Arabian Stud Europe – A boutique stud farm located on the Dutch-German border. It is run by Talitha Bakker and her boyfriend Louis Vulker. Situated at the forest edge, Arabian Stud Europe is the home to a handful of carefully selected mares and their high quality offspring. It is also the home to four breeding stallions. The oldest being the famous Black stallion Jazzmeen (Essteem x Jasmyne by Nyhl el Jamaal). This special stallion has it all, he is tall, typeful, has the movement and can also perform! He was ridden in cross country and showjumping up to 1.30m level!

Another stallion at the farm is ASE Marajó (Marajj x Manilah), a stallion who won many shows and also performance at CEI 120km endurance races. Two other stallions at stud are both sons of the praised broodmare

ASE Bisiriya Hlayyil. Their names are ASE Magnificent (by ZT Magnanimus) who is currently on lease to Aynur Arabians in Germany and the ultra exotic ASE Juilliard (by Da Vinci) who is having his first breeding season this year. At Arabian Stud Europe, horses need to be modern and typey with big eyes and strong movement but above all, good characters and the will to perform.

Foundation mare at the farm is the mare Manilah. This mare is a daughter of Radamess II (Salaa el Dine) and comes out of the superb broodmare Marischka (Plakat). Manilah has performed in cross country jumping in the past and was named Gold medal champion in Belgium and Holland as well as a Best in show Title. She also won the 400m sprint at the age of 15! Manilah has left the farm three daughters. ASE Majestika (by Vitorio TO), ASE Aaliyah Hlayyil (by Hlayyil Ramadan) and the best broodmare at the farm, ASE Bisiriya Hlayyil. This mare is sired by the early deceased Bishr (Hlayyil Ramadan). Bisiriya has produced only champions. Her offspring is seen inside the stables of Knocke Arabians (Bacchus KA by QR Marc), Southern Chariot Stud, Australia and four of them are still owned by Arabian Stud Europe. The two earlier mentioned breeding stallions and the show champions ASE Kamiliya Hlayyil (by Kahil al Shaqab) and the promising three times gold medal winning ASE

Farhan (by RFI Farid).

Bisiriya was a silver medal champion as a youngster and performed very well in endurance with a 3rd position at the CEI 120km endurance race in Babenhausen, Germany. She is currently in foal to RHR Heir of Marwan for Southern Chariot Stud.

Another Important mare is the Brazilian import Geraldine el Jamaal. Geraldine was bred by Haras Meia Lua of Lenita Perroy and is a direct daughter of Ali Jamaal. Her dam is the beautiful Gai Natascha who is by Bey Shah and out of the classic Gai Radiance (Gai Parada x Zee Radiance). Geraldine has given the farm four fillies and is currently in foal to WH Justice. Geraldine also successfully performed in endurance until 81km races. The farm still owns two daughters of her. The exotic ASE Genevieve el Marc (by QR Marc) and the moving machine ASE Gabriella al Gazal (by Gazal al Shaqab) – the last one will be retained for the future.

A young rising star at the farm is the mare ASE Falaree. She is by Fadi al Shaqab and comes out of Dakaree (Dakar el Jamaal). Dakaree was bought by Arabian Stud Europe from the USA in 2008 and sold to Al Shaqab in 2013. Falaree is the only daughter left of her at the farm. Falaree is currently in foal to ASE Magnificent (ZT Magnanimous x ASE Bisiriya Hlayyil).

The Farm also has two mares in leasing. The mare Geisha P (Major x Piruna by Piruet) is leased from Pintar Arabians in Slovenia. While being in Holland, Geisha also performed in endurance. She won the won the 23km endurance race in Someren and was second at the 42km endurance race in Otterlo. Geisha is closely related to World reserve champion endurance Laiza de Jalima. Geisha is currently in foal to ASE Marajó.

The second lease mare of the farm, is the homebred ASE Sayuri (Fadi al Shaqab x Mata Hari HY by Lumiar Amadeus). Sayuri was bred by Arabian Stud Europe in 2013 and was then sold to Paula Bohmer, where she won the National Reserve champion mare title. This year Sayuri gave birth to an extraordinary colt by AJ Portofino who is owned by Al Jood Stud from Qatar. Sayuri is currently in foal to ASE Juilliard for 2019.

Arabian Stud Europe also has a Straight Egyptian division. The mare Medina el Assuad (Mouazar x Masoura by El Araby I) joined the studfarm in 2016. This mare is Al Khamsa – Blue List and traces back to Moheba II. Medina gave birth to her first foal this year. A very refined and extreme moving colt named ASE Nadeem (by Najm al Rayyan). Medina is currently bred to Jamil al Rayyan in cooperation with Gideon Reissel for 2019.

Besides top show and breeding horses, the farm also in the home to several endurance horses. One of them is the talented Ralihadiyah (AAS Theeb x AAS Ghazala by Ibn Taam-Rud). Ralihadiyah is a very rare Saudi Desert bred from the Dahman/Hadriya strain. He is blue star – al khamisa. He is currently working on his novice qualification and will have his first international FEI season next year.

At Arabian Stud Europe, the horses are like family. With the love and passion of Louis and Talitha, the farm has grown into a serene place filled with the beauty of well-bred Arabian Horses. You are always welcome for a visit
