The competition calendar in the United Arab Emirates is packed with appointments. Taking place on February 7 and 8 was the second of the five events scheduled in this country, which has managed to get to the top of conformation shows for purebred Arabians in just a few years. Numerous are also the appointments with other disciplines, of which this country is the undisputed leader. This time we saw a national competition held at the outstanding facilities of the Equestrian Club. Organized by Emirates Arabian Horse Society and UAE National Arabian Horse Championship Show Committee and Mr. Adnan Sultan Al Nuaimi, General Manager of the Club that hosts this event every year, the team consisted of H.E. Khadim Abdulla Aldarei as Show Director and Mr. Khalifa Abdulla Al Nuaimi as Vice Director, who was indefatigably present and very accurate. Christianne Chazel, Technical Director, and Mrs. Dominik Briot, Vice Technical Director, organizers during the show. With the help of an excellent ring master, Mr. Philip Jenkins, the event was fast-paced, glitch-free, and the competition of the various categories ran smoothly. A special mention goes to the speaker, Mr. Guy De Fontaines, who has performed his task well and spoke fluently in English and in Arab. Demanding as usual was the role of the jury, which was comprised by H.R.H. Teresa de Borbon (ES), Mrs. Janet Court (UK), Dr. Nikolaus Jung (DE) and Dr. Mohammed Machmoum from Morocco.

The first category was that of yearling fillies, with nine entries. A surprising tie of 88.7 points put four horses at the same level, with one-point differences either in type or movement. Reaching the top place was *Bint Badeah (Belbowrie Obsidian x El Badeah), a gray filly owned by H.H. Sh.ka Azza bint Sultan bin Mohammed Al Qassimi. She was followed by *Salwa Al Zobair (Marraji x Esklawwa) owned by Sh.
