Located in Brittany, on the West coast of France, the city of Lamballe welcomed a regional show event followed by its first national Ecaho C competition, The Breizh Arabian Horse Show. The city and the region invested a lot of energy to protect their beautiful horse stud right in Lamballe's centre. Built in 1825, the stud was a perfect shrine for the Arabian horse which was celebrated during this weekend of July (17 & 18th). An exhibition organized in the recently renovated stables presented paintings as well as photographs by Cecile Marleix about "fantasia".

The championship was dominated by the horses from Shah Arabians, bred and owned by Mr and Mrs Sardar, who won the Junior female gold and bronze medals with Shah Dokhtar (WH Kanebo MS x Shah Malilah by Kais) and Shah Mabrouka (WH Kanebo MS x Shah Massouma by OM Extreem), the silver and bronze medals for the junior males thanks to Shah Dalir (Hjlayyil Ramadan x Debora par Balaton) and Shah Djahan (WH Kanebo MS x Asa Vida by Akaban) and the bronze medal for Shah Adel (WH Justice x Astara by Abakan) in the senior male championship.

Shaolin de Nejaia (Mystic Image x Avalon Krystal by Ekla de Gargassan) won junior male gold medal, So Pretty (MB Capitziou x MB Naomi by Padrons Kadar) won senior female gold and AS Kayro (Pystadel x Saskia by Plakat) who the senior male gold medal. Various trophies were also awarded during the championship. To honor the Arabian horse as a riding horse, a beautiful performance by two lady riders on music with an oriental dancer was given to the public on Saturday evening, while on Sunday ridden classes presented a work both technical and esthetical paying tribute to the Arabian horse.
