

Forte Village Sardinia

by Giorgia Mauri

Located on the stunning Mediterranean shores of southern Sardinia, just a quick one-hour flight from Rome, Forte Village, is an oasis of luxury and a mecca for world-class experiences unlike any other. Over the past 4 years this extraordinary Italian resort has invested about €60m in new facilities, refurbishment and innovative services to keep its guests extremely happy. The upcoming 2019 season underscores the resorts' star power acclaim with two more luxurious villas, an extensive refurbishment program for the Hotel Castello executive rooms and some suites, new one-of-a-kind restaurants, new swimming pools and these are just some of the reasons to go and visit Forte Village this year!

NEW STUNNINGLY-DESIGNED LUXURY VILLAS

Set in a 50 hectares lush gardens, the resort is home to a variety of accommodations including a selection of luxury villas: top of the range residences from two to four bedrooms, each with a private garden and swimming pool, perfect for those who require the utmost privacy with the benefit of being able to access all the resort’s services on their doorstep. Different solutions to meet the highest expectations, for a holiday that lets you feel “at home”, and pampered by a thousand small details with butler service available 24 hours a day..

Two luxurious new, stunningly-designed private villas are going to make their debut this season and will bring the total number to 13. Offering gorgeous views, a lush private garden with their own swimming pool, relaxing lounge areas, and butler service. The elegant Villa Ambra will have a first-floor terrace extension to accommodate its third bedroom. Two projects studied in detail by a Sardinian architectural firm, who privileged the use of natural materials and architectural details and interior design that recall tradition and the territory’s distinctive features.

EXCLUSIVE SUITES AND ELEGANT FIVE STAR HOTELS

At Forte Village, you find places that seem to belong to your most delightful dreams. Take Le Dune, the resort’s emerald green pathways lead to a group of elegant and exclusive bungalows and suites with first-class personal service and an enviable position as close as you could wish to the resort’s beautiful white sandy beach. New for 2019, the spectacular Infinity swimming pool on the roof of the Forte Bay terrace will provide magnificent views over the unforgettable blue waters of the Mediterranean Sea lapping the shore of south Sardinia.

Hotel Castello is another beachfront masterpiece, an oasis of luxury, elegance and exclusive service just steps away from one of the most stunning beaches in Sardinia. While the hotel was completely refurbished in 2016, for the upcoming season all the sea view Executive Mare rooms will undergo a further soft refurbishment featuring a fresh and luminous Mediterranean style and colorful Sardinian crafts. Also some suites on the exclusive 4th and 5th Executive floors of Hotel Il Castello, including the Royal Suite on the top floor accessible via a lift.

Nestled in the resort’s centuries-old pine groves, Hotel Pineta is the ideal location to escape from the hustle and bustle of daily life and surround yourself with the utmost peace and privacy. Refurbished very recently, the 5 star hotel, which blends perfectly with the seductive mood of its gardens, will be enriched with a lagoon-style pool . It will look like an oasis in the oasis. The intimate Villa del Parco is a member of Leading Hotels of the World. Located in a beautiful corner of the Forte Village grounds the hotel is just a stone’s throw from the enchanting Acquaforte Thalasso & Spa, with its state-of-the-art beauty and medical treatments and unique thalassotherapy circuit, Villa del Parco is the place to be in winter too for the most exclusive wellness.

A PRIVATE SPA FOR ULTIMATE SECLUSION

The power to continue to amaze its guests is one of the secrets of Forte Village who invites them to detoxify, to relax and restore in the new private Spa available for exclusive use since last May. This singular amenity adds a new level of exclusivity and discretion to the resort which is renowned for its wellness offerings and Thalasso therapy program. Guests can relax and detox in the seclusion of their own 300 sq.m. spa with three thalasso pools with the prodigious virtues of seawater, sauna, Hamman and solarium. This new facility also features a double massage area, sensory shower and freshly prepared light food service on request and is an ideal retreat for couples or a small group of up to ten people.

Set in a lush garden, complete privacy is guaranteed with its own separate entrance, reception and changing rooms. Adjacent to the resort's main Acquaforte Spa, guests can also indulge in its larger thalasso circuit, mud therapy center, gym, and specialized spa and state-of-the-art medical and beauty treatments customized to each guest, including the new Aesthetic Medicine Center overseen by Doctor Regina Fortunato.

The combination between the latest technology and the highly qualified medical team enables the new Aesthetic Medicine Center to offer a wide range of non-invasive treatments both for the face and for the body, such as radiofrequency, peeling and fillers, sculpsure and carboxytherapy, even in summer time. These treatments grant outstanding results like rejuvenation of cutaneous tissues, body sculpting with the subsequent reduction of the extra adipose, toning, reduction of the damages caused by the sun.

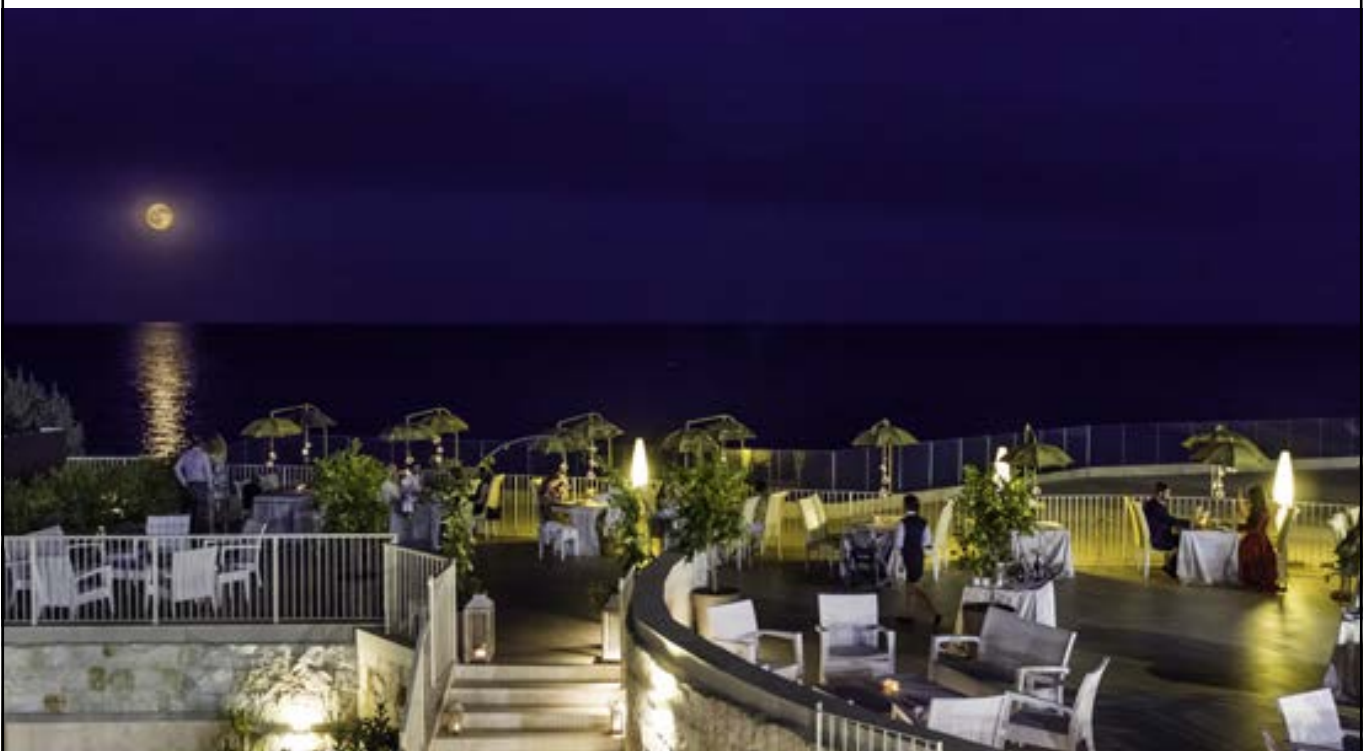

CULINARY EXPLORATIONS

With 21 restaurants in high season and 100 chefs, Forte Village offers an unrivalled gastronomic journey of scents and flavours. The resort has an ensemble of culinary stars who make each dish a real sensory experience whether it is served in a restaurant or during one of the popular Celebrity Chef Nights where visiting Michelin starred chefs host gourmet evenings of their particular style of cuisine.

Rocco Iannone, Massimiliano Mascia, Antonello Arrus and Gianluca Fusto sign the masterpieces that have made Forte Village an exceptional gourmet destination. They are joined by Carlo Cracco for the entire month of August, Alessandro Negrini & Fabio Pisani, chefs of Il Luogo di Aimo and Nadia, 2 Michelin stars restaurant in Milan and a Relais & Chateaux member and Chef Massimiliano Mascia who arrives at Forte Village again with the Terrazza San Domenico from the San Domenico restaurant in Imola, two Michelin Stars since 1977.

Under the most beautiful Mediterranean sky, in the wonderful scenery of Forte Bay, between July and August, there is a constellation of stars and top performers of Italian and international cuisine. With whom to share the privilege of an unforgettable dinner tasting signature dishes that can narrate territories, passions, styles and characters of those who knew how to transform a life in the kitchen into sublime art. Here is some of the Michelin Starred Chefs who hosted the Celebrity Chef Nights in 2018: Heinz Beck, Giuseppe Mancino, Franck Reynaud, Alfio Ghezzi, Fabio Ciervo, Andrea Berton, Sylvestre Wahid, Alfons Schuhbeck, Theodor Falser. But tradition has it that the guests of Forte Village every year are pleasantly surprised by a series of innovations that also follow the latest trends with regard to catering so some new Michelin Starred Chefs and new ethnic restaurants will be soon unveiled.

A HIGH FASHION SHOPPING IN THE NEW PIAZZETTA

The Forte Village is also synonymous with high fashion. During their vacation at the best resort in the world, guests are able to shop at the wide range of luxury boutiques offering the foremost Italian and international designer labels in Piazza Luisa and the new Piazzetta, with a semi covered area which will recall Via della Spiga fashion district in Milan.

THE WORLD'S LEADING RESORT

The extraordinary uniqueness of the Forte Village has just been reconfirmed for the twenty-first consecutive time with the award of the prestigious title "World's Leading Resort 2018". At the World Travel Awards ceremony, the resort was also awarded with two additional coveted titles: "World's Leading Luxury Family Resort 2018" and "World's Leading Sports Academy 2018.", a very important prize for the endless facilities
