Arabian Horse Festival

by Simone Leo ■ photos by Irina Filsinger

The second "Al Khalediah Arabian Horse Festival" was held at the amazing center owned by His Royal Highness Prince Khaled Sultan Bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, between January 25th and 30th. Prince Khaled's stud farm is one of the best equipped in the whole of the Gulf area. Stretching over more than 400 hectares, the center has an fully equipped internal equine hospital in which the experienced and well trained staff has obtained a considerable number of clinical successes, ranging from reproduction to embryo management methods. This state-of-the-art hospital with highly specialized staff is available also to breeders. Prince Khaled's boundless passion for the Arabian horse, which has "infected" the entire Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, made it possible for an international event to be held for the second time in Riyadh. Prince Khaled's objective is to promote the Arabian horse with more and more energy, and turn this into one of the most popular appointments in the whole of the show season.

The organizing committee was comprised of:
HRH Prince Khaled bin Sultan bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud,
President of the event;
Prince Faisal bin Abdullah bin Mohammed Al Saud
Prince Nawaf bin Faisal bin Fahd Al Saud
Eng. Abdullah bin Fahd bin Sweilem
Gen. Ayed Al-Jeaid
Eng. Sami Al-Nohait
Mr. Mutlaq bin Musbrif

The growth achieved over just twelve months deserves all our praise. The show managed to capture the attention of all the experts, who flocked here to see a well-managed show with a remarkable presence of spectators. As many as 19 countries took part with 450 horses entered in the Festival events. There was a high number of guests from all over the world, gathered here thanks to the generosity of Prince Khaled who spared no expenses in making this event unforgettable, unique and very successful. The response from breeders was excellent, including many women, who had to make some minor adjustments but most of them welcomed the invitation and discovered that Saudi Arabia is a truly charming country that is definitely worth discovering.

Shuttle buses were available to guests for the transfers. During these journeys they were able to admire some unique landscapes and the desert in all its beauty, with lights that, depending on the time of the day and unlike any other place in the world, constantly changed colors and created an enchanted atmosphere. A warm sun and excellent daytime and evening temperatures accompanied the entire show.

yone, so much so that the number of shows has significantly increased over the last two years, from two to four each year. Praise goes to the organization, led by the event manager Melanie Mannix and supported by a perfect team, which included the well known Mr. Abdul Moniem Ahmed, always present and indefatigable, and Mr Hakim Subhan, who assisted many of us prior to, and during, the event. The Saudi TV made a live broadcast of the show, which was mesmerizing right until the Final Championship. This year the show could also be seen live via the Web and Journalists could take advantage of a fully equipped modern media center.

For the spectators sitting on the VIP tables, the catering was excellent and impeccable. Worth mentioning is the participation of the public and Prince Khaled spared no expenses to make this event unforgettable, in which the star and the final winner was the Arabian horse. Reserve Champion was Bint Khuzamah bred and owned by the King Abdulaziz Arabian Horse Center. As we said before in the text the fourth, fifth and sixth days of the Festival were dedicated to the actual show, which usually keeps us awake at night. In addition to the usual conformation categories, four classes were reserved for desert breeds, those for the original Desert Bred horse of Saudi Arabia, where the qualities of this horse are given even more prominence. You can imagine the excitement felt by the European participants invited to be part of the show without having to incur in any expense and not having to worry about the horses invited to participate. The owners had the opportunity to win rich prizes which this year were truly remarkable: the prize for the various categories were wonderful and precious watches whereas Mercedes cars were up for grab in the final championship, for both champions and reserves, along with the Champion for the Desert Bred competition. The 15 horses, coming from Europe and Australia, performed well and obtained, as we will see, important results. Wide and wonderful was the grass ring set up for the show.

The presence of breeders was truly remarkable during the days of the event, starting from the auction held on the first day during which many horses were sold and every record from 2008 was beaten. The record was made by the wonderful Ansata Nile Pearl (Ansata Hejazi x Ansata White Nile) that was purchased for the equivalent of 1,215,565 dollars by Sh. Bagedo of the Al Khaled Farm.

Ansata Fantastiq (Ansata Sokar x G. Fantazia) was another mare that had bidders rushing for their cheque books. This goes to show that the auction, created just last year, has already attracted the attention of several stables and sector experts. Further confirmation comes from the fact that well over half of the 67 horses auctioned there were sold at remarkable prices, evidence of their high quality. Sire lines represented included such renowned stallions as Gazal Al Shaqab, Padrons Immage, F Shamaal, AJA Sangali, Dakbaro, and El Mokari. The sun, the bidding and the scenery of the Al Khalediah Horse Festival made next year's event even more unmissable.

AL KHALEDIAH Arabian Horse Festival

Monday afternoon was devoted to the compelling races, which was supported from owners from throughout the Kingdom. Gallop races in the desert are really thrilling and unique. The public, overexcited by the adrenaline-driven race, accompanied and cheered the performance of horses and jockeys. The Prince believes race performance testing is one of the most important modern methods of breed selection for Arabian horses, so naturally he is a great supporter of racing.

Seeing how eclectic Arabian horses are and how they manage to maintain their beauty throughout a gallop race is further proof that Arabian horses are by far the most eclectic breed among horses. The first section of the 1800 meter race was for imported horses aged 3 and above and the victory went to the lightweight Bint Abu Dabi, 54 Kg (El Manssour De Brou x Tanzina) owned by Salah Bin Ali Al Hamady, trained by Sultan AlHamady.

The second place went to Bariq Al Sayf, 56 kg (Arwak Daroco x Benita Tm) owned by Abdul Rahmnan bin Abdulla Al Damer. Congratulations to its owner and jockey

Khaled Alrawasbeed.

In third place Zain Al Maani, 56 kg (Darike x D Janizid) trained by Rashid AlMary, owned by Bander bin Hazam bin Shabeeb Al Hatblain. Congratulations to its owner and its jockey.

The second section of the 1800-meter race was reserved for locally bred horses aged 4 and above. The confident win- ner was Hammam Al Thalith, 56 kg (Kash de Nerak x Al Haydaryah) owned by Adel bin Yousef AlQusaibi and trained by M. AlGanem. The second place went to Al Batan, 56 Kg (Sinus x Sabha) owned by Tareq Abdulhady Al Qabtany trained by M. AlMasodi. Shadad AlThalith, 56 kg (Awaj x Frial Al Shaqab) owned by Abdullatif bin Mohamad Aldoghan, trained by K. AlJegiman was third.

The third section of the 1600 m race was reserved for locally bred three-year-old horses. The winner was Badiat Awam 54 Kg (Al Nasr x Raakesah) owned by Ahmad bin Naser AlKhamees and trained by A. Alfajr. In second place was Noof, 54 Kg (Kash de Nerak x Ghalia) bred and owned by Abdul Rahman bin Ali Albrabem and trained by R. Albrabem. The third place went to Almazyoon, 56
