17th Qatar international arabian horse show

The unmissable annual event in Qatar, featuring the International Championship, took place on March 25-27 at the impressive facilities of the Racing & Equestrian Club in Doha, the traditional host of this event.

Supported by H.H. Sh. Abdulla Bin Khalifa Al Thani, the event was carefully organized by a team that planned everything down to the tiniest detail and managed to provide great show and strong emotions to those who were able to attend. The organizing committee consisted of Sh. Abdulaziz Bin Khalid Al Thani, President of the High Committee, Sh. Mohammed Bin Faleh Al Thani, Vice President of the same committee, Mr. Sami Jassim Al Boenain, Director of the organization, Mr. Majid Nasser Al Kaabi, Show Director, Mr. Khalid Safar Al Hajri, general coordinator, Mr. Mohammed Gethan Al Menhali, administrative director, Mr. Mohammed Salem Al Abdullah, PR Manager and Abdulaziz

Jassim Al-Boenain, Yousof Mahmoud, Rashid Safar Al Hajri, Salem Sultan Al Hmaid, Mohammed Enzan Al Naimi, Sven Svensson, Abdulaziz Abdulrahman Al Subaie, Mohamed Ali Abd El Ghafar, Hossam Akawi, Gudrum Waiditschka, Mahmoud Ibrahim Abd El Rahman and Mansour Reda Ismail. Last but certainly not least the omnipresent Mohammed Mahmoud Sharif, who is always ready to help with any request. Thanks to all these people for the excellent result of this seventeenth edition.

This year, the atmosphere was really pleasant, just like that of a few years back, when the Qatar show was one of the most awaited events of the year. Once again this year there were many international guests, who were accommodated in one of Doha's best hotels and waited on for every need. They were coming from Europe, United States and Arabian countries. Worth mentioning was also the presence of important horses from Oman, United Arab Emirates and Saudi Arabia which enriched the scrumptious menu with even more succulent "ingredients". The many guests were accompanied to a visit of the studs that have made history in Qatar, where they were able to see the various breeding approaches thanks to which Qatar is one of the leading countries on the PBA scene. Tradition and pure breeding of the straight Egyptian line are the key features of important stud farms such as Al Rayyan, Al Nasser and Al Naif. Qatar is one of the few countries that care so much for the straight Egyptian breed and pursue this type of breeding with such tenacity. Starting from their passion for straight Egyptian lines, few studs have managed to cross-breed various lines and obtain such remarkable results at international level such as the Al Shaqab Stud; its feathers in the cap are the three stallions Marwan Al Shaqab Gazal al Shaqab and the extraordinary straight Egyptian Al Adeed Al Shaqab. The Al Shaqab stud went even further and became the promoter of a colossal and futuristic project for the equestrian world, which is about to be completed in record-breaking times. Such a unique and exclusive project has led to the creation of a proper horse academy, which has very ambitious plans for the future. If the embryo-transfer technique has had a fairly limited use so far, thanks to this project and that currently underway at Al Rayyan it will become very popular. Large space will be devoted to the study and treatment of diseases thanks to a state-of-the-art clinic, to the knowledge of traditions thanks to a museum and a library and to young people through riding courses and riding schools. Going back to the show, the competition saw the participation of over 130 horses at the conformation show, presented by handlers from Europe and America. Large space was also devoted to the Liberty Class, the Ridden Class and riding.

The jury was composed by Dr. Francesco Santoro (IT), Mr. Peter Upton (UK), Mr. Jerzy Biolobok (PL), Mrs. Titti Gagliani (IT) and Mrs. Sylvie Eberhardt (DE). They did an excellent job, under a relentless sun that shone constantly, and their scores were always quite consistent.

The disciplinary commission was composed by Dr. Gisel Traud Berger (DE) and Mrs. Barbara Pfistner (CH).

Opening the games of this successful edition was the category of yearling fillies, divided into two sections given the high number of entries.

*With regards to section "A", the top two places went to two fillies from Saudi Arabia. The first place went to the bay Sara Al Mohammadiyah (Marwan Al Shaqab x ZT Maghan), a typey filly with a snub nose bred by the famous handler Michael Byatt and by the Orr family in the USA, now owned by H.H. Prince Abdullah Bin Fahad Al Saud (KSA). She was already named Champion at the first Al Khalediah International Horse Show in January, on that occasion presented by Frank Sponle. The second place went to another magnificent daughter of Marwan Al Shaqab (x PSYX Summerain H), the chestnut Halab Al Khalediah*, bred and owned by H.H. Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud, Al Khalediah Stables, presented by Philippe Hosay. Third place for a local product, a lovely daughter of Ashaal Al Rayyan (x Asraar Al Shaqab), the gray Sehaba Al Shaqab*, well presented by Giacomo Capacci, bred and owned by the Al Shaqab Stud (QAT).

The winner of section "B" in the same category of yearling fillies was the Al Shaqab Stud (QAT), which had its products on all the three steps of the podium, three wonderful fillies from its own breeding program. The gray Wijdan Al Shaqab* (Al Adeed Al Shaqab x Amwaj Al Shaqab), presented by the resilient Michael Byatt came top. She was followed by another daughter of Al Adeed Al Shaqab (x Mesada Al Shaqab), Nouf Al Shaqab*, well presented by Robin Rivier, while the third place went to the chestnut Shollah Al Shaqab* (Marwan Al Shaqab x Shahirat Al Shaqab) presented by Giacomo Capacci.

The second category, that of two-year-old fillies, was also divided into sections. In section "A", clear victory for the beautiful gray Abha Al Shaqab* (Abha Fadil x Abha Galati), one of the many fillies produced by the expert work of Marieta Salas, an important breeder from Spain, now owned by the Al Shaqab Stud. She was presented by Giacomo Capacci. Coming in second was the bay Sweet Caroline LL* (Legacy Of Fame x Carolina Moon OA), presented by Frank Sponle and owned by the Ajman Stud of H.H. Prince Ammar Bin Humaid Al Nuaimi (UAE). Another bay filly finished in third place, Ghayat Al Khalidiah* (Aja

*There were no surprises in the naming of the winner of section "B" in the category of two-year-old fillies. The World Champion 2007 *Layan Al Khalediah (Dakharo x Padrons Amour) confidently obtained the top place on the podium thanks to her undisputed charm, correctness, the finely sculpted head and her great type. It was not by chance that she was awarded four 20s and four 19.5 in type and head and neck. She is owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H. Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA) and was presented by Philippe Hosay. Excellent score but not enough to challenge the podium for the second winner, *Mayyasa Al Shaqab (Al Adeed Al Shaqab x Albambra El Dakar) presented by Michael Byatt for the Al Shaqab Stud. The lovely bay Bint Helwah (Gazal Al Shaqab x Bona S E) owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H. Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA) obtained the third place.

*The third category, which saw the competition of three-year-old fillies, had as many as 14 entries. The top place thanks to a remarkable score went to the beautiful gray *Om El Bernadette (Om El Shahmaan x Om El Benedict), bred in the USA and now owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H. Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA). She was presented by Philippe Hosay. Following an excellent performance, the second place was awarded to another lovely filly, *PS Rose Of Marwan (Marwan Al Shaqab x PS Rose Mahogany) which obtained very good general scores and was well presented by Giacomo Capacci. Competing in the fourth category were nine yearling colts. The remarkable *Salman Al Khalediah (F Shamaal x Thee Evening Star) obtained the first place thanks to his excellent show and his fantastic conformation. This magnificent colt is owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H. Prince Khaled

Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA). In second place, with excellent general scores, was the typey bay colt sired by Gazal Al Shaqab, *Naaman Al Shaqab (x Evening Starr) well presented by Giacomo Capacci and owned by the Al Shaqab Stud (QAT). Good performance also for the colt in third place sired by Ashhal Al Rayyan, *Nayef Al Shaqab (x Naima Al Shaqab), owned by Mr. Mohammed Abdul Rahman Al Yousef (KSA).

There were only seven entries in the category of two-year-old colts. The undisputed winner thanks to a very high score, a good show and the marked movement that enraptured the spectators was the gray *AJ Dinar (WH Justice x Deska HJE) well presented by Frank Sponle and owned by the Ajman Stud of H.H. Prince Ammar Bin Humaid Al Nuaimi (UAE).

He was followed by *El Palacio VO (Al Lahab x El Dorada), a gray colt bred in the United States and now owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H. Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA). The third place went to a lovely bay colt owned by the Royal Oman Stables,

*Radad (Koronec x Yasmeena), well presented by Franck Cibois.

The category of three-year-old colts had only six participants but offered a fantastic show thanks to the high quality of the competitors. Those in the three top places obtained good general scores and the winners were determined by a relatively small margin. First among all of them was the gray Menphis (El Amin x SA Misha Apal) presented by Frank Sponle and owned by the Ajman Stud of H.H. Prince Ammar Bin Humaid Al Nuaimi (UAE). The second place went to another famous colt, known for his victories at the most important shows: Baanderos (Marwan Al Shaqab x HB Bessolea) owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H. Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA) was presented by Philippe Hosay. Another son of Marwan Al Shaqab, and another popular horse for his victories, obtained the third place. We are talking about the twice Champion in Aachen Mardigras JMF* (x JMF Daretodream) presented by Michael Byatt for the Al Shaqab Stud (QAT).

With regards to the category of mares aged 4 to 6, thirteen wonderful stars entered the ring and made the judges' task even more difficult. Just one look and you were mesmerized, it was very difficult to choose the ones for the podium. First with a score that matched her beauty was the World Reserve Champion Filly 2007, the enchanting chestnut Venetzia* (Versace x Giavanna) with her chiseled head, owned by the Al Shaqab Stud (Qat), and wonderfully presented by Giacomo Capacci. Second by a narrow margin was another mare owned by the Al Shaqab stud, presented by Michael Byatt and coming from the Spanish stud Ses Planes of Marieta Salas: the beautiful Abha Myra* (Marwan Al Shaqab x ZT Ludjkalba) did an excellent performance. The mare that obtained the third place was truly magnificent but on this occasion did not appear to be in her best condition and did not move at her best. We are talking about the recent European and Dubai Champion Athenaa* (Ashhal Al Rayyan x Ass Windi), multiwinner of the most important shows in the world and a "thorn in the side" that always gives other competitors a run for their money. Presented by Philippe Hosay, Athenaa is owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H. Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA).

In the category of mares aged 7 to 10, the mare that confidently won the top place with remarkable scores is well known to Arabian horse lovers. The gray Eagleridge Passionata* (Sanadik El Shaklan x River Oak Dimity), recently named Reserve Champion at the Riyadh Show, performed magnificently presented by Frank Sponle. She is owned by the Ajman Stud of H.H. Prince Ammar Bin Humaid Al Nuaimi (UAE). The challenge that followed, way down in terms of score, was a family affair that terminated with a tie resolved by just one point difference in type. Both mares performed well, the typey and snub-nosed Amira Al Nasser* (Mujahid x Bint Saida Al Nasser) obtained the second place followed by Aliah Al Nasser* (Imperial Mahzeer x Dyn Aliyah), third. Both were well presented by Glenn Schoukeens and are owned by Sh. Nawaf Bin Nasser Al Thani (QAT).

Few but good ones were the mares aged more than 11. The winner over everyone else was Om El Shadina* (Sanadik El Shaklan x Om El Shaina) Champion in Menton owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H. Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA). She was followed by the chestnut Psynecia SPA* (Padrons Psyche x Fairview Amira Nikit) owned by Al Shaqab Stud (Qat) and presented by Giacomo Capacci; coming in third was Julianna El Jamaal (Ali Jamaal x NV Justa Dream) owned by Mr. Saad Al Dehaimi.

As it is often the case, the young stallions aged 4 to 6 proved their physical prowess, communicating strong emotions to those who were lucky to watch them. First with fantastic general scores was the multiwinner in Europe, with excellent scores in type and head and neck, Marquis Cahr* (Marwan Al Shaqab x Rohara Magnifica) owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H. Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA). Second was BS Paparazzi* (Kar Papageno x Sivka), a stallion bred by Mr. Thomas Mayer and owned by Mr. Abdul Mohsen Bin Abdulmalik Al Alshaikh. He was well presented by Marius Lęwinski. Another stallion that is well known in Europe was awarded the third place. Bred in France, the typey IM Bayyard Cathare* (Padrons Image x Shamilah Bagheera) showed off led by Franck Cibois and is owned by the Royal Cavarly of Oman, an emerging stud that is collecting excellent show and breeding horses.

*With all the respect for all the others, the eleventh category was the one everyone was waiting for and the loud cheering was not heard anywhere else. The reason why is easily explained. It is rare to find such a wealth of important names in one catalogue and in the same category, if we exclude the world championship. Despite the withdrawals of important horses, which had been included in the catalogue but eventually did not take part, when the six competitors entered the ring it felt – dare I say – as if you were at the finals of the World Cup of Football. Thanks to the highest score in the whole competition, the winner was the charming *Al Adeed Al Shaqab (Ansata Halim Shah x Sundar Alisayyah), there are no adjectives to describe him. With all his innate charm, he was able once again to capture all the attention. Superbly presented by Michael Byatt, Al Adeed is owned by the Al Shaqab Stud (QAT) if anyone did not know that... Superb was also the performance of the second best, another straight Egyptian stallion, but competing against a legend is never easy for anyone. We are talking about the chestnut *F Shamaal (Maysoun x Saramena), which performed very well presented by Philippe Hosay and is owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H. Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA). The third place went to another straight Egyptian stallion, Jandeh Al Naif (Ansata Shalim x Ansata Nile Gypsy), presented by Glenn Jacobs and owned by Sh. Abdulla Bin Nasser Al Ahmed Al Thani (QAT).

*Absorbing as usual was the final championship, which did not skimp on emotions. The first to be scored by the jury were the fillies. Winner of the Champion title was *Layan Al Khalediah owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H. Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA). Presented by Philippe Hosay, she is more beautiful every time we see her. The Reserve Title was assigned to *Abha Al Shaqab (Abha Fadil x Abha Galati) owned by the Al Shaqab Stud (QAT) and presented by Giacomo Capacci. Top five were also *Wijdan Al Shaqab of the Al Shaqab Stud (QAT), *Sara Al Mohammadiyah owned by H.H. Prince Abdullah Bin Fahad Al Saud (KSA) and Om El Bernadette owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H.

*Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA). *AJ Dinar owned by the Ajman Stud of H.H. Prince Ammar Bin Humaid Al Nuaimi (UAE) and presented by Frank Sponle was named Champion Colts. The Reserve Title went to *Salman Al Khalediah owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H. Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA) and presented by Philippe Hosay. Top five: *Baanderos owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H. Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA), *Naaman Al Shaqab owned by Al Shaqab Stud (QAT) and Menphis owned by the Ajman Stud of H.H. Prince Ammar Bin Humaid Al Nuaimi (UAE).

*The title of Champion Mare went to the magnificent *Venetzia owned by the Al Shaqab Stud (QAT) and presented by Giacomo Capacci. The Reserve Title was awarded to *Eagleridge Passionata owned by the Ajman Stud of H.H. Prince Ammar Bin Humaid Al Nuaimi (UAE) and presented by Frank Sponle. Top five were *Om El Shadina owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H. Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA), *Abha Myra owned by the Al Shaqab Stud (QAT) and Panarea By Palawan owned by the Ajman Stud of H.H. Prince Ammar Bin Humaid Al Nuaimi (UAE).

*The coveted title of Champion Stallion went, as expected, to *Al Adeed Al Shaqab owned by the Al Shaqab Stud (QAT) and presented by Michael Byatt. The Reserve Title went to *Marquis Cahr owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H. Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA) and presented by Philippe Hosay. Top five: *BS Paparazzi owned by Mr. Abdul Mohsen Bin Abdulmalik Al Alshaikh, *F Shamaal owned by the Al Khalediah Stables of H.H. Prince Khaled Bin Sultan Bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud (KSA) and IM Bayyard Cathare owned by the Royal Cavalry of Oman.

As usual, we were overwhelmed by the hospitality and friendliness that Doha gives every year to all those who take part in this event, which has already become an unmissable appointment.

The rendezvous is for the 18th edition in 2009. We are confident that you will not want to miss it, exactly like us!
