The first edition of the Ecaho affiliated National C Show in Carmagnola in the province of Turin was a great success. I can say with pleasure that this show was organized by the Organizing Committee coordinated by Mr. Daniele Giaccone and formed by a team of people related to the institutions of the city of Carmagnola; first and foremost by the Municipality of Carmagnola with the Councillor for Agriculture Mr. Roberto Gerbino and the collaboration of the Civil Defense, the Red Cross, the Volunteers of the Green. Everyone actively participated in the best success of the event. All tireless and always present. This town with almost 30 thousand inhabitants proved that even a small show of C-class Arabian horses can become a great celebration both for those who participate in and for the whole country. Which then the show was not so small: 42 horses in the boxes, plus the two American-style (Western) riders who offered the large audience present a demonstration of how versatile the Arabian thoroughbred horse can be.

The surrounding area is rich in green spaces such as the Gerbasso Woods, Cascina Vigna Park (where, among other things, the local Civic Museum of Natural History is located) and the Lanca di San Michele Special Nature Reserve near the Po River. It is also world-famous for its bell pepper cultivation; just think that for 75 years there has even been a regional competition for the best bell pepper grower. And in September, the famous Pepper Festival, an event that is now nationally renowned.

The event was held precisely within the Vigna Park, a large green lung equipped with children's playgrounds but also a fabulous bar and restaurant. The Organizing Committee invited three judges, one of them from Abu Dhabi capital of the United Arab Emirates (UAE) Mr. Zayed Saad Alqahtani, then Mrs. Sylvie Eberhard from Germany and Dr. Vet. Laura Mascagna from Italy. Also all-Italian were the members of the Disciplinary Committee: Mrs. Barbara Raso, Mr. Alessandro Marino and Dr. Vet. Emanuela Valle. Ring Master Dr. Vet. Gianpaolo Teobaldelli vice president of ANICA.

Exceptional speaker Mr. Daniele Giaccone who very professionally explained (something that rarely happens) to the audience present the modalities of the 5 scores and the system by which they are assigned. Needless to say, one rarely sees such an attentive and assiduous audience. The show took place over the days of May 25-26, with perfect timing, starting at 10 a.m. the various categories followed each other. On Saturday afternoon, at the end of the preliminary categories Dr. Sonja Cimini gave a lecture for the company MSD (Animal Health Segrate - Mi) on the importance of vaccination for the health of horses of humans and the environment. On Sunday afternoon the final championship was held where gold, silver and bronze medals were awarded. The champions were awarded with great emphasis by the members of the City Council, Mayor Mrs. Ivana Gaveglio opening with the Yearling Filly Championship. Following the example of the Mayor were Mr Roberto Gerbino, Mr Giuseppe Giglio and Mrs Anna Appendino.

Thanks go to all the staff present at the event, but especially to Daniele Giaccone who introduced the first Arabian horse show to the city of Carmagnola. I myself am grateful and honored to have had the opportunity to be a participant with our magazine Tutto Arabi in this beautiful event. We also thank DJ Tommaso Chiotti who entertained us with good music, the catering provided by the restaurant "Trattoria della Vigna," and as always the streaming broadcast by Arabian Essence. Now I leave you with the pictures magically taken by our photographer Sunny Sassudelli. □
