

The largest Arabian horse show in the world; the Scottsdale Arabian Horse Show celebrated its 63rd Anniversary February 15th – 25th, 2018. The show is referred to by many as the ‘greatest horse show on earth’, due in part to its annual success at entertaining over 300,000 people from 50 countries, while over 2200 world class Arabian and Half Arabian horses compete for over 2 million dollars in prize money.

The Scottsdale Arabian Horse Show offers something for everyone. Casual horse enthusiasts to serious breeders and competitors, enjoy nearly every aspect of the event. Morning halter classes held in the Al Shahania Wendell Arena, nearly every day, outside in the clear, crisp air and international style Arabians presented in the beautifully decorated AlJassimya International Arena provide excellent opportunities to see some of the most beautiful and famous Arabian horses in the world. A few steps from the Wendell, cowboys and cowgirls of every level enjoyed the exciting reining competitions while cows were being cut on the west end of the property. The Markell Insurance Equidome provided an indoor experience of english, hunter, western, driving, liberty and jumping competitions on a daily basis while its neighboring outdoor arena offered sport horse, dressage and jumping competitions of every level through out the event.

Special guests and celebrity sightings happen often at the show. One of this year's celebrity 'sightings' was a bit more than that. Elizabeth Shatner, wife of actor, author, producer, and director, William Shatner was a show judge. Elizabeth Shatner shares; "I have seen such extraordinary horses. It's truly a thrill. I started out in this breed and am a product of the youth judging program offered years ago. It's the love of horse and the appreciation of the breed we're judging that is a commonality we share. The exhibitors have been so polite and gracious. Thank you Arabian exhibitors for this wonderful experience."

In an effort to create energy and enthusiasm for the magnificent Arabian horse, the Scottsdale Show welcomed the Marquise Auction Group back for the second year in a row. The Marquise Auction Group showcased the finest Arabian bloodstock in a an elegant live auction environment, and successfully marketed over 2.2 million dollars worth of quality Arabian horses while bidders and onlookers were treated to wonderful food, live entertainment and a beautiful display of Arabian horses.

World class competition, shopping, dining, family activities, charitable giving, events, auctions, and media coverage make the 'something for everyone' statement hold true at the 'greatest horse show on earth' and largest event of its kind, the Scottsdale Arabian Horse Show.

A Judges Perspective On The Greatest Horse Show On Earth

By 2018 Scottsdale Show Judge, Mitch Sperte

It's always a privilege to judge the greatest show on earth. From a judges perspective, no-show does more to promote the many attributes of the Arabian horse to the general public than does the Arabian Horse Association of Arizona. The Arabian is without question the most versatile show horse in the world and no show does more to demonstrate this fact. All disciplines are showcased and afforded the opportunity to shine in front of not only show horse enthusiasts, but to large adoring crowds. Whether it be standing up a beautiful International Halter horse or the animation and exuberance of a high trotting English horse, or the excitement of the sliding stop and precision spins of a great reining horse, and the elegance of the highly competitive western division or the emerging hunter horse division, as well as the always crowd pleasing native costume and liberty competition, the Scottsdale Show shares it all.

Every February the best of the best from all over the globe meet in beautiful Scottsdale Arizona to show off the talent, courage and beauty of the contemporary Arabian horse.

The commitment by many professionals to these athletes to reach their full potential can't be overstated. It truly takes a team of professionals from the groom's and caretakers, the farriers and veterinarians, to the talents of the trainers, as well as the amateur exhibitors to reach the ultimate goal. All this encompassing horsemanship is on full display at the Scottsdale show.

Regardless of where you go in the valley of the sun, the horse show is front and center. From the baggage claim display at the airport, to billboards on the highway, television and radio commercials and television coverage, to magazines and newspaper ads, the greater Phoenix area is well aware that a monumental event of International significance is taking place in their community and they are encouraged to come out and enjoy the excitement and competition of world class Arabian horses.
