This year, Prague Intercup was moved to a new date, where the Czech National Show and the International ECAHO B Show were held on 9th and 10th of June. Saturday started with the Czech National Show, where expert judges were invited: Mrs. Anna Stojanowska (PL), Mrs. Christine Jamar Demerseman (BE) and Mr. Tomasz Tarczynski (PL). Throughout both days Mr. Farhang Fazeli (IRN), Mrs. Line Brunsgaard (DK) and Mrs. Barbara Mazur (PL) were the D.C.s and the Ring Master was Mrs. Laura Mascagna (IT).

True to form, after the Czech National Show, Saturday afternoon the International Show ensued, where 60 horses entered and a lot of special prizes were given. Accordingly with the rules, a different group of expert judges was chosen for the International show: Mrs. Deirdre Hyde from Emirates, from Denmark Mrs. Marianne Tengstedt, from Germany Mrs. Sylvie Eberhardt and from U.S.A. Mr. Bruce McCrea.

The shows were led by the voice of Mrs. Zuzana Slavikova, speaker through the whole Prague Intercup event, of which the setup for the second year was consulted and designed in cooperation with Mr. Drazen Lazic.

Prague Intercup was held on the same outdoor location as last year, on Letna Park, though this year positioned differently, more visible and more accessible to the public, which made the show more attended by the outside audience. Letna Park represents the lung of Prague and is on the Letna hill, from where a great panorama of the old town, the Prague Castle and Vltava river can be admired. One of the most special attractions is undoubtedly the giant red Metronome, placed in 1991, where the biggest Stalin monument in the world was built in 1955, and destroyed in 1962. The Metronome, 23 mt, is designed by the international artist Vratislav Novák. Walking through the park, one can find nice food kiosks, where one can enjoy local delicious specialties and discover how much history this park truly tells. In 1998, 750.000 people started their march here against the communist regime. The most ancient carousel in Europe, built in 1892, is here in this park. In 1996 the superstar Michael Jackson launched his world tour here with 130.000 participants. So this year again, the Czech National Show and the International B Show shared their presence on the list of the many events, which are every year held on this charming hill.

The event was both days graced by the presence of guests, breeders and owners in the VIP area.

Unfortunately, Saturday afternoon during the International Show, the show had to be cancelled due to an unexpectedly heavy storm, which caused a considerable amount of damage to both the showground and the equipment on it. This also meant that the originally planned evening event and performances, prepared especially for Saturday night, also had to be cancelled, as the showground was flooded by the heavy rain. In spite of the weather challenges, this perfect organization promptly managed the situation, by still giving the guests a wonderfully lavish dinner event. Belly dancers, music and a fantastic catering made us all forget the storm.

On Sunday morning the show started earlier than planned, as new prognosis for an early afternoon storm were announced. Upon entering the showground Sunday morning, it was clear that the amazingly effective Prague Intercup team had made sure that no damage, nor trace of the storm from the previous day, was visible at all. The morning show continued and was dedicated to mare and stallion classes, while the afternoon proceeded with the championships. As usual, two championships were held, the Ecaho Championship and the European Cup, this year sponsored by Mrs. Anne Heiloo – Surweco s.r.o. di Mrs. Nina Suskeviciova – Kopecky Autosalony – Blue Nun Wine.

In the middle of the championships, the guests and spectators were stunned and surprised to receive a spectacular gift: Mr. Paolo Capecci came out from the preparing ring, showing the World multichampion Royal Colours owned by Dubai Arabian Stud. This stunning horse was Gold Champion Colt in Paris in 2006, once again in 2009 and then in 2016 he won the most desired prize: the Platinum World Champion.

To this show, to the city that hosts it, to the people who are the soul of this event and to its great patron, Mr. Jaroslav Lacina go our warmest congratulations. I asked Mr. Lacina to answer some of our question as our friend, as a man, as the ACHPAK (Czech Association For Purebred Arabian Horses) organizer and as the ECAHO President. Enjoy the exclusive interview with him. For all the results of National and International and the scores of each judge visit: Arabianhorseresults.com. □
