ATMOSPHERE PHOTOS

From 11-13 of August, the city of Vichy turned into an Arabian oasis. Three days of purebred Arabians right in the city center of the beautiful city of Vichy, starting with the breeders final of the endurance horses on Friday, followed by the French National Championships, The Egyptian Event Europe Championships and on Sunday the International C-show. Almost 200 horses were entered.

The show was perfectly organized by ACA the French Association of the Arab Horse and its vice - President Mr. Eric Gear surrounded by an exceptional team of members of the association, the place was perfectly equipped to host such a large event, with permanent boxes for the horses and a large covered stand for the public and a nicely VIP arena on the short side of the large sand arena.

The Aca French association of the arabian horses, thanks Pyramid Society Europe for entrusting Aca France with the Egyptian Event Europe arabian horses for 2023 and special thanks to Ali Almimar for his generous contribution of his artwork used for the promotion of the Vichy Arabian Horse Festival 2023.

Next to go was a beautiful class of 4-6 years old mares. Winner of the class with 92.31 points was the beautiful Agmal Sharah (Sharahm x Melina el Madan), scoring multiple 20s on type and movement. This mare, bred and owned by Agmal Arabians was later awarded with the Best European female award and the award for the best French female. Second in this class with 92 points was the very pretty Estrella Meia Lua (HP Ali x Ellara el Ludjin) – bred by Haras Meia Lua and owned by Al Jood stud from Qatar.

The second class of 4-6 years old mares was won by the amazing big moving mare D Jamavel (FA el Rasheem x D Jareen) – bred by Dubai Arabian Horse Stud and owned by Al Shiraa Stables from Abu Dhabi. This mare scored multiple 20s on type, head and neck and full 20s for movement! She received not only the Gold medal in the senior mare championships, but was also named Best in show female and got awarded with the best movement female trophy. Second in this class with 91.75 points was Asayel al Zaid (Equator x Jouwaida MP) bred and owned by Al Zayed Stud from Saudi Arabia.

Two classes of 7 years and older mares where up next. The first group had a lot of absents and only one mare showed. The big moving La Dolce Dea (Wadee al Shaqab x Col Carisma) – bred by Antonio Fontana and owned by Al Shiraa Stables from Abu Dhabi scored a total of 92.13 points. The second group of mares had only three participants. Winner with a massive score of 93.06 points was the ultra pretty Elizia Alfabia (ZT Magnofantasy x Alfabia Gaia) – bred by Alfabia Stud and owned by Samjad Stud from Lebanon. This mare scored multiple 20s on type and movement and was later named bronze medal senior champion mare. Second in this class was the big moving mare D Jawaher (FA el Rasheem x D Noor) – bred and owned by Dubai Arabian Horse stud from the UAE. This mare also scored 20's on type and movement and had an overall score of 92.75 points. Later in the championships, she beat Elizia, by becoming the Silver medal champion.

The show continued with the yearling colts. Only two participants in this class so both colts got automatically Gold and silver champion. Winner of the class with 92.25 points was the very showy AB Nader (Cyclon OS x Nefertarji) bred by Albabtain and owned by Abhaa Arabians from Kuwait. Second in this class with 90.31 points was BP Elezar Vittorio (Exagon OS x Sultana AM) – bred and owned by Al Mohamadia Stud from Saudi Arabia.

Next to go was the class of the two years old colts. As there was no class of three years old colts, the first three places horses automatically got the Gold, Silver and Bronze medal. Winner of the class with 91.50 points was Adeeb Samjad (Shanghai EA x A Touch of Magic) bred and owned by Samjad Stud from Kuwait. Second with 90 points was Maxiaan (LF Aarmaan Vittorio x Marni) bred by Sax Arabians and owned by Xie Renzhau from China. Third with 89.56 points was Monroe (LF Aarmaan Vittorio x Monira) bred by Sax Arabians and owned by Xie Renzhau from China.

The show continued with the 4-6 years old stallions. Winner with 92.56 points and multiple 20s on type, head and movement was the big moving Mahasin de Cartherey (Radjah de Cartherey x Wadi'ha de Cartherey) bred and owned by the Catherey Arabians from France. Later in the championships, this stallion took the Silver medal. He also received the trophy for the Best European male. Second in this class with 92.13 points was the beautiful big moving Rasheem Albidayer (FA el Rasheem x Manal Albidayer) – bred by Albidayer Stud and owned by SH Iberic Arabians from France. This stallion with his soft friendly eyes took the bronze medal and was also name Best French male.

The class of senior stallions aged 7 years and older had only one participant but it is fair to say, this one stall the show! With his extreme movement, attitude and class, he scored a total 93.63 points with straight 20s on type and movement! D Kaheel (FA el Rasheem x D Muwadah) – bred by Dubai Arabian Horse stud and owned by Abhaa Arabians from Italy, came saw and conquered and took not only the Gold medal in the final championships, but also took the Best movement male trophy and the Best in show male title!

With this last class, the International C show and the Arabian Horse Festival in Vichy came to an end. A well organized show, with great people, a great atmosphere and a super facility for the horses. Really one to put back on the calendar next year!
