Pride of Poland & Summer Sale 2026

Key Information for Auction Participants

I. Participation in the Auction

Below is a summary of the key provisions governing the terms and conditions of the Pride of Poland and Summer Sale 2026 auctions. The full terms and conditions of the auctions are set out in the Auction Regulations, published on the auction's website www.prideofpoland.eu. In the event of any discrepancy between this document and the Auction Regulations, the provisions of the Auction Regulations shall prevail.

1. An Auction Participant may participate in the Auction either in person or through an authorised representative. If an Auction Participant acts through an authorised representative, the representative shall present an appropriate power of attorney bearing legible signatures (either the original or a copy). The Organiser reserves the right to refuse participation in the Auction if such document is not provided.
2. Participation in the Auction is conditional upon reading and accepting the Auction Regulations. By participating in the Auction, the Participant acknowledges and accepts the Auction Regulations.
3. The Participant is required to provide true, complete and up-to-date information. The Organiser is entitled to verify the accuracy of such information.
4. In order to participate in the bidding, an Auction Participant shall pay a bid deposit in the amount of EUR 5,000.00 (in words: five thousand euros), regardless of the number of lots the Participant intends to purchase. Failure to pay the bid deposit shall constitute grounds for refusal of admission to the Auction.

The bid deposit may be paid as follows:

- a) For On-Live Participants: by bank transfer to the bank account specified by the Organiser on the website www.prideofpoland.eu (in PLN or EUR), or in cash (PLN or EUR), or by cashless payment (PLN or EUR) using a payment terminal, provided that the necessary technical facilities for terminal payments are available.
 - b) For On-Line Participants: through the Equibid online platform.
5. The bid deposit shall be deemed paid if:
 - a) the payment has been credited to the Organiser's bank account before the commencement of the Auction, or the payer is able to present a bank document confirming successful payment;
 - b) the payment has been made using a payment terminal no later than before the commencement of the Auction;
 - c) the payment has been made in cash to a person designated by the Organiser no earlier than immediately prior to the commencement of the Auction.
 6. If an authorised representative (agent) is authorised to act on behalf of more than one Participant in the Auction, only one bid deposit shall be required.
 7. In the case of an On-Line Auction, payment of a financial security deposit, referred to as the "Confirmation Payment", is required. This amount must be paid immediately, and no later than 20 minutes after the Purchase Price has been knocked down, without any possibility of extension. The minimum refundable amount of the Confirmation Payment is specified in the separate Terms and Conditions of the Equibid online platform.
 8. Payment of the bid deposit entitles the Participant to bid on any lot offered at the Auction. By paying the bid deposit, the Participant undertakes to comply with the Auction Terms and Conditions. The Participant is required to sign the Auction Terms and Conditions during the registration process.
 9. The bid deposit serves as security for payment of the Purchase Price and shall be credited towards the Purchase Price.
 10. The amount established during the bidding, being the hammer price declared by the Auctioneer, shall be increased by the applicable value added tax (VAT), where required under generally applicable law, at the rates prescribed by such law.
 11. If no Transaction is concluded, the bid deposit shall be refunded within 30 days following the conclusion of the Auction. The Organiser shall deduct any bank charges incurred in connection with the receipt, refund or transfer of the bid deposit.
 12. The bid deposit shall be forfeited if, for reasons attributable to the Buyer, the purchase of the auctioned lot is not completed, in particular where the Buyer fails to pay the outstanding balance of the Purchase Price within 14 days of the Transaction, or within such other period as may be agreed in a contract concluded between the Consignor and the Buyer.
