As every second year again the comfortable center Zilveren Spoor in Belgium opened the doors for Arabian horse enthusiasts curious to see the best horses in the European show scene. And they couldn't have been disappointed as the entries included almost all the big favorites one could expect to see in this moment in that place.

Already the yearling classes gathered the best production of the most talked sire and champion himself last years – QR Marc. In the B section two of his Polish-bred daughters – Zigi Zana (out of Zagrobla) from Michałow and Piacenza (out of Primawera) from Janów Podlaski took the two first places while in the A section the winner was the stable mate of Piacenza – Primera (Eden C – Preria) in front of another new coming star of Azienda Agricola Buzzi – Armonia Moniscione by so famous sire last times – Ajman Moniscione. However breeding the show successful male used to be somewhat unlucky for Polish farms, this time they brought the unquestionable winner of yearling colts – the exotic Polish National Jr Champion Empire (Enzo – Emira) from Michałow. The second one was the new guest in Frank Spoenle barns – Makisa Adaggio (by Vervaldee) owned by Raingills Farms UK. The classes of elder youngsters 2 years old included the horses already well known from their successful appearances in past seasons. And so the A section of fillies was the meeting of the big favorite – royally bred Princess Al Aliha (WH Justice – Al Aliha) who took the leadership in front of Parmana, Al Maraam daughter born in Poland and on lease to Athbah Stud, KSA. The B section and another favorite to win was the great Alma Al Tiglio (by Ajman Moniscione), owner of one of the most exotic faces on the showrings nowadays owned by Buzzi Family with Ajman Stud that collected as many as 92,30 points beating two Ekstern daughters from Poland – Psyche Kreuzza from Chrcynno Palace as second and

Wieża Róż from Michałów Stud. A bit unexpected was the result of the 2 years old colts class with the guest from UK – Revolution by Padrons Psyche winning in front of big favourite – Shanghai EA by WH Justice who anyway took the revenge the day after... The dominance of his sire – WH Justice has been seen also in 3 years old group with his daughter beautiful FM Gloriaa who has beaten two excellent Ajman Moniscione bred couple owned by Albidayer Stud – Baila de Djoon OS and Djoonam OS and in the group of colts the incomparable competitor was Aja Justified bred by Aja Arabians of UK and representing Athbah Stud. He collected not only five “twenties” for head and neck but also the highest score of Saturday competition – 93,10! Sunday began with even more exciting battle of the best quality mares. The class of 4-5 years old included another WH Justice daughter Abba Opalina winning the group in front of two Ekstern daughters from Janów Podlaski Stud of Poland – Cenoza and Sefora. Probably the most interesting class that day was the competition of 2010 All Nations Cup Champion Mare – Emandoria (by Gazal Al Shaqab) from Michałów Stud with another WH Justice daughter, impressive multichampion returning to the rings – Bess Fa'izah for Ajman Stud. The battle resulted in just 0,9 point difference for Emandoria as the winner with the high total score of 94,60. Interesting is that further places 3 and 4 were taken by Emandorias halfsisters – Pistoria and Etnologia – the great result of Gazal Al Shaqab use in Poland. The classes of the eldest mares 8-10 and 11 years and older were not so high scored but shown the successful production of another great sire in European breeding – Monogramm. His descendants won both of the age groups – granddaughter Ellisara (sired by Laheeb) bred in Poland and owned by Athbah Stud in front of Dubai Stud representative Col Cora (by Wagner) and two daughters – Emmona and Zagrobla taking two first places in the eldest group, both ribbons for Michałów Stud. Senior males of 4-5 years old group was won by Mahadin son Al Fakhir in front of AV Montoya by WH Justice bred in UK and competing for Erik Dorssers, the Netherlands, while two times Spanish National Champion Abba Midas by Marwan Al Shaqab was the winner in front of Jhulyuss Ibn Eternity-D by Eternity Ibn Navarrone-D bred and owned by Dion Arabians in another group. Again the competition with great champions and small point difference we enjoyed in the stallions 8-10 years old where past Junior World Champion MA Shadow El Sher (by El Sher Mann) owned by Dubai Stud has beaten the former World Reserve Junior Champion – Polish bred Girlan-Bey belonging to Family Krosstiffersen. The high total of 92,80 for MA Shadow El Sher and just 0,2 point difference to Girlan-Bey were the exciting entry for the upcoming championships.

If we would like to point out the most successful horse of 2010 European Championships it would surely be... WH Justice. Both junior females and males gold champions were sired by this stallion passing the impressive look and Arabian charisma – FM Gloriaa the best looking in the line of Top Five selected fillies was the deserved winner in front of Zigi Zana by QR Marc as silver and so much entitled in the past – Alma Al Tiglio as bronze. Top five fillies was completed by Psyche Kreuza and Piacenza – both from Poland. In the colts not only the gold champion – big favorite Aja Justified was the WH Justice sired medalist but also silver one – Shanghai EA. The podium for colts was joined by Empire by Enzo – the bronze medal going to Michałów Stud, and Ali Moniscione by Psytadel with Makisa Adaggio were the ones to be named Top five in the category. Emotions reached the peak when the group of 9 best European mares stood in the lines to compete for the best five and top three to be presented the medals. Hard task for the international jury judging 2010 European Championship: Urs Aeschbacher, Christiane Chazel, Sylvie Eberhardt, Deidre Hyde, Renata Schibler and Holger Ismer. Six out of nine mares qualified to the championship were born in Poland so big chance for this country to get the third, gold medal to the collection but the winner of other class – Abha Opalina was tough competitor. Finally, the highest scored horse of the show that Emandoria was, took the lead and the gold medal went to Michałow Stud bringing this charismatic

Mary-Ann Kristoffersen watching the king of their OKS Arabians farm happy. Top five was joined by Gírlan-Bey's sire – Pesal and Equifor – one of best Gazal Al Shaqab stallions bred in Poland. The Arabian horse lovers gathered in Zilveren Spoor honored also the great people who dedicate their lives to promote this beautiful breed. On September 21 Major Pat Maxwell, legendary breeder at Lodge Farm in UK and the establisher, active creator and former first long time President of ECAHO passed away. International community that met in Moorseele paid the tribute to Pat Maxwell with symbolic minute of silence at 2010 European Championships. The event was accom- mare the 2010 European champion title after her success in All Nations Cup. Is it the way to be Triplecrowned this year in competition against the other continents representatives...? Silver medal and another WH Justice entitled daughter was beautiful Bess Fa'izah for Sheikh Ammar and the bronze went to Abha Opalina – by... WH Justice! Top Five was completed by the two mares from Poland – Emmona and Cenoza. While senior mares were probably the most difficult to choose from the senior stallions were the biggest question about the winner... The favorites for gold medal were two multi champions – MA Shadow el Sher and Eternity Ibn Navarrone-D, two stallions so different in pedigrees and appearance. This time Eternity Ibn Navarrone had to be satisfied with silver color as the gold went to Dubai Stud owing popular "Shadow". Bronze medal went deservedly to Gírlan-Bey making Lina and panied also with the special classes such as Liberty won by Flaxman's Carmen by FA Wysznu from Netherlands and ridden class of stallions (the winner Krystl Gucci owned by Family Lloyd-Biroulet, Belgium) and mares & geldings (won by Silvern Moonlight representing Mrs O'Rourke of Great Britain). At the end of the championships the trophies were also presented to the Horse with the Highest Marks for incomparable Emandoria and the Best Belgian Participant that became Eternity Ibn Navarrone-D. The evening gala hosted the stallion presentation that became already a kind of tradition of Saturday evenings at European Championships. This time the proud host of the show was Athbah Stud, the current owner of the 2010 All Nations Cup and European Champion Stallion the candidate for 2010 Triple Crown. If he will succeed we will see just in a few days... □
