Doha arises as a big centre and an international hub for sport and luxury passionates. A land offering enlightenment, invigoration and inspiration through its warmth of soul and spirit of vision.

In few years the city changed its shape and improved all facilities and services since the visitors number grew increasingly making of Doha one of the most visited cities in the Middle East.

Getting inspired by the suggestive sunsets or by cultural and natural treasures is easy.

One of these treasures is undoubtedly the Al Shaqab Stud which host inside its own greatness an important number of horses and people.

Under the patronage of the Father Emir His Highness

Sheikh Hamad Bin Khalifa Al Thani and the Emir of the State of Qatar His Highness Sheikh Tamim Bin Hamad Al Thani, the Al Shaqab's main covered arena hosted the Al Shaqab Arabian Horse Festival, born to support Arabian horses and their breeders. The Arabian Horse Show was for Individual owners and was governed by ECAHO rules. The top four placed among the 182 entered horses, received prize money and Gold Silver and Bronze of each championship received prize in kind. Inside the lavish frame of Al Shaqab the show was excellently organized by the Chairman of Al Shaqab Organizing Committee Mr. Khalifa Mohammed Al Attiya, its Vice Chairman Sheikh Hamas Bin Ali Al Thani, the Assistant Mr. Khalid Yousuf Al Jehani and the show manager Mr Fahad Ali Al Sulaiti. PR was entrusted to Mr Mohsin Hamza. Transportation and coordination by Mr Mohammad Mohyiddin Abdulla. The judges invited were: Mrs Helen Hennekens-van Nes, Mrs Renata Schibler, Dr Gianmarco Aragno, Mr Sufian Haha Al Husseini, Mr Klaus G. Beste, Mrs Irina Stigler, Mrs Ann Norden, Mr Regis Huet, Dr Nagham Aldabbous. DC by Mrs Kestin Wisniowski and Ms Susanne Hennekens, Ring Master Mr Gerard Oben, Speakers were Mr Eric Blaak and Ms Thuraya Barzan Al Tikriti, Veterinary Committee Dr Mohammed Abdul Aziz and Dr Hosain Abbara

Organizers managed all the event perfectly and also took care of their guests preparing for them a private visit to the Islamic Art Museum of Doha, a great building which following the will of the Father Emir arose on a artificial island on the sea and ideally represents “a bridge” between the old and the new town, and a visit to the Waqif Souq for the dinner together.

Everything, from the hospitality at the St. Regis Hotel to the dinner in the historical soul, from the greatness of Al Shaqab Stud which hosted the Festival to the quality of Arabian horses of absolute beauty, everything was perfect. Qatar is second to none in organizing show and supporting breeders with the goal to preserve the Arabian horse heritage all around the world.

Enjoy the pictures of the medals and people from Al Shaqab Arabian Horse Festival and plan in advance your visit for the next event in the wonderful frame of Doha. □
