Uri Shaked is an expert Arabian horse handler and a professional and very active manager of his farm in Israel. All started with a great passion as everybody knows the Israelian area has a long tradition of Arabian horses. Uri felt in love with Arabian horses when he was a child and began his career as a trainer. In Israel there are many Arabian horse shows and Uri was immediately involved in them thanks to his passion for the purity, integrity and beauty of those fantastic creatures.

He also worked in Italy at Giacomo Capacci Training Center where he helped Mr. Capacci to train horses and to show them as well. Uri is one of the most respected horse man in Israel and many clients give him every day their trust on buying horses all over the world. His farm and his training center are among the most prestigious in Israel. Uri is one of the most respected Horse Men in Israel and all around the Globe.
