On November 30th until December 2nd, the 2023 AHO Breeders Cup for Arabian Horses took place at the Rabab Equestrian Center in Cairo, Egypt.

Judges for this event were Mrs. Weronika Sosnowska, Mr. Sixto Carriedo Palacio, Mr. Hassan al Mannai, Mr. Khalil Mukhtari, Mr. Majed al Mehyawi, Mr. Mohamed Ahmed Badrawy and Mr. Mohamed al Khamis.

The show was wonderfully organized with a beautiful large arena, a large area for the VIP and enough space for visitors of which many came to visit the show.

The show started on Thursday with the females. Starting with the female ranking class of filly foals. The quality was very high and both Straight Egyptian and mixed bloodlines were competing against each other.

Winner with 92.08 points was the very beautiful and showy Anwaar al Farida (Aybak al Farida x Boukra al Farida), scoring 20's on both type and movement. Bred and owned by Al Farida Stud. Second with 91.38 points was Monaliza Rabab (Seef al Safenat x Ghalia Leila), bred and owned by Rabab Stud. 3rd in this large class with 90 points was her stable mate Rasha Rabab (Gharam Rabab x Rawafed al Tawfeek).

The show continued with the yearling fillies, divided in class A and B. Again of really high quality. Class A was won with 91.08 points by the mesmerizing Montaha al Safenat (Seef al Safenat x Malak al Safenat), bred and owned by Al Safenat Stud. Second with 90.83 points was the Al Rabab stud bred and owned Nabawya Rabab (Gharam Rabab x Kholaud Rabab). 3rd in this class with 90.42 points was the big moving Lamis al Mamlaka (Vegas HEC x Leen al Mamlaka) – bred and owned by Al Mamlaka Stud.

Next to go was the second group of yearling fillies. All equally beautiful. Winner with 91.13 points and later Gold medal champion was the beautiful refined, good bodied filly Salma al Sofyan (Seef el Din Saqr x Kamelia Hanafi) – bred and owned by Al Sofyan Stud. Later this filly took well deserved the special trophy for the highest scoring Straight Egyptian filly. Second in this class with 91 points and later Bronze medal champion was Shaqraa al Kamal (Moez al Kaherah x Maice NK) – bred and owned by Al Kamal Stud. Third with 90.88 points was Bahga al Farida (Baarez al Farida x Sherouk al Farida) – bred and owned by Al Farida Stud. Later in the yearling filly championships, this filly came back stronger and claimed the silver medal.

The show continued with a large class of two years old mares. Clear winner with 91.08 points was the pretty Nawader Rabab (Noor al Bawady x Nada Sultan) – bred and owned by Rabab Stud. Second with 90.54 points was Kawthar al Farida (Kareem al Farida x Bedaya al Farida) – bred and owned by Al Farida Stud. Later in the championships, Kawthar took revenge and took the Bronze medal in the final junior filly championships. Third with 90.04 points was Ega Al Karima (Avatar OS x Zahbia el Gamil) – bred and owned by Al Karima Stud.

A beautiful class of three years old fillies was up next. The beautiful Aslama al Safenat (Seef al Safenat x Asia al Safenat) gave a great show and scored multiple 20's in type and head and with a total of 92.33 points, she was a clear winner for breeder and owner Al Safenat Stud! Later in the championships, this beautiful filly took the Gold medal. Aslama also took the special award for highest scoring female of the show as well as the award for the highest scoring Straight Egyptian junior filly of the show. Second with 91.08 points and later Silver medal filly was Ayla el Gabry (Antania OS x Cyclone OS) – bred and owned by El Gabry Stud. Third with 90.67 points was the showy Sana al Mamlaka (Vegas HEC x Suraha B) – bred and owned by Al Mamlaka Stud.

The show continued with the senior mares aged 4-6 years old, all scoring very close together. Winner with 90.38 points and later Silver medal champion mare was Ola Rabab (Seef al Safanat x Mahala) – bred and owned by Rabab Stud. Second with 90.33 points was her stable mate and half-sister Moneera Rabab (Noor al Bawady x Mahala). Third in the class with 89.88 points was Rody el Gabry (Ward el Gabry x Ebtisam el Gabry) – bred and owned by El Gabry stud.

The Friday finished with the beautiful senior mares aged seven years and older. Winner with 91.25 points and later Gold medal champion was the gorgeous Amina el Gabry (Jamil al Rayyan x Maymouna al Qusar) – bred and owned by El Gabry Stud. Later she also took the award for highest scoring Straight Egyptian mare of the show. Second with 90.46 points was Rayhana al Safenat (Murtajab al Nakeeb x Djema Ruhemy el Shah) – bred and owned by Al Safenat stud. Third in the class with 90.38 points was Karmala Rabab (Murtajab al Nakeeb x Kahramanah Rabab) – bred and owned by Rabab Stud. Big surprise was the 7th placed horse in the class. The beautiful Kamla al Asil (El Thay Kamil x Layaly al Asil) scored 89.88 points. But as it was an open championship, the mare came back for the championships on Sunday and proved everyone wrong by claiming the bronze medal with the senior mare championships!

On Saturday it was time for the boys! The show started with the ranking colt foals. Twelve foals were entered. Winner with 90.67 points was Baareg al Farida (Imperial Baarez x Salma) – bred and owned by Al Farida Stud. Second with 90.42 points was Marwan al Tarzy (Hamd al Tarzy x Malak Lara) – bred and owned by Al Tarzy stud. Third with 89.96 points was Rashim al Gabry (Harir el Gabry x Cuiaba OS) – Bred and owned by El Gabry Stud.

The show continued with a nice big class of yearling colts divided between class A and class B. Winner with 91.29 points and Gold medal champion was the pretty Haseeb Doura (Seef Saqr x Nadra ARM) – bred and owned by Doura Stud. Second with 90.96 points and later Bronze medal champion was Azhar al Safinat (Saif al Safenat x Asia al Safinat) – bred and owned by Al Safinat Stud. Third with 89.71 points was the pretty Amyz al Mamlaka (Vegas HEC x Amira al Mamlaka) – bred and owned by Al Mamlaka Stud.

The second group of yearling colts had a clear winner. The typey, big moving Rashid Rabab (Gharam Rabab x Rawafed al Tawfeek) – bred and owned by Rabab Stud scored a total of 91.54 points. Later in the championships he took the silver medal and also the special award for highest scoring Straight Egyptian colt of the show. Second with 89.79 points was Baron al Farida (Baarez al Farida x Salma) – bred and owned by Al Farida Stud. Third with 89.71 points was Magnam al Khaldon (Taresh al Hawajer x Magna al Wazir) – bred and owned by Al Khaldon Stud.

The show continued with the two years old colts. Winner with a nice total of 91.17 points and later Bronze medal champion was Amir Rabab (Seef al Safenat x Ghalia Leila) – bred and owned by Rabab Stud. Second with 90.67 points was Sohail el Moez (Farhoud Saqr x Sama al Sabeel) – bred and owned by El Moez Stud. Later in the championships, this colt took revenge by scoring the silver medal with the junior colts. Third with 90.42 points was the big moving Al Mortagab Omar (Tag el Din al Safenat x M. Genan) – bred and owned by Omar Stud.

The last class of junior colts had big winner. With 91.58 points, the beautiful Hamd al Tarzy (Kasem Saqr x Hala al Tarzy) – bred and owned by Al Tarzy stud, took the lead with ease and later won the Gold medal champion. This boy later also won the award for Highest scoring male of the show as well as the award for the highest scoring Straight Egyptian junior colt of the show. Second in this class with 90.62 points and scoring 20's in type, was the pretty Aasy al Mamlaka (Vegas HEC x Alyaa al Mamlaka) – bred and owned by Al Mamlaka Stud. Third with 90.29 points was Allazaz al Mousa (Bouznika x Nakawa el Mousa) – bred and owned by Al Mousa Stud.

The show continued with the big boys aged 4-6 years old. Putting on a great show, was the big moving Ghazal Khattab (AJ Barir x Gazia Khattab) – bred and owned by Khattab & Tahani Stud, scoring a total of 91.08 points with 20's on movement and head. Second with 90.88 points was Karawan el Gabry (Psyasic x Andorra OS) – bred and owned by El Gabry Stud. Later in the championships, this stallion came back strong and took the Silver medal. Third with 90.67 points was Diab Rabab (Murtajab al Nakeeb x Rawafed al Tawfeek) – bred and owned by Rabab Stud. Fourth in the class with 90.54 points was Fayyad Oony (Al Pasha Oony x Riham Gawdat) – bred and owned by Oony Stud. Later in the championships, this stallion took the bronze medal.

Last class of the day was the one of the senior stallions, aged seven years and older. Winner with 91.50 points, scoring almost straight 20's on type and later Gold medal champion was the beautiful Saeid al Farida (Maden al Nakeeb x Imella) – bred and owned by El Farida Stud. Later in the show he also took the special award for the highest scoring Straight Egyptian senior stallion of the show. Second with 90.50 points was Hilaly Omar (Hilal Omar x Rahma Omar) – bred and owned by Omar Stud. Third with 89.54 points was Bahir al Farida (Imperial Baarez x Imperial Kaavetah) – bred and owned by Al Farida Stud.

The Sunday started with two Most classic Head classes. The female class was won by Hala al Tarzy (Romeo al Amaar x Rabha Tahani) – bred and owned by Al Tarzy stud.

The Most beautiful head class male was won by Hamd al Tarzy (Kasem Saqr x Hala al Tarzy) – bred and owned by Al Tarzy Stud.

Other special awards were the Best sire of the show. This award was given to Seef al Safenat, who sired both the Bronze medal junior champion colt as well as the Gold medal yearling champion filly.

The best 1st handler from Egypt award was won by Mohamad Jameel, leaving the 2nd best handler from Egypt award to Mohamad al Tan Tawy. The 3rd best handler award from Egypt award was won by Sameer Nabil.

Last but not least was the announcement of the Best Breeder award, which was announced in a beautiful way with LED screens displaying all the past winners. In the end, the 2023 Best breeders Award went to Rabab Stud.

With this the AHO Breeders Cup came to an end. A beautiful show, well organized in a beautiful setting with great quality horses! □
