by Talitha Bakker ■ photos by Herinke Hoermann, SiR

On August 2nd until August 4th, the famous castle of Chantilly was the decoration of the 2019 AHO Breeders' Championships Europe, organized by AHO. Judges for the Breeders Championships were Mr Jerzy Bialobok from Poland, Mr Lukas Gozdziński from Poland, Mr Lacina Jaroslav from the Czech Republic, Mr Fausto Scanzi from Italy and Mrs Marianne Tengstedt from Denmark. A wonderful event for the European breeders. One of the terms is that the breeder is still the owner of the horse and the breeder must live in Europe. There was also prizemoney to be won of 1000 euro's for each horse qualifying within the top 7 of each class.

The event started with the qualification classes on Saturday. The classes were all big filled and the day started with two nice groups of yearling fillies. The top three scored very close in points.
