

Denmm

The DSAH horse Event Denmark took place on the sunny weekend of 16th to the 18 th July

by Helle Nielsen ■ photos by www.starphoto.dk

SF Verify
(Marwan Al Shaqab x Veronica GA-Versace)

Best in Show

ark

On a wonderful new showground near the city of Middelfart, this showground has easy access for all participants whether they came from Denmark, Scandinavia or from other European countries.

For the horses this showground have new spacious wooden boxes which makes a stroll in the stable a real pleasure. For the audience it is a pleasure to watch horses and handlers in the arena – very big and with good bedding which made the horses perform very well.

On Friday the National show took place and on Saturday and Sunday it was the International A-show.

Also during the show were several dressage classes with a lot of entries competing for the title of Danish champion.

The organizers had done their best to entertain the audience with some shops where good food and sweets could be bought as well as shops with equipment for horses.

During lunch displays were arranged. Lise Frandsen with her gelding Fair Orkan gave beautiful proof on why the pair has just been named silver champion at the European Sport horse in dressage.

Also some wonderful mini horses were shown in hand and driving. They were so cute !

The Danish national show on Friday was judged by Peder Birch from Denmark, Dr. Nico Jung from Germany and Koenraad Detaillieur from Belgium.

Azraff El Karmdal

(Wisdoms Promise x Wanannah)

Gold Medal Stallions

Denmark

For the Danish audience it is great to watch how the quality is getting better each year.

Best in show was the bay 4 year old stallion SF Verify by Marwan Al Shaqab and Veronica GA. The stallion was bred in the US and is now proudly owned by Beduin Arabians .

The international show was judged by Sylvie Eberhardt from Germany, Renata Schibler from Switzerland, Peter Upton and Nick Arnold from UK and Marek Trela from Poland.

Even if the number of entries were a bit low the quality of the horses were high. Entries came from Scandinavia, Poland, Germany, Austria, Belgium, South Africa and US.

Saturday night a nice party was held in a very good and relaxed atmosphere. A mechanical bull was for everybody to try and this gave much fun and laughter !

The Championships were as always exciting to watch.

The fillies champion ship was a great victory for the Polish breeder Chrcynno Palace stud as they had both the Gold and Silver Champion filly. Gold winner was the 3 year old Chaos Persefona by the Laheeb son Pogamin and Ceres and Silver winner was the well moving Ekstern daughter Psyche Kreuzza.

Bronze winner was also a beautiful filly Al Princess Aliba, by WH Justice out of the famous black mare Al Aliba, bred and owned by the Al Hambra Stud in Austria. Both silver and bronze fillies were 2 year old.

Rohara Rebecca
(Magnums Psyche x Somewhere Mi Love - Padron)

Gold Medal Mares

The colts had the extremely charming and showy colt yearling Aragon OS as Gold champion. This bay colt is by WH Justice and Al Shanina by Al Lahab and bred and owned Gestuet Osterhof in Germany.

Silver champion was a flashy chestnut Ali Moniscione by Psytadel out of Alianna Moniscione. Owned by Giancarlo Buzzi from Italy and on lease to the Malorney family from Germany. Very interestingly bred this colt with Padron Psyche close on both sire and dam.

Bronze Champion was the handsome dark grey colt Bernhard by Rohara Baccara out of Tosca bred and owned by Annika Lindh jd from Sweden.

Gold Champion mare was the Swedish owned Rohara Rebecca by Magnum Psyche out of Somewhere Mi Love by Padron.. This ultra feminine mare was bred in the US and now owned by Naples Arabians. Rohara Rebecca also was the highest scoring horse at the show with 93 points !

To the delight of the Danish audience the mare Warina by Warin out Maritza was Silver champion.

Trained and shown by her owner Millington Andersen this beautiful mare was also Best Danish Bred horse at the show.

The extremely showy and charismatic black mare Al Aliba was bronze Champion, she is by DWD Tabasco and Gahari an interesting cross of Polish, Spanish and Egyptian lines. This mare is bred and owned by Al Hambra Arabians from Austria.

Aragon OS

(WH Justice x Al Shanina-Al Lahab)

Gold Medal Colts

Denmark

To the great joy of both Danish owners and the Danish audience, Azraff El Karmdal was named Gold Champion Stallion. Bred and owned by Karmdal Arabians this showy stallion is by Wisdoms Promise out of Wanannah.

Silver champion was the trotting machine Rohara Baccara by Padron Psyche out of Sidia. Bred and the US and owned by Naples Arabians from Sweden.

The beautiful grey Gazal Al Shaqab son Lissar was bronze Champion. Lissar is bred and owned by Michalow Stud in Poland and on lease to the Danish

Turban Stud.

Finally Sunday afternoon also the dressage competition was finished after a lot of beautiful performances and the title of Danish Champion was finally Camilla Christensen with TA Madir by Halim Witez was the champion.

With a total of around 140 starts it was clear to see that riding Arabians has a bright future in Denmark

There is every reason to come to Denmark next year for the show ! So many things to look forward to! □

Chaos Persefona
(Proganin x Ceres-Ganges)

Gold Medal Colts

