nd ANNUAL SCOTTSDALE ARABIAN HORSE SHOW

ARTICLE, DESIGN AND UNSIGNED PHOTOS BY RIYAN RIVERO

The largest event of its kind; the Scottsdale Arabian Horse Show celebrated its 62nd Anniversary February 16th – 26th, 2017. Commonly referred to as the ‘greatest show on earth’, the Scottsdale Show annually entertains over 300,000 people from 50 countries, while over 2200 world class Arabian and Half Arabian horses compete for over 2 million dollars in prize money.

The event takes place each year at WestWorld of Scottsdale located in the heart of Scottsdale, Arizona. West World opened in 1987 featuring ten arenas, 1,200 permanent stalls and a multi-purpose exhibit space, the Equidome. In early 2010, West World set out to modernize and expand the Equidome, now known as the Tony Nelssen Equestrian Center, with a $56 million renovation.

The Scottsdale Arabian Horse Show truly does offer something for everyone to enjoy. Casual horse enthusiasts to serious breeders and competitors, enjoy nearly every aspect of the event. Morning halter classes held in the Al Shahania Wendell Arena, nearly every day, outside in the clear, crisp air and international style Arabians presented in the beautifully decorated AlJassimya International Arena provide excellent opportunities to get a good look at tomorrow’s champions, as well as to narrow down one’s own breeding choices by a first-hand view of the offspring of various stallions. A few steps from the Wendell, cowboys and cowgirls of every level enjoyed the exciting reining competitions while cows were being cut on the west end of the property. The Markell Insurance Equidome provided an indoor experience of english, hunter, western, driving, liberty and jumping competitions on a daily basis while its neighboring outdoor arena offered sport horse, dressage and jumping competitions of every level through out the event.

Special guests and celebrity sightings happen often at the show. Jeff Jenkins of the first season of The Voice purchased, showed and won top honors with his first Arabian horse in the amateur halter competition. His passion for the Arabian horse was contagious and inspiring to the entire Arabian horse community.

As shared in the highlights on the pages to follow, ‘something for everyone’ is a statement that holds true at the ‘greatest show on earth’ and largest event of its kind, the Scottsdale Arabian Horse Show.

This year marked the first annual Marquise Invitational Auction where a record-breaking 3.3 million dollars worth of beautiful Arabian horses were sold at public auction. The first class event offered a Hollywood style scene with fine jewels, elegant cocktails, live entertainment and some of the community's most beautiful horses available to the public.

The night was truly 'History in the making', as stated on the first page of the auction catalog. In spectacular fashion, long time breeder Pat Dempsey made history as she placed the winning bid on Om EL Erodite for $1, 550, 000. This exquisite filly was born of the International champion bloodlines of Om El Arabians and is sired by World Champion, EKS Elihandro.

The Auction consisted of 13 horses showcased in a beautiful setting reminiscent of the Arabian horse auctions of the 1980's. Every detail was considered by auction organizers, Jeff Sloan and Greg and Nancy Gallun to ensure a night horse enthusiasts will not soon forget. In addition to the regular auction lots, a special lot was offered to benefit charity. The winning bidder retained one embryo right from each of the United States National Champion Mares; RH Triana, Honey's Delight RB and MD Hibat Allah for $85,000.

The Arabian Horse Association of Arizona was a proud host to the event and looks forward to future endeavors that showcase the Arabian horse so beautifully.
