Arabian Horse B-International Show

At the end Chairman of the organising committee of the Supreme Championship Sheikh Hisham Basha had a speech that everybody are pleased and happy to celebrate Today's 9th Makkah Championship in Saudi for the beauty of the Arabian Horse.

One of the highest goals of this Championship is to emphasise the Arab and Islamic identity and consolidate the various aspects of our National Heritage and to try to maintain and preserve the same to remain ever-present for the future generations.

It is known that the Arabian Peninsula, is the home land of horses since ancient times, and horses are loved by the Arabs for their beautiful look and shape and this is why the Arabs became very friendly with the horses in times of peace and war, in their travel and stay and in their joy and sorrow. The horse and its place in the Koran and the Hadith, as credited with the Islamic conquests and spread the message of Islam throughout the globe, by the grace and favour of Almighty God.

The history logs with Pride and honour attention of our wise leadership supported by God, represented by the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques King Salman Bin Abdul Aziz, may God preserve him horses and steward- ship, an extension of the reign of his father, Jockey Founder King Abdul Aziz, God bless him and his blessed fathers, who is fond of equestrian and rides since his youth. They were his companions in the conquests and his heroic tours, a line of which page is full of tournaments and con- quests, was the fruit of the Kingdom of unified sprawling, so it was for the horses at the same special position, assumed the care and attention after the country's stability, and handed down in the souls of his sons and grandsons .Your Highness honouring this day, is a true reflection of that.

I am very thankful and estimating His Royal Highness the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques adviser Emir of Makkah Prince Khaled al-Faisal, for his care and honouring our celebration of this occasion and thanks to all who contributed in organising and sponsoring this Tournament from individuals ,companies, and all the working committees, and special thanks and appreciation of King Abdul Aziz Center for Arabian horses in Dirab . I also extend my thankfulness to my brothers the owners of the Arabian Horses participating in this Event. □
