The 'PENINSULA HORSES WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP FESTIVAL' is a global event that saw the world's best Arabian horses competing in two categories: Straight Egyptians and Arabians carrying the desert heritage, the Desert Bred. Approximately 150 Straight Egyptians and at least 50 Desert Bred competed and showed their pure beauty and elegance in the beautiful setting of Nofa, near the capital Riyadh in Saudi Arabia. The Festival welcomed a diverse audience, which included not only breeders and owners but also families who, on a green lawn surrounded by the sandy hues of the Saudi desert, were able to enjoy the stands of perfumes, typical clothing and admire paintings by local artists and craftsmen displaying their work outdoors. Four days were dedicated to the Festival, the first, on Wednesday 11 October, saw the Desert Bred Class Championship. This breed of beautiful horses is unique to Saudi Arabia, a true desert heritage that local breeders have maintained over the centuries and tried to pass down for generations. The most important exponent among the breeders of this line is certainly HRHP Ahmad Bin Abdulaziz Bin Abdurahman Al Saud, who with His Athbah Stud has developed one of the finest collections of Saudi Desert Bred horses on Earth, which again this year gave Him five gold medals and one silver medal.

The next day started with the Straight Egyptian classes, the judges and staff were the same as those who judged the Desert Breds: Dr. Francesco Santoro (Italy), Mrs. Anna Stojanowska (Poland), Dr. Nashaat Hegazy (Egypt), Mr. Jerzy Bialobok (Poland), Mr. Mohamed Badrawy (Egypt), Mr. Khalil Ebrahim Ali Al Mukhtar (Bahrain), Mr. Dhari Al Mejhem (Kuwait), Mr. Seaf Mohammed Al Hajri (Qatar) and Mr. Majed Abdullah Al-Mehyawi (Saudi Arabia).

The Disciplinary Committee consisted in: Dr. Vet. Bassem Badr (Saudi Arabia), Dr. Vet. Mohamed Mohsen (Egypt), Eng. Obada Ahmad Zabadi (Saudi Arabia) and Mr. Saad Alqasim (Saudi Arabia).

Ring Master was Mr. Waleed Al Haddadi (Saudi Arabia). Music by Mr. Saher Barakat and the wonderful voice that accompanied us for the four days was Mrs. Sarah Al-Akoor.

Orchestrating all this movement of horses and people from 23 different countries were two people to whom compliments are due from the entire staff of our Tutto Arabi and Desert Heritage magazine, the only one magazine in the world of its kind entirely dedicated to the Straight Egyptian horse: these two people are Mr. Emad Al Rashed, Chairman & Organiser LTD Executive Manager and Mr. Sami Mamdouh, Project Manager. They certainly had a great staff that made the event a flawless success.

The show in fact flowed fast and the temperature of 40°, although dry during the day, became more and more acceptable for horses and handlers around 5pm, the time when horses started to be brought into the ring. On the first day, at the end of the 9 female classes, there was an auction dedicated to the sale of horses from local breeders. Another auction dedicated to art was held on Saturday afternoon, where a auctioneer displayed paintings in the centre of the ring and bid after bid sold a good number of them. Another spectacle that was, to say the least, stupendous and in my opinion rich in culture and tradition was the parade of the typical costumes of the Bedouins and warriors who in ancient times crossed and fought in the Saudi deserts.

The photos accompanying this report are by Mrs. Giulia Bontempi and Ali Almomin.

PENINSULA HORSES WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP FESTIVAL is a well-run show and above all it is a global event that will surely have a future. We at Tutto Arabi would like to thank all those who took part with us in the success of another important event in the world of Arabian Horses. We would like to thank the organisers and sponsors whose contributions always make it possible to improve each show. Thanks to Mrs. Dana who supported the media group and thanks again to Mr. Emad Al Rashed and Mr. Sami Mamdouh.
