ARABIAN HORSE WORLD
CHAMPIONSHIP 2021

Paris, believed to be one of the most romantic cities in the world, becomes even more magical shortly before Christmas. Since 1980, it has also been the place of pilgrimages for all Arabian horse aficionados who visit La Ville-Lumière – the City of Light for quite a different reason than to admire its astonishing architecture or to experience its undeniable charm. For more than four decades, Paris has hosted the most prestigious show for the Arabian breed, where incredible individuals compete for the coveted title of the most beautiful Arabian horse in the world. This year, the World Championships was awaited with more apprehension than ever before, due to the devastating cancellation last year. Therefore, after 41 years of its existence in the current shape and form, the whole Arabian horse world finally had the chance to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the show which, after a few years, also moved back into the old venue, Paris Expo Porte de Versailles.

This spectacular show would not be possible without the tremendous effort of the whole organising team: the President of the Show, Jean-Luc Poulain and the Director of the Championship, Arnaud Lemoine, both from CENECA, strongly supported by Laurence Bocard, the Manager of the Show as well as Technical Advisors and Consultants, Christiane Chazel and Dominik Briot. Words of appreciation are needed here to express everybody's gratitude for making it happen despite the world-wide pandemics. With 120 tables and almost a thousand people in the VIP area, making sure that all the safety rules are followed was indeed an enormous effort.

Such a special occasion also required a carefully chosen group of judges from all over the world and thus Claudia Darius from Germany, Berengere Fayt from Belgium, Eric Gear from France, Ahmed Hamza from Egypt, Murillo Kammer from Brazil, Francesco Santoro from Italy, Tomasz Tarczynski from Poland, Marianne Tengstedt from Denmark, Terry Holmes and Joseph Polo, both from the USA, took up a tremendous task of evaluating 74 classy contenders, aspiring to become 2021 world champions. The welfare of all animals was ensured by the Disciplinary Committee made of Dr Laura Mascagna from Italy, Dr Abdel Wahab ben Ali Amira from the UAE, Jean-Bernard Kupaj and Christine Valette, both from France.

Friday – Female Classes

Each day of this significant show brings anticipation and excitement to all gathered at Paris Expo as well as to those who were not able to attend the show in person and followed the livestream provided by Arabian Essence, which also reached a record number of people this year. It was no different this time as Friday featured all the lovely ladies. The show started at 12 p.m. with two classes of yearling fillies. Class 1A began on a high note, with all four class contenders qualifying for the Sunday championship. All four fillies scored above 90 points, but it was the charismatic chestnut Perfecta Al Jassimya (Picasso Di Mar x Jazanah Al Jassimya / WH Justice), bred and owned by the Qatari Al Jassimya Farm, who won the class with a total score of 92.79 points, including 2x20 for type, 4x20 for head and neck and a 20 for movement. She was followed by another representative of Qatar, the beautiful bay Jalya AT (Mader Al Jamal x Jayda Alrabi / Majd Alrabi), the pride and joy of Al Thumama Stud, who scored one point less than the winner, receiving 'only' one 20 for type. The grey Excalibur EA daughter, Danah Pearl (x SW DA Vidica / Da Vinci FM), currently owned by Akmal Stud, came third in the qualifications, while the bay descendant of two show superstars representing Al Shiraa Stables, Iralda Al Shiraa (FA EL Rasheem x Eralda / Emerald J), closed the prize-giving ceremony of the first class. Nine high-quality contestants were presented in the next section of yearling fillies and again all of them achieved total scores of more than 90 points. The top position in the class belonged to Dubai Arabian Horse Stud and their lovely grey D Beisan (D Seraj x RAH Rosalia / Rahere). With the total score of 92.86 points, a 20 for type and another 5x20 for head and neck, D Beisan left other competitors behind. The typy grey representative of Ajman Stud, AJ Kayya (AJ Kafu x AJA Caprice / EKS Alihandro), was breathing down Beisan's neck when judges appreciated her beauty with 8x20, including 4x20 for type, 3x20 for head and neck and a 20 for her powerful animated trot. However, the total score of 92.57 points was not enough to win the class and AJ Kayya had to settle for the second position in the ranking. The other three fillies that qualified for the Yearling Fillies Championship included two bay beauties, Majeeda Al Baydaa (Marajj x Madinat Al Baydaa / RFI Farid) representing Egypt and Demasheq Alsayed (Validoro x Delight's Divah RB / Ajman Moniscione) from Saudi Arabia, separated in the ranking by the classy chestnut RDS Aphrodite (E.S. Harir x Forelock's Yaya / Psytadel), bred by Royal Dutch Arabian Stud and owned by De Cartherey Arabians from France.

The two qualifying classes featuring junior fillies were equally if not more exciting. Class 2B was taken by storm by the exotically refined daughter of Excalibur EA, the breath-taking bay RDS Exquisite (x Angelica KS / Ajman Moniscione), also bred by Royal Dutch Arabian Stud and currently owned by Al Orasia Stud from Bahrain. A beautiful round score of 93.00 points and 9x20 (4x20 for type and 5x20 for head and neck) prove that her breeders could not have chosen a better name for this excellent filly. Second place in the class belonged to another lovely Excalibur EA daughter, bred and owned by Dubai Arabian Horse Stud. The grey D Jahraa (x D Jawaher / Fa El Rasheem) received 2x20 for head and neck and a high final mark of 92.14 points. 91.57 points and one 20 for movement was the result of the dark bay representative of Klikowa Arabians from Poland. Laura KL, the daughter of Wadee Al Shaqab and Lili PS (by Ekstern), finished the class in third position. The last two qualifying places were occupied by the bay Bdour Akmal (SMA Magic One x Pepita / Ekstern), bred and owned by Akmal Stud, and the grey Despina AA (Jyar Meia Lua x Damdiyah AA / Ajman Moniscione), representing Ariela Arabians from Israel. The second section of the junior fillies was the most numerous class of the show, with 12 participants presented in the arena, all of whom received 90 points and above. The lead in the class was taken by the type and correct representant of the UAE, the grey daughter of Dominic M, Al Aryam Banafsaj (x Al Aryam Basma / Marajji), presently in the hands of Ajman Stud. Two grey maternal half-sisters, D Judi (AJ Azzam x Elle Flamenca / Ajman Moniscione) and D Fannanah (Excalibur EA x Elle Flamenca / Ajman Moniscione), both representing Dubai Arabian Horse Stud, finished the qualifying class in second and fourth position respectively. At the award-giving ceremony, the daughters of the multi champion mare Elle Flamenca were separated by the direct descendant of another legendary mare, invariably considered to be one of the best daughters of Marwan Al Shaqab, the unforgettable Abha Myra. Her three-year-old exotic grey daughter, Siwar Al Shaqab (by SMA Magic One), made her breeder and owner, the world-famous Qatari Al Shaqab Stud, happy and proud. Her final score of 92.36 points included 3x20 for type and 5x20 for head and neck. The last junior filly to qualify for the Sunday championship scored 91.79 points, including a 20 for type and another one for movement. It was the three-year-old bay Alexandra RC (Fa El Rasheem x Amabelle / Ajman Moniscione), representing the Royal Cavalry of Oman.

According to some Arabian horse aficionados, senior female classes are the most anticipated part of the show. Altogether, the two classes of senior mares featured 15 participants of such a high quality that none of them scored below 90 points. Class 3A was the well-deserved victory of the seven-year-old magnificent Mozn Albidayer (SMA Magic One x Mattaharii / Magnum Chall HVP). Bred by Albidayer Stud of the UAE and currently owned by Al Wajba Stud from Qatar, the snow-white beauty bewitched the judges who generously gave her the maximum possible marks (7x20) for type and slightly lower scores (6x20) for head and neck, which resulted in an amazing total of 93.36 points. The second place was awarded to the beautiful bay daughter of Wadee Al Shaqab, the six-year-old Belladonna AT (x Om El Bellatrix / Om El Shahmaan), proudly representing Qatar and Al Thumama Stud. Bella, as she is affectionately called by her owners, received 2x20 for type, a 20 for head and neck and a total score of 92.93 points. Another snow-white beauty with a high final mark of 92.36 points and one 20 for type, head and neck and movement came third in the class ranking. It was the five-year-old daughter of Shanghai EA, TM Galileah (x Karolina / DA Lirium BMW), bred in Brazil by Jose Orlando A Teirxeira Jr. and currently owned by Bader Abab Al Subai from Kuwait. The last two places in the class that qualified for the championships were taken by the four-year-old stable companions coming from Poland. The beautiful bay Protekcja (Ekstern x Pentra / Poganin) and the classy chestnut El Bellissima (Ascot DD x Eklipyka / Ekstern), both representing Michalow State Stud, received 91.93 and 91.43 points respectively. Additionally, Protekcja earned 3x20 for her ground-covering trot, while El Bellissima received one 20, also for movement. The last class of the day finished with a decisive triumph of the fantastic flea-bitten Noft Al Nayfat (Ajman Moniscione x Eagleridge Passionata / Sanadik El Shaklan). Flying in the air throughout most of the presentation, this ten-year-old representant of Aljassimya Farm received 6x20 for type, 7x20 for head and neck and 4x20 for movement. Her truly impressive total score of 93.93 points barely surprised anyone. The next three places in the class were occupied by the Polish mares bred by Janow Podlaski State Stud. With 92.86 points, 2x20 for type, a 20 for head and neck and 4x20 for movement, the eight-year old amazing Alsa (Kahil Al Shaqab x Alameda / Wachlarz), now belonging to Hanaya Arabian Stud of Switzerland, secured the second place in the ranking. Right after Alsa came her former stable companion Euzona (Om El Bellissimo x Euzetia / Etogram), who still occupies one of the stables at her home stud. The ten-year-old ethereal Euzona enchanted the judges with her elegant trot, for which she received 4x20. With another 20 for type, she achieved a very good final mark of 92.57 points. 92.14 points and one 20 for movement was the final result of Anawera (Piaff x Altamira / Ekstern), who belongs to the same powerfully moving dam line as Alsa and now represents Suweco Stud from Czech Republic. Last but not least, the snow-white daughter of Shanghai EA, the nine-year-old typy Cap Bianca (x Arabians Blanca / Efren), bred by Ganaderia Pedro Carriedo Cubillas from Spain and owned by Alqasmiah Stud of Saudi Arabia, closed the last prize-giving ceremony of the day with the final score of 92.07 points, including 2x20 for type.

Saturday – Male Classes

After the female qualifications that lasted till late Friday afternoon, Saturday was all about the handsome boys. Again, the show started at midday with two sections of yearling colts. The first win of the day belonged to the exotically refined Lehon (Fa El Rasheem x Aragia Vanilla / Kahil Al Shaqab). Representing Qatar and Al Jassimya Farm, this beautiful bay colt received 4x20 for type, 3x20 for head and neck, another 20 for movement and the final score of 92.93 points. Second place belonged to Al Khashab Stud from Kuwait and their lovely grey Emerald J son, Ezz Alkhashab (x Malikat Al Moluk / Mameluk). Barely touching the ground during the presentation, Ezz scored 6x20 for movement. Additional 3x20 for type and 3x20 for head and neck made a very good final mark of 92.71 points. Exactly 0.50 points less and third position in the ranking was the result of D Shahhar (Excalibur EA x D Shihanah / Fa El Rasheem), bred and owned by Dubai Arabian Horse Stud. This refined grey colt received 3x20 for type and 4x20 for head and neck. Last two qualifying places in this class were occupied by the representants of Polish private breeding. The exotic bay Nahil Al Khalediah (Ghaith Al Zobair x Nawal Al Khalediah / Forteynas Magic), bred and owned by Polska AKF, entered the championship with a total score of 91.57 points, including 2x20 for type, while the representative of Regina Arabians, the elegant grey El Draco RA (Morion x El Medisa / Shanghai EA), with 90.79 points, finished the qualifications in the fifth position. In class 4B, two colts belonging to Dubai Arabian Horse Stud opened and closed the prize-giving ceremony. The top position in the ranking belonged to the exquisite grey D Sharar (D Seraj x FT Shaella / Shael Dream Desert), whose total score was exactly the same as the one of Lehon, the winner of the first yearling colts' section. The final result of 92.93 points for D Sharar was made of 6x20 for type, 4x20 for head and neck and a 20 for movement. At the other end of the class top five was his bay stable mate, D Rasel (Fa El Rasheem x Ladi Veronika / Versace), with 91.86 points in total. In between the two representants of Dubai Arabian Horse Stud, the three qualifying colts scored above 92 points. Two excellent movers qualified for the second and third place in the class ranking. The typy grey Al Duhail Al Shaqab (Fahad Al Rayyan x Hayam Al Shaqab / Marwan Al Shaqab) achieved 92.71 points for his breeder and owner, Al Shaqab Stud from Qatar. With 2x20 for type, 3x20 for head and neck and 6x20 for movement, he outrivalled the grey representant of Uruguay, LR Solo Mio (AJ Radman x LR Buena Mia / Excalibur EA), bred and owned by Estancia Las Rosas, as well as the bay contender from the UAE, Muneer KH (Fa El Rasheem x Pialena / Marajji), representing Alkaheela Arabian Horse Stud.

Class 5A for junior colts had only three participants. First and second place were occupied by two grey but completely different sons of Excalibur EA. With a very high score of 93.64 points, including 4x20 for type, 4x20 for head and neck and 3x20 for movement, RDS Armani (x Stellaris BPA / Star Ghazal), bred by Royal Dutch Arabian Stud and leased by Al Jassimya Farm, took the lead in the class. He was followed by RK Nadra (x RK Andra / EKS Alihandro), representing Shazin Societa' Agricola A R.L. from Italy, who received 92.07 points, securing the second position in the ranking. Third place with 91.50 points was the result of Razeen Al Nasser (QR Marc x Remal Al Nasser / Ashhal Al Rayyan), representing Qatar and Al Nasser Stud. Class 5B was dominated by the progeny of the famous Fa El Rasheem as four out of five contenders were sired by this fashionable stallion. Two three-year-old bay colts bred by Dubai Arabian Horse Stud landed at the top of the ranking. The exotically refined D Mezyan (x D Mazaia / Royal Colours), presently the pride and joy of Al Sheikh Stud from Palestine, secured the first position in the class with a spectacular score of 93.43 points, including the maximum marks for type and 5x20 for head and neck. His main competitor, D Sheimaz (x Ladi Veronika / Versace), received 6x20 for type and 3x20 for head and neck, which resulted in the final score of 92.64 points. Another three-year-old bey son of Fa El Rasheem, Mutabahi Al Hawajer (x ZT Magrumi / ZT Magnanimus), received maximum marks for his exotically refined head and swan-like neck, which gave him third position in the class with the round 92.00 points. 90.57 points was the final result of the fourth Fa El Rasheem son that qualified for the Junior Colt Championship. Rasheeb (x Eurobelle KA / QR Marc) finished the qualifications ahead of the only grey colt in the class. Pegaze J (Shiraz De Lafon x Paris J / Emerald J), bred by Jadem Arabians of Belgium and owned by Jose Musetti, received 90.21 points in total.

The two senior male classes were not particularly crowded but still pretty exciting as all five stallions scored above 92 points. Class 6A turned out to be very successful for the four-year-old representative of Kuwait. The type and refined snow-white Harbi Al Adwan (Asfoor Al Waab x Wadha Al Adwan / Fayad Alfayyad), bred and owned by Adwan Ateej Basheer Al Adwani, received 5x20 for type, 6x20 for head and neck, 2x20 for movement and the total score of 93.14 points, outshining the class favourite, the remarkable Raoud Albidayer (SMA Magic One x DL Marielle / Marwan Al Shaqab). Representing Albidayer Stud of the UAE, Raoud reached for the second position with 92.79 points, including 5x20 for type, a 20 for head and neck and 3x20 for movement. Finally, third place in the class was given to the high-trotting chestnut representative of Janow Podlaski State Stud from Poland, the four-year-old elegant Erantis (Ascot DD x Eugara / Om El Bellissimo). His high marks for movement (4x20) and another 20 for type made his final score of 92.14 points. The last class of the day featured only two contenders, but what classy contenders they were! Two highest scores among all the male participants. The final win in the qualifying classes belonged to the ten-year-old electrifying E.S. Harir (AJ Dinar x TF Magnums Magic / Magnum Psyche). This gorgeous grey representative of Akmal Stud from Saudi Arabia impressed the judges so much that he received maximum marks for type as well as head and neck and another 2x20 for movement. The jury showed their appreciation for this stunning stallion with the highest total score of the show, 94.43 points. His only rival in the class, the nine-year-old grey representant of Al Khashab Stud from Kuwait, the powerfully moving Shakar Pegasus (Shaezz El Madan x Jameel Pegasus / Gris El Jamaal), did not stay too far behind and with a final result of 93.71 points, including 6x20 for type, 2x20 for head and neck and 5x20 for movement, he was the last horse to qualify for the Sunday championships.

Sunday - Championships

The feelings of anticipation and excitement reached the peak on Sunday morning. However, the organizers decided to serve us a good portion of entertainment before we could move on to the 'main dish', meaning the championships. After a few interesting performances, the time came for the champions to be named and presented to the world. Traditionally, yearling females were the first to go, giving the judges a difficult decision to make. Far from being unanimous, the jury finally decided to divide the three champion titles between three beautiful contenders from the Middle East. With 27 points in the championship, the gold medal was awarded to Dubai Arabian Horse Stud and their delightful D Beisan. When it comes to silver and bronze champion titles, two fillies received the same score in the championships and the final placement on the podium had to be determined by their results in the class. Thus, the winner of class 1A, the captivating chestnut Perfecta Al Jassimya from Qatar, went for silver, while the amazing grey AJ Kayya went home carrying the bronze medal for her proud breeder and owner, Ajman Stud from the UAE. The remaining six fillies that qualified for the championship had to settle for the Top Ten titles. The fact that it is an open championship with such a big group of judges makes it even more exciting as everything can happen. It is not unusual that horses from third position in the class become gold champions. This is exactly what happened in the Junior Fillies Championship, where the majority of votes for gold went to the exotically refined representative of Al Shaqab Stud from Qatar, the silver-grey Siwar Al Shaqab. Skilfully presented by Raphael Curti, Siwar demonstrated a perfect stand up, repeating her success from the 2021 Menton show. Similarly to the yearling fillies' section, the silver and bronze champion titles were decided on the basis of the class scores. In consequence, the winner of class 2A, the beautiful bay RDS Exquisite, had to give place on the podium to the slightly older contender from the UAE. Al Aryam Banafsaj, who also won her class on Friday, took the second place on the podium together with the silver medal, while Al Orasia Stud from Bahrain collected the bronze champion title for RDS Exquisite. Once more, the seven remaining candidates, not lucky enough to win a medal, were awarded the World Top Ten Junior Filly titles.

The judges' verdict in the last female championship of the day hardly surprised anyone, with all three medallists proudly representing Qatar. Very close to being a unanimous champion and certainly one of the crowd's favourites, the noble grey Noft Al Nayfat, won another title for Aljassimya Farm, becoming Gold World Champion Senior Mare. The silver medal was claimed by Al Wajba Stud and their magnificent snow-white Mozn Albidayer, who was also named Best Straight Egyptian Female, while the Bronze World Champion Senior Mare title went to the bay beauty from Al Thumama Stud, the bewitching Belladonna AT. Except from the other seven senior female contenders collecting their Top Ten titles, there was a very special award-giving ceremony for an exceptional Arabian mare. The nine-year-old breathtakingly beautiful Baviera HVP (Marwan Al Shaqab x HB Bessolea / Besson Carol), who shares the stables with the reigning Silver World Champion Senior Mare Mozn Albidayer, collected the prestigious trophy for Platinum World Champion Female. Many times international champion, Baviera won the gold medal at the previous World Championships two years ago.

The podium in the Yearling Colts Championship in some respects resembled the one of yearling fillies. Once more, Dubai Arabian Horse Stud collected the gold medal and again, it was the offspring of their homebred stallion, D Seraj. The 2-point difference in favour of D Sharar made him the reigning Gold World Champion Yearling Colt. Another similarity to the Yearling Fillies Championship was the fact that Al Jassimya Farm again reached for silver however this time it was not a horse that they bred themselves. Very close to becoming gold champion, the refined bay Lehon had to settle for the second place on the podium and the silver medal. The Bronze World Champion Yearling Colt title was awarded to the grey representative of Kuwait, Ezz Alkhashab, making Al Khashab Stud another proud breeder and owner of a world champion.

In the Junior Colt Championship, Dubai Arabian Horse Stud as well as Al Sheikh Stud had many reasons to celebrate. With a substantial advantage over the other seven colts, D Mezyan, bred by Dubai Stud and currently owned by Al Sheikh Stud, took over the top of the podium. Not only was it a great personal success of Sheikh Suliman and his breeding programme but it was also a historical win for Palestine. Al Sheikh Stud won their third World Champion in their short breeding history and it was the first ever gold medal for a Palestinian stud. However, D Mezyan was not the only medallist in this championship born at Dubai Arabian Horse Stud. D Sheimaz, who still belongs to his breeder, acquired the Bronze World Champion Junior Colt title but it was still not the end of Dubai Stud's spectacular success at the 2021 World Championships. Both the sire and dam of the bronze medallist received special awards. The famous Fa El Rasheem (Fa El Shawan x Virtuosa MLR / Versace), who is also the sire of D Mezyan and Lehon, was named Best Sire of the show, while Ladi Veronika (Versace x Nisrs Natevka / Ansata El Nisr) became Best Dam of the 2021 World Championships. A few other significant special awards landed in the hands of Dubai Arabian Horse Stud, including Best Breeder/Owner Trophy, Farm of the Year and Best Breeder in the Show. Also, Al Jassimya Farm's collection of trophies was enhanced with another silver medal, this time for RDS Armani. During the award-giving ceremony, Silver World Champion Junior Colt was accompanied by his proud breeders and owners, Amira and Eiad Safady of Royal Dutch Arabian Stud, one of the most accomplished private breeders in Europe, who worked hard for their success but did not have to wait long for amazing results.

After junior colts there came a time for the final contest of the day. Senior Stallion Championship featured only five finalists. It comes as no surprise that the enchanting E.S. Harir boldly reached for the gold medal, becoming the only unanimous champion of the show. Silver and bronze champion titles went to two refined grey representatives of Kuwait, Shakar Pegasus and Harbi Al Adwan respectively. All the colts and stallions that qualified for the championships but did not win a medal were awarded Top Ten titles. Speaking of titles, the last stallion that attended the award-giving ceremony in Paris won plenty of prizes in the past few years. Already five times World Champion, the masculine and charismatic Equator (QR Marc x Ekliptyka / Ekstern) once again appeared in the Parisian arena to collect the well-deserved title of Platinum World Champion Male. Bred by Michalow State Stud of Poland, Equator was accompanied by his new owners, Al Rajhiat Stud of Saudi Arabia, at the culminating stage of his long and successful show career. In this way, on Sunday afternoon, we already knew all the 2021 world champions.

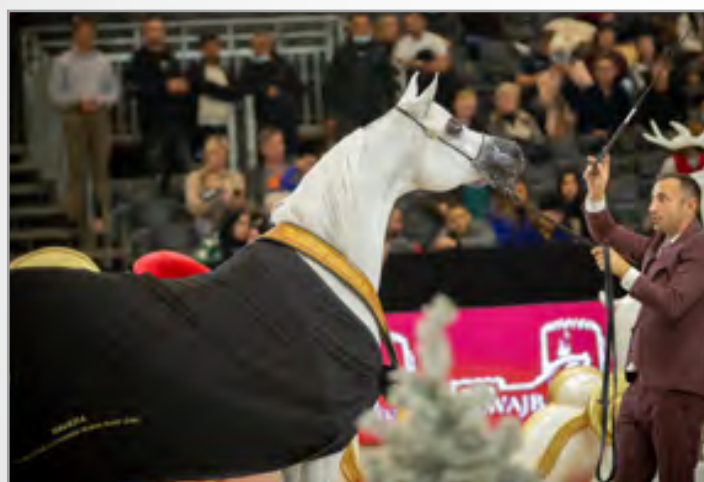

After two long years of waiting, the three days of the show seemed to have passed in the blink of an eye but many magical moments will stay with us forever. May these 40 years of almost continuous celebration of the Arabian horse and its breath-taking beauty remain the feast for the eyes and the food for the souls for all Arabian horse aficionados. Against all odds, 'the show must go on'.

As the Tutto Arabi Team, we would like to thank all our readers as well as all the breeders and owners for their continued support throughout these challenging times. We hope you will stay with us in 2022 which will also bring new readers and enthusiasts of these incredible horses. We were proud to present some new publications in Paris, including vol. XVIII of Arabian Stallions of the World, the current issue of Desert Heritage as well as the wall and table calendars for 2022. All the items exhibited in Paris can be ordered here: info@tuttoarabi.it.

It was also an immense pleasure for us to organise a photo wall for everyone to capture the memories from this great event. The cooperation of Alim Editrice, Tutto Arabi and 'We Women' Project, created by Giorgia Mauri and supported for this special occasion by Mindy Peters Arabians, turned out to be a great idea which met with everyone's enthusiasm and appreciation. Our fantastic photographers, Alessio Azzali and Simone Bergamaschi, managed to capture some great moments from the show. □ was present in Paris during the World Championship 2021 with a dedicated photographic project cosponsored by Mindy Peters Arabians. The project's goal was involving as many people as possible - women and men all together - in support of the idea that young women must be encouraged and helped in finding their way and writing their own history. Many people coming from the Arabian horse world answered to our call to participate in the project and joined us by posing at the booth for a portrait taken by Simone Bergamaschi, the talented photographer who accompanied us in this special event.

The pictures in the following pages tell something of who we are and a lot about our desire to stay together.

Don't forget that united we are unstoppable.

Stay united to reach our common goals in life, to support young people who are our future, the future of all of us.

Since its beginning We, Women project asks the women of the Arabian horse to express their message to the girls and young women who are entering the world today.

The project aims to encouraging girls to take their own path and follow their dream, whatever it may be.

Intimate portraits of strong women determined to achieve their goals and happy to share their experiences. Passion, enthusiasm, foresight, emotion and the desire to tell their stories emerged from the interviews. These generous women and their stories represent the soil on which tomorrow will sprout the lives and stories of our daughters, our granddaughters and our future. It is important to mark a path today, to try to draw a map of thoughts and words of the women of today that will help the women of tomorrow to find their way in the world.

This project is dedicated to Blanca, my daughter, and to all the women who write, thanks to their tenacity, the history of this world every day.
