First International Arabian Horse Show

The first "Al Khalediah Arabian Horse Festival" was held at the amazing center of His Royal Highness Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, between January 15th and 18th. Prince Khaled's stud farm is one of the best equipped in the whole of the Gulf area. Stretching over more than 400 hectares, the center has an internal hospital in which the experienced and well trained staff has obtained a considerable number of clinical successes, ranging from reproduction to the embryo management methods. Prince Khaled's boundless passion for the Arabian Horse, which has "infected" the entire Saudi Arabia, made it possible for an international event to be held for the first time in Riyadh. Prince Khaled's objective is to promote the Arabian horse with more and more energy, and turn this into one of the most popular appointments in the whole of the show sea-

As many as 19 countries took part with over 200 horses. There was a high number of guests from all over the world, gathered here thanks to the generosity of Prince Khaled who spared no expenses in making this event unforgettable and unique. The response from breeders was excellent, including many women, who had to make some minor adjustments but most of them welcomed the invitation and discovered that Saudi Arabia is a truly charming country that is worth discovering. Shuttle buses were available to guests for the transfers. During these journeys they were able to admire some unique landscapes and the desert in all its beauty, with lights that, depending on the time of the day and unlike any other place, constantly changed their colors turning it into an enchanted place. The presence of breeders was really remarkable during the four days of the event, starting from the auction held on the first day during which many horses were sold, with Syria playing a prominent role in the bidding. The following day was devoted to the compelling races and in the evening Prince Khaled hosted a sumptuous banquet inviting all the guests to sample Saudi delicacies in a relaxing and pleasant atmosphere. The third and the fourth day were those dedicated to the actual show, which usually does not give us time to sleep at night. You can also imagine the excitement felt by the European participants invited to be part of the show without having to incur in any expense and not having to worry about the horses invited to participate, knowing also that they could win rich prizes. The horses coming from Europe performed well and obtained, as we will see, important results for Belgium, Poland, Italy, England, Germany and South Africa. Excellent results were obtained also by the United Arab Emirates, which conquered as many as three Reserve Champion titles with horses from Sh. Ammar's Ajman Stud. Praise goes to the organization, led by the event manager Melanie Mannix and supported by a perfect team which included the well known Mr. Abdul Moniem Ahmed, who was always present and indefatigable, and the manager of the Al Khalediah Stables, Mr. Mutlaq Bin Mushrif. The Saudi TV made a live broadcast of the show, which was mesmerizing right until the end, when the Final Championship was held.

The competition

There were six judges for this occasion: Mr. Luiz Rocco (Brazil), Dr. Nasr Marei (Egypt), Dr. Francesco Santoro (Italy), Mr. Peter Upton (England), Mrs. Sylvie Eberhardt (Germany) and Mrs. Marianne Tengstedt (Denmark).

Given the high number of participants, the category of one-year-old fillies was split into section A and B. The first section was won, thanks to a high score, by Sara Al Mohamadiah (Marwan Al Shaqab x ZT Maghan) a type filly with excellent movement which obtained a total score of 91.25. She is owned by HH P. Abdullah Bin Fahad Bin Abdullah. Of the same owner was also the second, Jawharat Al

The Final Championship

The Final Championship was thrilling as usual. For this show the champion is selected from the horses in the front rank; once the champion had been chosen the reserve could be selected either from the other horses in the front rank or among the second-placed horses in the category behind the Champion and not among all the other reserves.

The title of Champion Filly went to Sara Al Mohamadiyah (Marwan Al Shaqab x Zt Maghan) presented by Michael Byatt and owned by HH P. Abdullah Bin Fahad Bin Abdullah. Reserve Champion Filly was the typey Fs Cayenne (A. S. Natsir Apal x Fs Cleopatra). Presented by Franck Sponle, this filly did an excellent final championship, to the joy of the Ajman Stud (UAE).

As for colts, the two top horses in the category of three-year-old colts obtained the titles of Champion and Reserve Champion: they were, respectively, QR Marc (Marwan Al Shaqab x Swete Dreams) owned by Paul Gheysen and presented by Franck Sponle and Baanderos, owned by HRH Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz and presented by Michael Byatt.

The wonderful Pianissima (Gazal Al Shaqab x Pianosa) was named Champion Mare. Congratulations to the Polish Stadnina Koni Janow Podlaski stud, she was magnificently presented by Greg Gallun. The Reserve Champion Mare title was awarded to the lovely Eagleride Passionata (Sanadik El Shaklan x River Oak Diminity) owned by the Ajman Stud (UAE) and presented by Frank Sponle.

He is owned King Abdullah Bin Abdulaziz & Sons and was presented by Philip Hosay. Reserve Champion title to the multichampion Esparto owned by the Ajman Stud (UAE) and presented by Frank Sponle.

At the end of the show, several categories of desert bred horses were held and, subsequently, a wonderful show with riders galloping with drawn sabers to the rhythm of Arab music, which culminated in fireworks.

And that was the end of the first Al Khalediah First International Arabian Horse Show, but there can be no doubt that it was the first of a long series of competitions in Saudi Arabia which will become more spectacular and
