The International Days of Arabian Horses attracted this year again many Purebred Arabian breeders and owners to come to Ströhen to exhibit their pride and joy. The Ismer stud invited Purebred Arabians from all over the world to the B-show on 9th and 10th July 2011 which is traditionally preceded by a national C-show.

The C-show judges Khalifa Al Foorah, UA, and Dr. Astrid von Velsen-Zerweck, DE, had already on Saturday the agony of choice between various high qualitative Purebreds registered in Germany.

The C-show Junior Female Championship was won by the wonderful Jaipur filly Matahari CF owned and bred by Cafra Arabians, DE. The two-year-old grey colt Muranas Jameel owned and bred by Gestüt Murana, DE, became Junior Male Champion. The female championship silver medal went to Matthias Reuschels Zoya El Esteem which was bred by Joanna Nowicka, PL; and Amarije Ibn Afgani, owned and bred by Gestüt Gut Alemich, DE, was named Reserve Junior Male Champion.

The Senior Female Champion was Maharani CF, owned and bred as the Junior Female Champion by Cafra Arabians. The Senior Female silver medal went to Khasinka owned by Matthias Reuschel, DE, and bred by Walter Koch, DE; the bronze medal was won by Princess S who is owned and was bred by Jürgen Schaefer, DE. Due to few entries in the C-show, there was unfortunately just one participant in the Senior Male Championship named A.F. Umoyo who consequently became Senior Male Champion, nevertheless the stallion owned and bred by Arabian Fantasie, NL, convinced judges and the audience by his charisma.

On the sunny Saturday 9th July afternoon the B-show started in Ströhen viewed by a grand audience. The show was judged by Dr.

Gianmarco Aragno, IT, Murilo Bueno Kammer, BR, Dr. Mohamed Machmoum, MA, and Dr. Marek Trela, PL.

The filly Noor Kwestura, owned and bred by Ajman Stud, UAE, won the yearling filly class and the Junior Female Championship. Noor Kwestura by Aja Justified is from the dam Kwestura who is one of the most successful Arabian mare; she won titles like Nations Cup Champion, World Champion Mare, and Senior Champion Mare at the Dubai Show 2010. The class winner of the three-year-old-fillies Al Inaya owned and bred by Al Hambra Arabians, AT, became Reserve Junior Female Champion. Junior Male Champion is the yearling Emerald J bred by Jadem Arabians, BL, and owned by Al-Jalawiyah Stud, KSA, who also won his class. Maharani HDM owned by Al Mohamadia Stud, KSA, bred by Haras Del Mar, USA, is named Reserve Junior Male Champion.

Ajman Stud, UAE, owns the Senior Female Champion Emira bred by Michalow Stud, PL, who first won her class of ten-year-old and older mares and then topped her success with the champion title. Reserve Female Champion is Magora owned by Al Khalediah Stables, KSA, and bred in Sweden by Blommeröd Arab Stuteri. Magora already won titles in international shows in Egypt, Dubai, Borgloon, Blommeröd, Aachen and Paris.

The incredible Nijem Ibn Eternity VI won the Senior Male Championship. The stallion was bred by M. Smits, BE, and is owned by Al Khalediah Stables, KSA. Altis owned by Hany Edrees, KSA, and Turban Stud, DK, and bred by Krzysztof Gozdziński, PL, won the four-to-six-year-old stallion class and crowned his success by the Reserve Male Champion title.

The Ismer family, the judges, and the big show audience was blessed with splendid weather. The wonderfully beautiful Purebred Arabians were coordinated by ringstuart Sven Svensson, SE. The great organization, the fair judgment, and the amazing atmosphere in Ströhen made the show an unforgettable event for all participants.
