many little stands where the training centers celebrated this 35th edition of the World Championships with all their friends and clients. Judges for this event were Mr. Aeschbacher from Switzerland, Mrs. Darius from Germany, Mr. Detailleur from Belgium, Mr. Hain from Germany, Mr. Kammer from Brazil, Mr. Marei from Egypt, Mrs. Norden from Sweden and Mrs. Rutherford from Australia.

Female Qualifications

The show was divided over three days. The Friday was dedicated to the female qualification rounds, the Saturday for the male qualification and the Sunday for the championships. The Friday started 9:30am sharp with the first class of yearling fillies. All fillies were beautiful and the first four scored quite close to each other. Winner of the class with 92.33 points was the beautiful, ultra refined Rerwayah Athbah (EKS Alihandro x Fedora RG) – bred and owned by Athbah Stud from Saudi Arabia. The lovely Sultanat al Shaqab (Marwan al Shaqab x OFW Mishaahl), bred and owned by Al Shaqab from Qatar, is the full sister to former World champions Kabil- and Wadee al Shaqab. She won the Gold earlier this year in both Menton and Qatar and was ready to take the crown. With 92.25 points her score was not high enough and she had to settle for second. At the third place we would find Mimi NK (Nofal NK x Cinnamon Spice VLA), bred and owned by NK Arabians from Jordan. This beautiful filly with her exotic face stole the hearts of the judges in Aachen where she won the Gold and could be a serious competitor for the medals here in Paris. Her 92 points qualified here for the finals and also gave her the Best head trophy from this class. Scoring the same total of points but losing on type, was the big moving Adelita (Kabil al Shaqab x Altamira) – bred and owned by Janow Podlaski from Poland.

The second group of yearling fillies was again full of high quality fillies, all eligible to win their class. Two fillies scored the exact same points of 92.83 points. They also scored the exact same total on type and movement and so the judges had to select their favorite for the class win. They selected the beautiful bay Jayda Alrabi (Majd Al Rabi x Shatha al Rabi) – bred by Al Rabi Arabians and owned by Al Thumama Stud from Qatar – leaving the second place to the big moving D Shireen (Kabil al Shaqab x Magic Mon Amour) – bred and owned by Dubai Arabian Horse Stud.

Third in this class with 92.33 points was Bobour al Shaqab (Kabil al Shaqab x Wind Kamelia) – bred and owned by Al Shaqab from Qatar. The beautiful Mozn Albidayer (SMA Magic One x Mattaharii) – bred and owned by Albidayer Stud from the UAE – did a fantastic show and with a score of 92.17 points she had to settle for fourth. With her beautifully shaped head she won the Best head trophy of this class. At the fifth position we would find the lovely Bambina (Kabil al Shaqab x Bellisa) – bred and owned by Janow Podlaski from Poland – who graced the showring with her lovely charisma and attitude. She scored a total of 91.83 points.

The junior fillies were divided in two and three years old fillies. The first class with the two years old fillies was won by the extremely beautiful Bint Hazy al Khalediah (El Palacio VO x Hazy al Khalediah) – bred and owned by Al Khalediah Stables from Saudi Arabia. The filly scored a total of 93.08 points. At the second place with 92.25 points was the exotic Om el Aisha Al Jassimya (WH Justice x Om el Aliha) from Al Jassimya Farm, Qatar. This filly deservedly won the Best head trophy of her class. At the third place was another exotic beauty; the lovely 2015 Las Vegas World Cup Gold champion filly: Elle Flamenca (Ajman Moniscione x Allamara MA) – bred by Markelle Arabians and owned by Dubai Arabian Horse stud from the UAE. Elle scored a total of 92.17 points and qualified herself for the finals on Sunday. Fourth in this class was the big moving Pustynia Kabila (Kabil al Shaqab x Pustynna Malwa) – bred and owned by Michalow Stud from Poland.

The second group of fillies, aged three years old, had some strong competitors like 2015 Dubai Gold champion filly D Shabla, 2015 Menton Gold champion filly Delights Diva RB, Former Gold World champion Minwah, 2015 All Nations Cup Gold champion Piacolla – just to name a few. All eligible to win their class and ultimately the Gold medal. The scores were high and close but in the end it was the big moving D Shabla (Marajj x FT Shaella) – bred and owned by Dubai Arabian Horse Stud from the UAE who was the strongest in this class, scoring a total of 93.17 points. Second with 92.75 points was the exotic Delights Diva RB (Ajman Moniscione x Honeys Delight RB) – bred by Adriana Espindola de Moura from Brazil and owned by Alsayed stud from Saudi Arabia. She also won the Best head trophy in this class. Third with 92.5 points was the lovely Minwah (Kabil al Shaqab x LC Primavera) – bred by Mohammed al Sulaiti and owned by Al Jassimya Farm from Qatar. The fourth place was for the very beautiful Bahia Alfabia (ZT Marwefeyn x ZT Shakgeromit) – bred by Alfabia Stud and owned by Al Shahania Stud from Qatar. She scored the same score of 92.25 points as the fifth placed horse, Piacolla (Enzo x Polonica) – bred by Michalow Stud and owned by Athbah Stud from Saudi Arabia, but won on type.

The show continued with a fantastic group of senior mares. Winner of the class was the dancing Queen Orfa D'Arab KA (QR Marc x OSO Axotica) – bred and owned by Knocke Arabians from Belgium. She scored almost full twenties in movement which ultimately gave her the best movement female trophy and a total of 93.17 points. Second with 92.25 points was the beautiful Klassical Dream MI (Klass x Mustangs Magnum) – bred by Mulawa Arabians and owned by Al Khalediah Stables from Saudi Arabia. She also won the Best Head trophy in this class. Third and scoring the same total as Klassical Dream, but losing on movement was Wieza Mocy (QR Marc x Wieza Marzan) – bred by Michalow Stud and owned by Oak Ridge Arabians from the USA. This mare has a fantastic neck and did a beautiful standup. Scoring 92.17 points and ending up at the fourth place was the big moving Potentilla (Ekstern x Panonia) – bred and owned by Janow Podlaski from Poland. A fifth place was for Heila J (Shael Dream Desert x Fatiha J) – bred by Jadem Arabians and owned by ASayel Stud from Kuwait.

The second group of senior mares was an exciting one! Three mares were fighting for the class win. Two mares scored the exact same points of 94.42. The lovely Salwa al Zobair (Marajj x Esklawwa) had more points on type and therefore won the class. This fantastic mare did a great show and received full twenties on type. Salwa is bred and owned by Al Zobair Stud from the UAE. The second place in this class was for Abha Qalams. One of the only handful of fillies sired by the too early deceased Alfabia Damascus. She comes out of Abha Mudira and was bred by Ses Planes and now owned by Al Shahania Stud from Qatar. The third place, scoring 93.50 points was the exotic FM Gloriaa (WH Justice x Psity of Angels) – bred and owned by Mieke Sans from Belgium. This beautiful mare had already won the Gold in both Aachen and the European Championships and was on her way for the Triple Crown. In this class she was also awarded with the Best head trophy. Fourth in this class was the big moving Wilda (Gazal al Shaqab x Wilga) – bred and owned by Michalow Stud from Poland.

Male Qualifications

The Saturday was reserved for the male qualifications. A fantastic class of stunning yearling colts. Only five in the first class but of very high quality. The colts AJ Azzam and Luigi battled for the class win. Both colts have had a fantastic season. Luigi won the Gold at the Tulip Cup Holland, the Gold in Vichy France and Bronze in Aachen. AJ Azzam in the other hand won also many titles this season including the Gold in Aachen and the Gold at the European Championships which made him a favorite for the Triple Crown. The tension raised when Luigi (Kanz Albidayer x Lolita) scored the grand score of 93.83 points. A few moments later AJ Azzam (AJ Mardan x Ysadora) scored the exact same total! However it were the perfect straight 20's on type that gave Azzam the victory! AJ Azzam even got a 98 points from the Australian Judge! What a success for his breeder and owner Ajman Stud from the UAE as he also won the Best head trophy. The flashy Luigi, bred by D. Saelens and owned by Al Shahania Stud from Qatar also received multiple 20's on type, head & neck and movement and the Australian Judge awarded him with 98.5 points including a 19 for legs. I don't remember seeing any score like this ever at any show around the world. I guess Paris is Paris and this is what makes the World Championships one of the most interesting and exciting shows! Third in this class was the beautiful Tchaata Iniziato (Inizio x Avalon Just Mywenn) – bred by Philip Ascaso and owned by Lys d'Or from France. This colt later won the Coupe de France for his performance this season. Fourth in this class was the Black Artemas GA (JJ Bellagio x Duchess of Marwan) – bred by Sally Bedeker and owned by Stella Bella Arabians from the USA.

The second group of yearling colts had just four participants. Clear winner with a total of 93.50 points was the flashy Alexxanderr (Excalibur EA x AR Most Irresistible) – bred by Frances Butler & Brandi Carson and owned by Alsayed Stud from Saudi Arabia. Second in this class was the exotic Jalal AlJassimya (WH Justice x Annaiss) – bred and owned by Al Jassimya Farm from Qatar. This beautiful colt scored a total of 92.67 points and also took the Best head trophy in this class. Third with 92.50 points was Amaar al Nasser (EKS Alihandro x Remal al Nasser) – bred and owned by Al Nasser Stud from Qatar.

Another exciting group of colts were up next. The junior males born in 2013. Two colts, Morion and Gallardo J, both had a great season this year and brought a lot of supporters to Paris. Gallardo, who won the Gold in Menton and Dubai this year was a strong competitor for Morion, the Polish gem who won the Silver in Aachen just a few months prior. Gallardo J (Emerald J x Gomera J) – bred by Jadem Arabians and owned by Ajman Stud from the UAE was the first to go, scoring a total of 92.75 points. The level of excitement raised to the roof when it was time for Morion to show. He presented himself beautifully and scored a fantastic 93.17 points! Morion (Kabil al Shaqab x Mesalina) is bred by Michalow Stud and on lease to Al Thumama Stud from Qatar. At the third position in this class was the showy EKS Amir (EKS Alihandro x EKS Lady Dauphine) – bred by El Kasun Arabians and owned by Shazin Stud from Italy. The Best head trophy went to Gallardo J.

The second group of junior colts were the ones born in 2012. Again an exciting class with high quality colts. The first to enter the class was the exciting EKS Mansour (EKS Alihandro x EKS Phateena) – bred by El Kasun Arabians and owned by Al Shabania Stud from Qatar. With his beautiful type and showy movement he scored himself a total of 93 points. This score was equaled by the big moving Equiborn KA (QR Marc x Espadrilla) – bred and owned by Knocke Arabians from Belgium. Equiborn however scored more points on type and was therefore crowned as the class winner and winner of the Best Head trophy. Third in this class with 92 points was Cadance PA (Cavalli x Donatella) – bred by Pegasus Arabians and owned by Al Saqran Stud from Kuwait. Fourth in the class with 91.75 points was and Magic of Shwan (FA el Shawan x WA Priscilla) – bred by Abdul Aziz bin Ibrahim al Bargash and owned by Al Sayed Stud from Saudi Arabia.

Next to go were the big boys.. the stallions. Again a class full of excitement. Some fantastic horses were in the line-up. Big favorite was Hariry al Shaqab (Marwan al Shaqab x White Silkk) from Al Shaqab stud who won the Las Vegas World Cup and Menton show earlier the year. However, he had a big competitor to Equator (QR Marc x Ekliptyka) from Michalow Stud who won the Silver in Aachen and the Gold at the European Championships. But don't underestimate also the beautiful ES Harir (AJ Dinar x TF Magnums Magic) from Al Saqran Stud who won the Gold in Aachen and the always showy Fakhr al Khalediah (Marquis CAHR x Barah al Khalediah) from Al Khalediah Stables! The class was pure eye candy and all the stallions had a great group of supporters cheering them on. First to go was ES Harir who showed beautifully and scored a total of 93.83 points. Next to go was Hariry al Shaqab who did a beautiful stand-up, scoring a total of 93.92 points. The tension was high when Equator stepped in. His long tail carried as a beautiful flag and his motion and charisma set the arena on fire. Almost full twenties on movement and type brought him to the grand total of 94.92 points, earning him the first place in this strong stallion class and the best movement male trophy. What a victory to Poland! The second place was for Hariry al Shaqab from Qatar with almost straight twenties on head & neck. Third was ES Harir from Kuwait, leaving the fourth place to Fakhr al Khalediah from Saudi Arabia. Fifth in this class and winner of the best head trophy was another popular boy; Van Gogh AM (Magnum Psyche x Ynazia HCF) from Asayel Stud from Kuwait.

The last group of stallions was won by the beautiful Mountassar al Zobair (Khidar x Falha al Shaqab) – bred by Al Zobair Stud and owned by Mohammed Dulay Alotaibi from Saudi Arabia, scoring a total of 93.33 points. Second with 92.58 points and winner of the Best head trophy was former World Champion AJA Justified (WH Justice x Aja Benaja) – bred by Aja Arabians and owned by RB Arabians from Israel. Third was the interesting bred Straight Egyptian Adham Saqr (Imperial Madori x Ameera Saqr) – bred by Saqr Stud and owned by El Farida Stud from Egypt.

Championships

The Sunday was reserved for the championships. The championships in Paris are an open championships, meaning that anyone that qualified for the championships can be a Gold, Silver or Bronze champion. Not only the ones placed in the top of the class. This system makes the championships even more exciting as all cards are blank and everyone is getting a new chance to proof him/herself. The day started with the female yearling championships. Gold medal winner with 18 points was the beautiful refined Rewayah Athbah (EKS Alihandro x Fedora RG) – bred and owned by Athbah Stud from Saudi Arabia. Silver medal winner with 10 points was the lovely Sultanat al Shaqab (Marwan al Shaqab x OFW Mishaa) – bred and owned by Al Shaqab from Qatar, stepping in the footsteps of her Royal family who already won two medals at the World Championships before. There was a bit confusion on the Bronze medal as the announcer would announce another name as listed on the big screen. After a double check it was Mozn Albidayer (SMA Magic One x Mattaharii) – bred and owned by Albidayer Stud from the UAE – who took the Bronze medal with a total of 7 points. Others in the top five were Jayda Alrabi and D Shireen.

The junior female championships saw the fantastic moving D Shabla as Gold medal winner with a total of 30 points. Veni Vidi Vici, Shabla came saw and conquered. With her charisma and her motion she is a true World Champion. D Shabla is the daughter of 2007 Gold World champion Marajj and 201 Gold World champion FT Shaella. A great success for Dubai Arabian Horse Stud. The Silver medal with 12 points went to Bint Hazy al Khalediah (El Palacio VO x Hazy al Khalediah) for Al Khalediah Stables from Saudi Arabia. The Bronze medal went with 10 points to the beautiful Om el Aisha AlJassimya (WH Justice x Om el Aliha). A great success for Al Jassimya farm, Qatar who has been quite new to the business and is already having some great results. Others in the top five were the very pretty Elle Flamenca (Ajman Moniscione x Allamara MA) from Dubai Arabian Horse Stud and Babia Alfabia (ZT Marwteyn x ZT Shakgeromit) from Al Shabanania, Qatar.

The senior female championships had a tie. The Gold champion was clear. With 28 points the timeless beauty Salwa al Zobair (Marajj x Esklarwa) from Al Zobair Stud, UAE was too strong for the other competitors. The silver medal however was a tie between Abha Qalams (Alfabia Damascus x Abha Mudira) from Al Shabanania Stud, Qatar and the gorgeous FM Gloriaa (WH Justice x Psity of Angels) from Mieke Sans, Belgium. In the end it was the total score which they obtained in the class decided who took the Silver and who had to settle for Bronze. As Abha Qalams had the majority score in the class, she took the Silver medal, leaving the Bronze to FM Gloriaa. Others in the top five were Klassical Dream MI from Al Khalediah Stables, Saudi Arabia and Heila J (Shael Dream Desert x Fatiha J) from ASayel Stud from Kuwait.

Besides the Gold, Silver and Bronze there was also a Platinum champion. The platinum medal is being won by a senior male or female horse presented in the class who already won a Gold medal at the World Championships at one of the past editions. This time that honor was for Pinga (Gazal al Shaqab x Pilar) – bred by Janow Podlaski and owned by Al Jawza Stud from Saudi Arabi. Pinga was crowned Gold World champion mare in 2012.

The yearling male championships was a strong win with 28 points for AJ Azzam (AJ Mardan x Ysadora) from Ajman

Stud, UAE who with this win, won also the Triple Crown! The Triple Crown is won by winning the Gold in Aachen, the European Championships and the World Championships in Paris. An honor only a few horses can add to their career. AJ Azzam with only one year of age shows great promise for the future. The Silver medal with 14 points was for Alexxanderr (Excalibur EA x AR Most Irresistible) from AlSayed stud from Saudi Arabia. The Bronze medal went with 7 points to Luigi (Kanz Albidayer x Lolita) of Al Shabania Stud, Qatar. Others in the top five were Jalal al Jassimya from Al Jassimya, Qatar and Amaar al Nasser (EKS Alihandro x Remal al Nasser) from Al Nasser Stud, Qatar.

The show continued with the junior male championships. Again an interesting battle between some of the most beautiful young colts in the world. Gold medal winner with 24 points was Morion (Kabil al Shaqab x Mesalina) on lease to Al Thumama Stud! A great success for his still young studfarm in Qatar. The silver medal went with 13 points to Equiborn KA (QR Marc x Espadrilla) – from Knocke Arabians, Belgium. Bronze medal winner with just one point less was Gallardo J (Emerald J x Gomera J) – of Ajman Stud from the UAE. Others in the top five were EKS Mansour (EKS Alihandro x EKS Phateena) from Al Shabania Stud, Qatar and Magic of Shwan (FA el Sharwan x WA Priscilla) of Al Sayed Stud from Saudi Arabia.

The last championship of the day was the one of the senior stallions. An excited championships with clearly two camps. The camp of Hariry al Shaqab and the one of Equator. Both beautiful stallions and both so entirely different in type. With stallions of such high quality it is the matter of taste that determines who will win the Gold and who has to settle for Silver. With 21 points the vote for the Gold went to Hariry al Shaqab (Marwan al Shaqab x White Silkk) – bred and owned by Al Shaqab Stud Qatar. For Al Shaqab already the 3rd Gold medal Senior stallions in a row! What an accomplishment! The silver medal with 15 points was Equator (QR Marc x Ekliptyka) from Michalow Stud, Poland! A stud who also has a numerous of Gold World champions in the past! The Bronze medal went to ES Harir (AJ Dinar x TF Magnums Magic) from Al

Sagran Stud, Kuwait with 11 points. Others in the top five were Mountassar al Zobair (Khidar x Falha al Shaqab) – of Mohammed Dulay Alotaibi, Saudi Arabia and AJA Justified (WH Justice x Aja Benaja) from RB Arabians, Israel.

Also with the senior stallions there was a Platinum world champion. The lovely Eternity ibn Navaronne D (Ansata Sinan x Navaronne P) – bred by Dion Arabians and owned by Martine van Hee from Belgium was a Gold World Champion in 1999 as a junior and in 2004 as a senior. At an age of 18 he was still in a great condition and took the Platinum title well deserved.

Other trophies given during the world championships were the prize for Best broodmare. This prize went to Esklarwa (Eukaliptus x Ekstaza) – bred in 1985 by Michalow stud and owned by Al Zobair Stud from the UAE. The prize for Best sire of the show went to QR Marc (Marwan al Shaqab x Swete Dreams) – bred by Vicki Doyle and owned by Knocke Arabians from Belgium.

Winner of the Best Straight Egyptian of the show female was: Salma al Badawy.

Winner of the best Straight Egyptian of the show male was: Adham Saqr.

Winner of the Best breeder trophy was won by Michalow Stud, Poland.

Winner of the 35th anniversary Trophy, awarded to the owner having the greatest numbers of world champions over the last 35 editions of the world championships) was Al Khalediah Stables from Saudi Arabia.

Winner of the best breeder-owner of the show was again Michalow Stud, Poland. □
