ZT LUDJTEYNA

ZT Ludjteyna, a daughter of Ludjin el Jamaal and the black US National Champion mare Shahteyna, was born at the famous studfarm of Count Federico Zichy Thyssen from Argentina. There she foaled the amazing colt ZT Marwteyn by Marwan al Shaqab. In 2012, ZT Ludjteyna was discovered by Ward Bemong, manager of Athbah Stud. Ward had a great admiration for Ludjteyna as being a daughter of the great Shahteyna, a mare Ward still remembered from his time at Micheal Byatt, where everything has started for him. He bought Ludjteyna and brought her over to Belgium. It was there where Ludjteyna was bred to world champion EKS Alihandro, what resulted in the black colt Pistorius. In 2016, Pistorius was named All Nations Cup, Gold medal champion gelding. Since 2021, ZT Ludjteyna is owned by Arabian Stud Europe and is booked to the young and exciting black WH Justice son: ASE Justice el Jamaal for 2022!

GERALDYNE EL JAMAAL (Ali jamaal x Gai Natascha)

GERALDYNE EL JAMAAL

The timeless beauty Gerald dyne el Jamaal was born at Lenita Peroy's famous studfarm Haras Meia Lua in Sao Paolo, Brazil. The father of Gerald dyne is the legendary Ali Jamaal. A stallion who needs no further introduction. Gerald dyne is one of his youngest daughters and comes from the fantastic damline of Gai Natascha. Gai Natascha was bred by the Gainey farms and is a daughter of another world famous stallion, Bey Shah and comes out of Gai Randiance, who is the full sister to the Halsdon Arabians owned Gai Radiant. Gerald dyne is the combination of multiple genetic masterpieces. When looking at Gerald dyne, you can strongly see Ali Jamaal resembled in her eyes, her small pointy ears and her neck. Shake a plastic bag and Gerald dyne will turn into a moving machine, full snort and blow, like her grandsire Bey Shah. See her under saddle and you will see the resemblance of Gai Parada. Before Gerald dyne found her forever home with Arabian Stud Europe in The Netherlands, she left offspring at two famous breeding farms in Brazil. The first one being Haras Serondella, the farm of Fabio Amoroso. "I had the pleasure to buy Gerald dyne el Jamaal directly from Lenita when she was a filly," Fabio recalls. "She was a very nice one! I was very impressed by her overall quality and balance and was sure she was going to be a great producer! Gerald dyne is a very strong representative of her pedigree with the Jamaal unforgiven look associated with the Bey Shah 'look at me' attitude." In 2010 Gerald dyne was sold to Haras Stigmatas, Brazil, in foal to Henno Serondella. It was here where the first Black offspring of Gerald dyne was born. A gorgeous filly named Stig Josephine.

In the autumn of 2011, Gerald dyne el Jamaal was sold to Talitha Bakker of Arabian Stud Europe, The Netherlands.

In 2019, Gerald dyne gave birth to an amazing Black colt sired by the champion maker WH Justice. This colt, ASE Justice el Jamaal was exactly what you would expect from the cross WH Justice and Ali Jamaal. The big dark eyes of Gerald dyne/Ali Jamaal and the amazing show attitude and refinement of WH Justice. ASE Justice el Jamaal, or Black as we all call him, was noticed by Diaa Kara-Ali at an early age and was acquired for his Al Dawla Arabians in Australia. Today, this spectacular colt has his residence at Elba Training centre in Belgium.

In 2021, Gerald dyne gave two black foals by embryo transfer. One extraordinary pretty filly sired by Magic Magnifique called Guinevere PKA. This homozygous black filly is bred and owned by Peka Arabians from The Netherlands.

The other black foal was born late May and was again a filly! Sired by D Angelo and bred and owned by Joost Boel of Elizar Arabians, Belgium.

For 2022, Geraldnye el Jamaal is expecting two foals by embryo transfer. One sired by the Black stallion AJ Yas (by AJ Mardan).

Besides exceeding all expectations in the breeding barn, Geraldnye is also doing high level endurance with her owner Talitha Bakker. Broken in at the age of 15, Geraldnye is at the start were most horses would retire. In the three years of her endurance career, Geraldnye finished a total of 830km without any elimination! Her most recent accomplishment is the successful finish of a 170km endurance ride in the German mountains "Schwäbische Alb". With 19 years of age, she is still fit and full of life! □
