

ArabEquus

The first day of September, the little village Sant Joan de les Abadesses (Girona) - located in the beautiful region of Catalonia - hosted ARABEQUUS 2007 which was for the second time perfectly organized by the Spanish breeder Pau Romero di Romero Black Arabians. Breeders from all over Spain with nearly 60 purebred Arabians followed his invitation and entered their horses for the in hand competitions which were judged by two international lady judges, Mrs. Claudia Darius (Germany) and Mrs. Maria Ferraroni (Italy).

It was a great satisfaction for the organizing team (including the charming ring master Mrs. Pilar Caveró and the responsible of the disciplinarian committee Mr. Jorge Clemente) that not only important breeders and interested horse lovers from Spain, but an international public from various European countries found their way to the idyllic show venue.

The quality of the horses had a good level with some excellent individuals in the top positions and winning the well deserved championships.

Due to the lovely atmosphere during the show, everybody enjoyed the breeders evening together until late in the night... □
