"Of all the breeds of horses
I photograph, my favorite is the Arabian. No other breed compares to their beauty,
grace, intellect, and curiosity.
My goal is to capture their spirit
and share it with the world."

Horse Shows & Events:

"I love the challenge of photographing a horse show. There are many long hours and it takes a tremendous amount of concentration. But the intensity of the competition and the excitement of the crowd makes it a thrilling experience."

"Capturing the power and strength, the gentleness and beauty of stallions is an honor. Each horse is an individual and I strive to portray their unique qualities that make them special."
