All Nations Cup in Aachen – one of those rare places in the world being the overall meeting point for the breeders, owners, trainers, media and enthusiasts of Arabian horse breed from all over the world already for the 28th time opened its gates to welcome the most famous and the highest scored horse individuals throughout the 2010 show season. Looking through the catalogue one could feel goose bumps watching the lines of excellent quality horses entered this year to this first big European shows opening the “Triple Crown”. But not only the level, also the quantity of the horses gathered enables us to give the best compliments to the organizing committee supported by the sponsors and the highest level jury (Maria Ferraroni/IT, Cecilia Bourghardt/SE, Joanne Lowe/UK, Peter Gamlin/UK, Jaroslav Lacina/CZ and Francesco Santoro/IT) who faced not an easy task to judge almost 150 horses! Already the classes of yearlings, opening the international event, had to be split into A and B groups with the biggest number of offspring by Marwan Al Shaqab dynasty – the great sire himself, QR Marc and Marajj as well as the nice representation of some Eden C, WH Justice and Ajman Moniscione’s – still creating the fashion in the show barns and further – show rings. Amongst the yearling group especially successful one was Mystica Indiab by Marwan Al Shaqab bred and owned by Mystica Arabians in far Australia who not only won her class 1A but also got the majority of votes for the Bronze Medal Champion Filly in the finals. The winner of the other yearling fillies section – Polish-bred Zigi Zana by QR Marc out of World Champion Mare Zagrobla didn’t succeed in the championships but opened the very successful way of Polish team through the whole show up to the spectacular end... The big battle for the Gold and Silver medals in the Junior Fillies were held between the 2 and 3 years old show veterans – the big favorite, unquestionable owner of one of most exotic heads nowadays and the high scored winner of the 2 years old group – Alma Al Tiglio by Ajman Moniscione, placed just in front of WH Justice daughter Turchiya MPE competing for her new owners – Haraz Cruzeiro from Brasil and the same scored exotic and entitled Psyche Kreuzza by Ekstern from Chrcynno Palace, Poland. The age group of 3 years old fillies also contained some unbeaten past show

THE BATTLE OF GIANTS

28th ALL NATIONS CUP & 2010 GERMAN NATIONAL SHOW

AACHEN

The Judges

contenders as Djoonam OS and Baila de Djoon both by Ajman Monicione from Albidayer Stud, AV Dobassai – handsome daughter of Massai Ibn Marenga and finally – the other favorite to take the highest trophies – great mover especially at indoor arenas FT Shaella by Shael Dream Desert, unanimous champion in Dubai and reserve champion at Menton A show this season, owned by Dubai Stud. Indeed, these were Alma al Tiglio and FT Shaella to share the Gold and Silver however at the beginning no one, even the judges themselves didn't seem to have the clear answer who deserves which one... Finally with the votes 3:2 the Golden ring went to Dubai with Alma Al Tiglio chosen as almost unanimous Silver Medal Filly. Another group of young rising stars appeared with the classes of colts. In the yearlings such excellently bred individuals as AJ Fenjan from Ajman Stud, Kanz Albidayer from Albidayer Stud (both by Ajman Moniscione) met with WH Justice son out of immortal Swana – Juwel OS from Gestuet Osterhof and Polish National Jr Champion Colt sired by champion parents – Empire by QR Marc out of Emira from Michalów Stud Poland in section A and famous AJ Bintan by WH Justice from Ajman Stud with extremely exotic black Magic Magnifique by True Colors from Fontanella Magic Arabians together with two "Ajas" – Angelo and Adonis by WH Justice from UK – all scored close to each other in the section B. Despite the high marks (with Kanz Albidayer and Magic Magnifique winning the classes) again the highest trophies went this time to the elder males. As many as 4 votes were given to for one of most exotic sons of WH Justice – 3 times champion of B International shows and 2 times champion at A rank shows in Europe this time Gold Champion – Aja Justified competing for the new leaser Athbah Stud – very high scored (93,00) class winner of 2 years old group. Also 4 times voted for Silver was Kabil Al Shaqab by Marwan Al Shaqab who has beaten in his class such excellent new coming sires as Shanghai EA and US bred and owned El Chall WR representing North Arabians in Europe. The Bronze medal deservedly went to the exotic guest bred in Brasil and imported by Aretusa Arabians in Italy – RFI Farid by RFI Maktoub, very correct and elegant colt placed as second after Aja Justified in the class.

The senior classes at such high quality shows as All Nations Cup is, always bring the tears of emotion to all those who admire the most beautiful Arabian horses in their perfect pride and shape. Also this time the show held at Albert-Valle-Halle was just a crème de la crème of worlds' best horses. In the senior mares – class after the class the well known stars were entering the arena: highly cheered Abha Opalina by WH Justice owned by Al Mohamadia Stud, KSA (class winner of mares 4–6 years old section A), Gazal Al Shaqab daughters Emandoria and Pistoria – multiple champions from Michalów Stud Poland holding first two places in mares 4–6 section B, Jamilla Al Zobair by Ashbal Al Rayyan from Al Khalediah stables with just one point in type winning with multichampion from Dubai Stud – Ladi Veronica by Versace in mares 7–10 years old, and of course once again the star pleiad of one and only Monogramm daughters brought again by Michalów Stud in Poland in the eldest females: Emmona, Zagrobla, Palmira, taking the first three places and further their former stable mate Etenta (by Monogramm as well) currently owned by Athbah Stud placed as fourth. Again the big pride for director Jerzy Białobok collecting the line of trophies, moreover that Michalów Stud bred and owned Emandoria in the big final competition won almost unanimously (5 votes) the Gold Medal Senior Mare title in front of Jamilla Al Zobair as Silver and Ladi Veronica as Bronze. Since the senior females part was very moving, the male competition was exciting, with the big question unanswered until the end – which from the multichampion stallions will be chosen for the medals? Again the list of candidates was breathtaking: All Nations Cup Champion Colt – Baanderos against World Reserve Champion QR Marc, show winner as colt – Marquis CAHR from Al Kalediah Stables, All Nations Cup and World Champion Colt – MA Shadow El Sher against World Reserve Champion Colt Girlan Bey and entitled US-bred MCA Magnum Gold... The variety of pedigrees, types, show titles from the past meant the difficult choice for the judges! They passed this extreme trial for the best mark – the winners were chosen carefully and deservedly according to the best horses presence that day. In the big championship competition the choices were made from the class winners – Baanderos, Girlan Bey and immortal Lobeke (with his immortal inseparable owner and handler Jan Calis) and the second placed this time – QR Marc, MCA Magnum Gold and Pilgrim. Only one of them and as the only champion was chosen unanimously at 28th All Nations Cup – Baanderos again in the ring with Michael Byatt for Al Khalediah Stables. For the Silver and Bronze medals the fight was strong and more successful for the exotic QR Marc as Silver and MCA Magnum Gold – this time becoming Bronze. Finally all the three medalists in the senior stallions happened to be born in the US, however also Polish-bred and owned by Kristoffersen family from Denmark Girlan Bey was not without the chances for the medal – unfortunately there are only three for each category...

As always All Nations Cup is not only the battle for the medals. The total results counted by points works for each country and every breeder in All Nations Cup (Lady Harmsworth Blunt Memorial) Trophy for the best winning country and Breeders Cup (Major Hedley) Trophy for the best breeder of the whole event. Thanks to the all team work for the sixth time in the history the All Nations Cup Trophy went to Poland. This country just a while later appeared to have also the best breeder of 2010 All Nations Cup – another the trophy went to Michałow State Stud – home of the incredible senior as well as the new coming junior individuals in Arabian horse breed.

The tradition of the comfortable All Nations Cup show-ground is to host also the German National Show on Friday afternoon. This is also a great chance for the international spectators to watch the German breeding scene and on this scene in 2010 the few big leaders seemed to appear clearly – both in the most successful sires as well as amongst the best breeders. At the 2010 German Nationals judged by: Christiane Chazel/FR, Renata Schibler/CH and Burbadr Schroeder/DE, we could have seen the domination of WH Justice as a sire of junior show competitors. All the three junior fillies medalists, all chosen unanimously, were the daughters of this leading sire: Scarlett OS bred and owned by Gestuet Osterhof as Gold, interesting chestnut Muranas Naseetah from Murana Stud as Silver and Tamice from Reinhard Sax farm that was also extremely successful being the breeder and owner of all medal awarded foals of the Nationals – the filly Ajmana by Ajman Moniscione (Gold), the colt Esstaan by Meshan Ibn Kubinec (Silver) and Justina Bint Psyada by WH Justice (Bronze) – again WH Justice line domination. In turn in the Junior Colts Championships the unbeaten leader who grabbed all the three medals home was Family Stockle from Gestuet Osterhof with their young but already show experienced: Aragon OS by WH Justice as Gold, Lance Lord OS by WH Justice (Silver) and Jumanzi OS by WH Justice's son – Ajman Moniscione (Bronze). The classes of seniors were unfortunately not so numerously attended so the mares competed in only two age groups and stallions in one with just Gold and Silver Stallion to be chosen. Both Gold and Silver awarded mares came from the eldest age group – F Samirah by Ali Valentino brought by experienced breeders Family Friedmann winning and Espanna Estopa by Espano Estopa owned by Reinhard Sax placed as second. The championships were completed with the younger one, unanimous Bronze mare – Makarra, Marwan Al Shaqab daughter bred by Michael Byatt and owned by Henrike Hormann. The unanimous Gold and Silver champions amongst the only class of the stallions were both bred and owned by Reinhard Sax: the multichampion stallion, well known from national and international rings – Al Milan by Al Lahab (Gold) and Taymar by Kyro KA (Silver). It will be indeed exciting how these new cosen German champions brought by their giant-breeders will do in the future against the rest of the world... See you next time in Aachen! □
