“Breed To Lead” was a very successful seminar. It was truly an enjoyable educational experience for everyone. The first day, the practical part, was held at Eng. Mohamed Waly’s residence and stud. The place was elegant, peaceful and welcoming. The participants got a firsthand experience on how horses were judged at shows. They were given cards to evaluate different horses just like at the show. Then the instructor evaluated these horses and discussed each horse with the participants. The second day, the theoretical part, was held at which was a very nice hotel with a horse riding arena, in keeping with the spirit of the seminar. The instructor, Christine Jamar, was helpful and eager to teach. She was very patient with the very young participants and their inquisitive questions. She shared her long journey with Arabians starting from when she was just a little girl till she became a renowned Arabian breeder and an ECAHO A list judge. The seminar covered conformation information and breeding topics.

“Breed To Lead” was Horsmnunity’s second seminar and, like the first one, it served many purposes. It was a great opportunity for networking and sharing. That was due to the fact that the participants were a very diversified group in age, experience and background. There were renowned breeders alongside young breeders. The diversity extended to the sponsors who were show horse breeders (Al-Gamal Stud & Al-Bawady Stud) and a race horse breeder (Sika Stud). The management of the seminar was highly professional and took into consideration every single detail concerning the event. At the end, participants were handed participation certificates signed by Christine Jamar as they took a photo with her in front of the seminar’s wall of fame. It was a memorable experience for everyone. □
