10.11.12 NOVEMBER

B-INTERNATIONAL SHOW

by Fabio Brianzoni ■ photos by Simone Bergamaschi

Think of entering a fair, a fair in Verona, the same one that in its halls hosts Vinitaly or motorcycles or mechanics, a fair immersed in the center of the city. Think that from the station you can get there on foot, if you don't want to wait for the shuttle or cab. Think that walking or in 5 minutes by car you can see the magical Arena or Romeo and Juliet's balcony. Now think of a horse fair in this context, but different from all the fairs in the world, this is the VERONA HORSE FAIR. Verona is a city where the horse for 4 days is the protagonist, the host, the actor entering its natural stage, the King of the rings inside the pavilions that host it. More than 2,000 horses including jumpers, western mounts and all sporting and recreational equestrian specialties. Horses of all sizes under and without saddles, free or attached to carriages hundreds of years old. Imagine a one-of-a-kind event that has been repeated every year for as many as 125 years. So thanks to all the staff who organized this show which welcomes visitors from all over the world every year.

For the past 26 years, we at Tuttoarabi have always been present at the fair with our booth and I would like to thank Mr. Armando Diruzza, Maria Baleri, Marco Rocca who represent the general management of Fiera Verona for creating a top-notch event again this year. Two shows were held in Hall 3, the first dedicated exclusively to the pure Egyptian Arabian horse, the second an International B also affiliated with Ecaho. Mrs. Antonia Bautista from Spain and Mr. Giorgio Rossi Italy were invited to judge the first show. For the international, Dr. Vet. Gianmarco Aragno who on this occasion formally said goodbye to the rings but will hopefully stay to judge in reserved categories. Ms. Micaela Weidner from Germany, Mr. Robbie Den Hartog from Holland and Mrs. Irina Stigler Italy. Ring Master Mr. Roberto Ceccaroni and DC Mrs. Maria Vittoria Pancani and Mr. Marco Capelli. The pavilion set up with VIP area and attached bar welcomed on the reserved tables many owners and breeders, also the stands for visitors were always packed during the competitions. In addition to the gold silver and bronze medals for each category, some special prizes were awarded: amongst them the Best Breeder to Mr. Donato Prisco and for the highest score in the show to UNICA PPJ also from Agricola PPA breeding.

The photos you will see are by Simone Bergamaschi for Tuttoarabi magazine. □
