The last weekend of September, Arabian Horse enthusiasts from all over the world gather together at the Aachen Laurenzberger Rennverein, Albert Vahle Hall and Dressage Stadium in Aachen to experience one of the finest Arabian Horse shows worldwide.

This year, the All Nations Cup is celebrating its 39th anniversary. Judges for this edition were Urs Aeschbacher, Gregory Gallun, Lukas Gozdziński, Dr. Mohamed Machmoum, Luiz Rocco, Jonas Salzmänn, Christine Valette and Dr. Gianmarco Aragno. For Dr. Gianmarco Aragno, who judged the All Nations Cup for the 11th time, this was his last edition to judge. Because of his 75th birthday this year, the ECAHO rules state that he no longer can judge Int. B, A- of title shows. He was officially thanked for judging the All Nations Cup for 11 times and for everything he did for ECAHO and the shows. The world will miss his knowledge and expertise!

The classes started on Saturday with the yearling fillies. A nice class with high quality fillies. Winner of the first class of yearling fillies was the big moving Karma al Shiraa (RFI Unique x Eralda) bred and owned by Al Shiraa Stables from the UAE.
