

European CHAMPIONSHIP 2019

by Giorgia Mauri ■ photos by Alessio Azzali

The last weekend of October, Arabian horse breeders and enthusiasts met together at wonderful modern facility of Il Paradiso Horse Center in Sommacampagna close to Verona to enjoy some of the most beautiful Arabian horses at European Championship 2019. All was very well organized by Anica.

The organization created a super atmosphere with decorations and statues borrowed from Fondazione Arena di Verona. The Romeo and Giulietta's statue was used for the movie Romeo and Giulietta and the Egyptian Sphinxes were designed for the very famous opera Traviata by the master Franco Zeffirelli. The city of Verona dedicated during the month of October some events in different locations to the Director who worked and improved the importance of Arena di Verona. As a testimonial of that Mrs Cecilia Gasdia, Supervisor of Fondazione Arena di Verona and well known soprano who also performed under direction of Zeffirelli, was present to pay her homage to the European Championship's guests awarding a category and reminding the importance of the biggest open air theater in the world, Arena di Verona. In the show arena was also present one of the oldest Olive trees in the world. Before the event a lot of comments were not so positive as the location was new and no one knew Sommacampagna and the Center. But we must say that once again Anica showed that Italy deserves to continue to organize the European Championship. The decision to move the show there was really clever as the location was perfect and the entire team of Anica dedicated all the efforts to let the participants happy. A special thanks goes to ANICA Board and to Office for their deep commitment on making possible such a beautiful event. The speaker Mr Erik Blaak did as always an amazing job. A special thanks goes also to all people involved in technical details as Mr Massimo Meldo. This year was also the debut of the first European Championship with restriction. Following the new ECAHO Rule for European Championship only European Citizens were allowed to show horses and in case of leasing, the leasing should have been terminated 1 year before the event. These restriction gave a lot of worries to Organizers who worked very hard to find sponsors and with a lot of efforts at the end they collected just 50.000 euro. So once again thanks to Anica which with great economic contribution coming from all Italian members organized a stunning show with 120 horses entered. We personally thought as Tutto Arabi that was already a success to reach 90/100 entries but the result went over the imagination. We also didn't expect this number of horses and their quality, in every class you can see how the European breeders are improving year by year investing a lot of money in breedings. Our world is a small world and we should continue to give hope to breeders. For sure the decision by ECAHO and its President Mr Jaroslav Lacina is a goodwill for future. At the European Championship this year we saw many famous and important European Farms and also some small breeder who had in some case success. In this kind of shows there is still a possibility for everybody and we believe we need to support the idea that it's not necessary to be a big farm to reach the excellence and be champion. We are sure that next years European Championship will have more sponsorships as it deserved. The whole event was available worldwide thanks to Arabian Essence Web TV where you can also find the detailed results with judges as well as all classes, awards and special events video coverage.
