Open Day at Dubai Arabian Horse Stud

The Dubai Arabian Horse Stud would like to thank their visitors that visited the Stud on the yearly open day, after having had great success at the International Arabian horse Championship show this year in Dubai.

Dubai Stud were proud to show their facilities, and more importantly some of their most outstanding horses.

The open day invitation was a great success and enjoyed by all, including industry professionals, breeders and judges.

Guests also had the rare opportunity to walk the premises of the new Stud and see their world standard "state of the art" facilities.

This impressive Stud is located 17kilometers from the well known five stars hotel and resort BAB AL SHAMS, and just thirty minutes from the Dubai International Airport and city center.

The new Stud set in the desert is beautiful and expansive with fifty paddocks, two lunging rings , a large equine swimming pool , equine treadmills , a fully equipped in-house pharmacy, laboratory and breeding center which will be open commercially , for embryo transfers in the near future .

“Born to lead... Bred to excel!”

General manager Mr. Mohammad Abdulla Al Tawhidi and Stud Manager Mr. Abdulaziz AL Marazeeq have worked together with their expansive team to source horses with the best bloodlines from all around the world to be part of a breeding program that has brought considerable breeding results in a very short period, making Dubai a forefront leader in breeding Arabian horses in the world to date.

With perseverance and passion both Managers have created a compact and dedicated team that work together with energy and commitment making Dubai Arabian Stud one of the top studs in the world.

The resident vets at Dubai Stud, now in its fourth year , have had great success in embryo transfers using fresh and frozen semen , producing world class standard “homemade” babies that have achieved excellent results in shows worldwide, this achievement has come with careful selective breedings , crossing Straight Egyptians , Straight Polish and golden mixes.

The results thus far are insuring that Dubai Arabian horse Stud will produce some of the best Arabian horses of world class standard and quality, confident to bring home many more champions in the near future.

"Born to lead... Bred to excel!"

Dubai Arabian horse Stud would also like to thank Mr. Paolo Capecci ,International Arabian horse handler, who presents their horses during the challenging period of all the top shows both in the Middle East and international and Mr. Gian Paolo Gubbiotti (Woody), who assists the stud in public relations and promotions, also the manager of the well known Arabian training center Ca'Di Gianni in Italy.

Thank you for your support, corporation and input that has helped us achieve success.

A special thank you also to Ms. Claudia Darius for her excellent announcing of the presented horses.

The Team

Thank you again to everyone for attending our special day.

Hope to see you all again in 2012 at our open day, a day where everyone is invited to see and experience this truly special Arabian horse farm.
