The last weekend of October was reserved for the European Championships. The best Arabian horses in Europe all came together at the beautiful grounds of Scuderie Borgo La Caccia in Bedizzole, Italy, perfectly organized by Anica. President Mr. Vincenzo Pellegrini and his team from Anica did a great effort to make the show something special. The showground was already the host of the Italian Nationals and proved to be an excellent accommodation for a title show as well. The stables were strong and spacious with automatic drinkers and good ventilation for the horses. As the showground was very large, the horses were located a bit away from the showing, giving rest and quiet to the stables. With its location close to the Garda lake, there was a wide variety on hotels and restaurants. Notable was the variety on sponsors that was supporting the event, many from Europe. Main sponsor of the event, was another title show, the great Katara Show - Qatar. It is important to see the support of middle eastern organizations on a show organized only for the European breeders. With 94 horses entered, coming from all over
